Bulldogs Roll Over Roxboro High For 26-0 Triumph

Henderson Shows Power In Crushing The Ramblers Vanderbilt

Roxboro Penetrates Henderson Territory Just Once. Moving to the 45; Preston Blue Taking a Pass.

to the Rexbere 44. backfield work, and plenty of good extra point. In the pard quaries, the Bulldogs rolled to two more touch-downs, and added both points, one from placement by Black Grissom, and a line play by Richard Johnson

Allen intercepted the Roxboro pass Johnson and Carles Mills paired to 26 when the visitors called time On the next play. Johnson pi up six yands, and Mills foll. play to Jimmy Sams in Not a Henderson cames kno touchdown's door a imposer up eight on a reverse, but Roxbornheld, taking the ball on the six Roxboro tried one play before kick-ing, with C. Mills bringing the kist back to the 26 as the quarter end-headed for pay dist, only to be stagped when Roxboro held on th Henderson and Roxboro exce to kick. Henderson with C. Mills taking the Roxbon to go, Joans m spun through the Closing quotatic is; Roxboro line for 23 yards and a first American Radiator down on the 12. On the next play. American Telephone Mills circled his left end, scoring American Tobacco B

Blue Goes 50 Yards. After the kick-off Coach Bob Broome sent several of his reserves into the fray H. Mills was downed by the fray have th into the fray. H. Mills was downed Columbia Gas & Elec C on the 33 when Henderson forced Commercial Solvents Roxboro to kick. Mills then picked Consolidated Oil Co up five, McGhee got three then got Curtiss Wright two more for a first down, Roxboro DuPont stiffened on the next two plys, holding Henderson on the 47, with third and nine to go. Powers faked a kick, then passed to Preston Blue out in the open, and Blue went 50 yards to score, collecting some nice. yards to score, collecting some nice blocking along the way. Grissom Standard Oil Co N J converted the point, from placement. U S Steel THE THE PARTY OF T for the point.

Two new gridiron giants will ann the fourth period, the Bulldogs threatened again as the regulars re-

Goes 50-Yards After then Mills added two, but two passes thely to Priday afternoon to crash a lughly regarded Ruxborn brain, 26 to 0, thus evening with the Ramblers for a shellacking given Hemierson last year in Hoxborn. The Buildows were just supposed.

The Buildows were just supposed.

The Buildows were just supposed.

This paint but it was short-lived for Hurley Mills stepped in on the Roxborn from the Rox

The big boy wa

down in each of the first two periods, and failed each time to add the stead were leaders in the line. Fos. Roxboro Henderson

-Whitt RG-Umsted T-Wagstaff RE-Poole B-Clayton HB—J=mes

moire: Renn, handlinesman: Powel DUKE BLUE DEVILS TO PLAY COLGATE IN

DURHAM SATURDAY

Stock Trend ls Irregular

New York, Oct. 11 .- (AP)-Stocks ed along an irregular by-path to day aided by reports of stiff Russian esistance and bedeviled by new deense labor troubles.
The approaching long week-end boot to the midfield stand. Hender-son moved for a first foun, then Johnson picked up these. Two passes failed, and with a foorth and seven standing up. Johnson ripped the line Anaconda Atlantic Coast Line Atlantic Refining 10 1-8

Prices Greatly Reduced On All

USED CARS

Legg-Parham Co.

Buick Dealers.

(Continued From Page One) want higher prices on non-essential tuff, to limit buying all the can, but they want to keep the advance strictly under governmental regula-

Taxation Method. Now, how to accomplish this? Secretary Morgenthau especially precribes the taxation method. The Treasury needs the taxation money, been in the habit of buying a 15-cent | The dancing of the Dames is most

Duke To Play Texas A. & M., on Duke University's sche-for 1942, replacing two teams immediately subside to 15 cents of nice ground gaming plays, the Bulldogs rolled down to the Roxboro according to information received down to the Roxboro according to the Roxboro according to the Roxboro according to the Roxboro according to Duke's 1942 schedule has not been publicly announced as yet, and the story received here may have its flaws, but it is believed to be straight.

Up the slack of a depression, by a bargam counter rush to buy everything they couldn't buy previously.

Wait Till Next March.

CAROLINA-TULANE GAME RENEWS VERY

STATE PLAYS FURMAN Record Crowd

Capital Gossip

By HENRY AVERILL

drastic shakeup in highway patrol methods of meeting the critical accident situation in North Carolina was forecast by the bureau more than a week ago; but that is quite inhipportant.

