A Woman's Job

But in truth it is a great thing to be a woman in a man's world. It is a great thing to be a woman in a man's world. It is a great thing to be a woman in a man's world.

What The People Want

Decision of the county commissioners to postpone indefinitely their plans for abandonment of the county home was in line with the wishes of a great many, if indeed not a majority, of the people of the county. Just how much of the opposition to the plan stemmed from sympathy for aged and indigent citizens dependent upon public support, and how much was resentment for the unannounced procedure of the commissioners in determining their course in the matter is speculative, but it would not be surprising if there were an identifiable nucleus in both directions.

What Do You Know About North Carolina?

1. What does it cost the State each day to care for its prisoners? 2. As a national defense measure, what protection does North Carolina give homing pigeons? 3. Who was Polk county named for? 4. What disposition was made of hostile Indians captured in early North Carolina? 5. How much population is it estimated that North Carolina will have in 1960? 6. What oath, in addition to the marriage vows, was required of couples in 1866? 7. The daily per capita cost for the care and maintenance of North Carolina's prisoners last year was a fraction under 61 cents. It figured exactly 6094 cents. The average number of prisoners for the year was 9,750. 8. Under an act of the 1941 legislature to protect homing pigeons because of their value to the national defense, it is unlawful to molest these birds in any way as they pass through the State. Many of these birds are trained on this area of North Carolina, and it is the intention of the State to give them protection. 9. Polk county, formed in 1833 from Rutherford and Henderson, was named for Lieutenant Colonel William Polk, of Raleigh, Revolutionary War patriot and leader. Col. Polk was born in Mecklenburg county, and lived in that county until he moved to Raleigh about 1810. He played an active part in the adoption of the Mecklenburg Resolves. At the beginning of the war he was commissioned an officer and took part in General Washington's northern campaign. After the Battle of Juncos town (October 4, 1777), in which he was wounded, he was ordered south with General Gates. He was at the

WHY INSTALLMENT CREDIT CONTROL?

(N. Y. Journal of Commerce) President Roosevelt asked yesterday that control over installment credit terms be included among the new powers that Congress is expected to give the Federal Trade Commission. It is reported that this control is to be used to limit installment terms to a cash down payment of at least 20 percent with the balance payable within 12 months. At the inception of the defense program such a proposal would have been a great boon. Expanding individual incomes in the post-war period of inflation, when the Government would be required to meet the needs of a population of 100,000,000, would be a great boon. Aiding Canada's Crop

It is a year ago that the time came when the numbers of tobacco growers in this and other sections of the North Carolina bright leaf producing belts go to Canada to harvest the year's crop in the Dominion. They are well paid for their work, and good pay is what every individual wants about as much as anything else.
