Knitters and Guards Stage Close 4 to 3 Affair, With Guard Rally Falling Just Short; Boyd too Much for Big Star Batters.

The Hosiery Mill chalked up a 4 to 3 victory over the Home Guards in the first game of a double header Friday night in the City Softball circuit, and Western Auto stopped Big Star 12 to 2 in the five-inning nightcap.

The Knitters coupled three hits with Home Guard errors in the fourth for all of their tallies.

The Guards scored first in the second inning on a hit and an error, and a walk and Carl Herndon's first home run of the season gave the Guards two tallies in the last of the sixth when time was called on the game.

While Archie Boyd was pitching three hit ball, the Autos blasted eleven hits, coupling them with eight Big Star errors to score their triumph.

The winners scored in every frame.

Some County Cotton Land Is Abandoned

Abandonment of cotton acreage in this county as the result of failure of seed to germinate in the protracted dry weather that continued for about a month prior to rains the past week will be around twenty-five percent, County Agent J. W. Sanders reported today.

Most cotton farmers, feeling it is now too late to get good stands, have decided not to attempt re-planting and are applying for cotton stamp privileges on an acreage diversion basis. The county agent's office was swamped today with growers seeking permission to abandon some of their land planted to cotton, and to qualify for benefits accruing under the enlarged AAA parity program. The final date for qualifying under the cotton stamp plan is a week hence, Saturday, June 14, Mr. Sanders said.

A few areas report good stands of cotton, but others report most of the seed put into the ground more than a month ago did not come up at all, and now that there has been rain many feel it came too late to permit satisfactory cotton yields from acreage that might be re-planted now.

Chorus To Sing Here.
The Golden Star chorus of Oxford will appear in a musical recital at the New Bethel Baptist church, colored, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Beginning of World Missions

"BRASS TACKS" ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Elymas struck with blindness. "And He said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation."—Mark 16:15.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for June 8 is Acts 12:25-13:12, the Golden Text being Mark 16:15. "And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation.")

You remember our last lesson ended when a prophet arose in the church at Antioch and foretold that there would be severe famine, the brethren, although poor themselves, collected food and sent it to Jerusalem by the hands of Saul and Barnabas. This lesson starts when Barnabas and Saul came back to Antioch after their mission had been accomplished, probably around the beginning of the year A. D. 45. With them they brought John, whose surname was Mark, and who was a relative of Barnabas.

At the church at Antioch were certain prophets, and teachers, such as Barnabas and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen and Saul. These men depended upon the direction of the Holy Spirit, and they fasted and prayed continually. And the Holy Ghost said to them that they should separate Barnabas and Saul from the rest and send them away to preach to other people. So they fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them. St. Luke tells us, and sent them away. With them went Barnabas' relative, John. So these three, "being sent by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus." Cyprus is an island off the coast of Syria. At Salamis, where Jews were plentiful, they preached in the Jewish synagogues. This city was on the eastern end of the island and the native place of Barnabas, where he and John were known. Some of the people of the island were already Christians, and the fact that they were among relatives and friends gave them an advantage in beginning their work.

Their next step was Paphos, capital of the island, which was ruled over by Sergius Paulus, a Roman but a man of understanding. He called Barnabas and Saul to him to explain to him the new religion. Now there was also at Paphos a Jew who claimed to be a magician and sorcerer and called himself Elymas. He was a strong influence in the city, and he strongly opposed Saul and Barnabas and their attempts to interest Sergius Paulus in their teaching. Saul, who at this time is called Paul for the first time, realized how much mischief this man would cause, and "filled with the Holy Ghost, he looked straight at Elymas and said: 'O full of all subtlety and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?'

"And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season." Immediately a mist rose before Elymas' eyes, which darkened to total blindness so that he went about groping for someone to lead him. When the deputy, Sergius Paulus, saw this miracle, he believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord. Paul now has begun to appear as the early Christian church. And this is the beginning of many journeys of the first Christian missionaries to carry the Word of God to the separate Barnabas and Saul from the

"Let Not Man Put Asunder"

THE success of marriage depends upon two people's abilities and efforts towards finding a middle ground and philosophy and action acceptable to both. Life is like that. Peace, progress, civilization and happiness all depend upon cooperation and agreement between men. The church provides common ground for all men in the fundamentals of truth and morality on which it is based. It is the privilege and duty of each of us to become a part of the movement that works to benefit everyone.

Attend the services of the church of your choice — participate in its activities — be a part of the influence that—as much as any other single factor—has made Henderson the town that it is, that has built and prospered our community life.