If, during the five days and five nights on which the gates will be open, these visitors are looking for educational displess, fun and thrills. Manager J. S. Dorton said today they'll find an abundance of everything that goes to make up a re-ledge that there, will be made an poks—notably the 60 miles speed of Dr. Dorton, ome of the statutes now on the f "selective empression to show what it phases tiven a fair chance to show what it phases will do in the way of reducing the appalling toll of lives now being the inglest ever by several thoustaken daily on North Carolina high- and dollar

By "selective enforcement" if By "selective enforcement" it should be distinctly understood that the commissioner does not mean that stand attack. e picked out upon whom to proctice | mobile inforcement. It does mean that midway with concessions and lent lac: where the most accidents are shows. ccuring will be selected for especial ttention from the patrolmen and BRING ON THE DAMES REVUE nat selected officers will be inmicted to bear down with particu-Mas on certain offenses which statistics show are causing a all star east. remendous proportion of the North larolina fitalities. Of course, the commissioner realzes that his new plan will not be after the maneuvers are over the stage and the hundred or more patrolmen now fied up with them are available dancing classes them as one of the or general duty gain. He does believe, however, that recial concentrations in the zones f createst danger, with more night patrolling than even in the past, will crive to cut down the terrible

Economists In Dispute

or one thing. He's urged increased evies upon nearly everything in the luxury category and upon quite a few things that are middling necessary. And Congress provided him with the required law, which began to take effect October 1. Naturally salesmanship tacked the extra percentage onto its consumers' bills. It tacked on more, too.

It is noticeable from the very jump. Illustratively, occasionally I've drink. Under the new law that drink's price is 20 cents. An extra nickel isn't much, but it's a start some of the dough, and is gl d of it. At the same time I cut down on when Johnson picked up two, here from sources considered en- daily? Henry Morgenthan's and Marthen Mills added two, but two passes thely trustworthy.

Texas A. & M. will replace Mary- a slump in the bar's business will of a few plays later with loss aroung towards the loss aroung towards the loss aroung towards the loss aroung towards the loss fine lies takene with Texas A. & M. will be played in Durham next fall, probably in October. The Vanderbill game will be on that universities. So how'll they be fixed to take

Futhermore, the average middle

RENEWS VERY HOT RIVALRY
In store for him when he gets his next income tax bill, in March, 1942
It'll be about three times his last hattest football rivalries will In short, the economists to when wed at New Orleans next Sat-October 18, when North Caro- Henry Morganthau, Marsiner Eccles and one game ended in an exciting to me the other day. "depressions aren't caused so much by what folks

Is Expected At State Fair

Daily Dispatch Bureau, In the Sir Walter Botel

w Motor Vehicle Commissioner T. bulanced since into the 84-year old exposition.

If during the five days and five five days and five days are the five days and five days.

uncement carries with it the It will be the fifth fair operated -Mr. Word's idea is that the plan that "agriculture, education and in-"selective enforcement" shall be dustry should be given primary empremium list for the ex-ll this year reach $23,000.

On the other side of the picture ing of 35,000, the enter min. nt Tenture are not Il be outstanding grandtions, Lucky Teter and iny particular class of persons will His Hell Drivers, harness and auto-

Sollie Childs brings to the stage of the Stavenson Sunday one of the seasons smartest revues featuring an Notable in the cast is the bicycle riding of Page and Jewett, being the country's outstanding high bike rid-ers. Page and Jewett will hold the able to show all its best results un- audience every minute they are on Hart and Allison's own style > finest dance teams on the American stage today. Their rendition of the dance to the overture. Poet and Peasant alone places them mong the top flight dancers. Hart and Allison do justice to comedy also. Their version of the Apache dance s par excellent.

Another outstanding performer omes to you in the person of Glenn Mason, known in the show world sone of the top xilophonists of the ountry today. His playing and instrument being most outstanding. Jessica Garwood being one of the sweetest singers of swing songs does justice to her version of yours and the Swedish song The Hut Sut Song. Miss Garwood has been the songstress with some of the largest pands of the country.

For all around amusement Frankin and his Pals, is one of the cleverest acts of its kind. Ffanklin does wonders with his pals a very enteraining and pleasing net. Baron and Durand do the impossible in their version of how tumbling should be done. This act is one of the funnicst acts of its kind on he American stage today. Harry Shannon, Jr. is the Master of ceremonies and a very fine performer. He is a finished musician being the conductor of the band.

A Ride in a Paper Boat MARIE BLIZARD

CHAPTER TWENTY-FIVE while I'm coming back in Septem- work to the younger Dr. Kelsey. SUE OPENED the door to the home-coming Adamses and Fennells. She said, "Hello, Funny already at work on budgets: train- the high taxes and mortgage pay-Faces! I got here too late to go to fare, gas, electricity, lunches for ments were deducted. But it was the station with Lou and Toby, but Eric, food for the two of them on enough, so that he could have her I don't have to leave until I've sum- it might be nice in the sum- present.

looking in, drinking it all in. Louise you had a car, any kind of a car, had had in Hollywood, Hallie was had put up new curtains. There was a slip-cover on the lounge. There were more pictures on the walls and two more rows of crowded bookshelves. But it was almost the same as that night when Eric half a Trible is only the hadring of the same as that night when Eric half a Trible is only the hadring of a car, any kind of a car, and the lake. I don't know about tennis. Of course you might meet some people . . ."

"I could go to the lake. I don't know about tennis. Of course you might meet some people . . ."

"I could go for a little country trunk and small luggage was strapped to the car, the overflow to be carted in Sue's car, and the three of them started for the barries."

tears in her eyes. "Happy ones," summer," Eric said. Thi going to she said to Toby, who saw them, see Meyerling at once, and the high and angular and painted a de-You don't know what it means to other producers." come home."

I can speak plainly?"

but things are pretty slow, with the summer coming along. We're putting more shows on in the fall, but you know we coast during the wark down sanset boutevard, never down sanset boutevard, n

Hallie thought: "He's sweet! spoke her thoughts out loud. put in. "Hallie, did Louise tell you earthy things.

I'm going to Europe with Aunt | Sue and Augusta Amberson were in person. Hallie and Eric nodded.

them. 'Auntle won't part with any salary for a caretaker. What I thought was that you kids would work and his recent illness. He questions could Win ask about place. And a bigger one the next back. Sue, you are an angel longer than they knew, straight from the blue."

Augusta Amberson She had a lump in her throat and tears in her eyes. "Happy ones," Eric said. "I'm going to was it the sort of country place ome home."

"If you should happen to want pressing greenish brown. Its rooms to stay on"—Sue did not say "have were many and small, and decorat-Louise said, coming in from the to stay on"-there's plenty of ed and furnished with the heavy kitchenette with a platter of wood and coal, and the vegetable decore of the Victorian period which garden yield is pretty good—if had been the fashion when it was built.

Eric looked surprised, innocent. Worburn; her future was secured spreading lawns, on tall, cool-giv-"Why not?" he wanted to know. | for a while. She wasn't in Holly- ing trees and, on that June day, "All I've got to offer you is a wood. She'd never again have to there was a riot of color in the uncakes-and-carfare job, old man, walk down Sunset boulevard, never tended garden.

"Get to it, darling," Louise wich that very night. Some funda- hearths.

I had to squeeze you in. The best I dreamed of the garden all that sort of late to get started, but could get, with a 13-week guaran- night. Under her magic touch the maybe you can get something out tee, is $20 a week."

Hallie felt her rising hopes do a sharp side-slip. Twenty a week in New York' earth would yield wholesome of the vegetable garden. . . If you get a commutation ticket, the peas and good herbs. And flowers to remind her of the garden at only a 15-minute drive. I guess Eric said gallantly, "That's swell, home. She would tend the earth that's all."

New York'

Toby. I'm not too proud to take it. and it would give back its fruit to Hallie said, "Is it all right to her. The years of worry and work have company?"

not sailing for five weeks, but the Eric was half asleep. "Win can weeks sped by. Hallie had three stay where he is." "I've sub-let my studio for the weeks in New York, and then she "But why, darling? Surely we summer, so you'll have to clear out went to Worburn with Louise to can have him for a week-end."

by the first of June; but we want somebody to live at the place in the country, sort of keep an eye on it."

Spend a fortnight.

Dr. Singleton had rented his house. He was living "temporarily" with a crony, a retired physician, "Questions? About what?" on it."
"Yes Louise said brightly, "that's the second job."
with a crony, a retired physician, Dr. Goodenough, and so Halle stayed those two weeks with head in the pillow. "About Sheila—the stayed those two weeks with head in the pillow." "Now set selections of the pillow." "About Sheila—the stayed those two weeks with head in the pillow." "About Sheila—the stayed those two weeks with head in the pillow." "About Sheila—the stayed those two weeks with head in the pillow." "About Sheila—the stayed those two weeks with head in the pillow." "About Sheila—the stayed those two weeks with head in the pillow." "About Sheila—the stayed those two weeks with head in the pillow." "About Sheila—the stayed those two weeks with head in the pillow." "About Sheila and the pillow."

have a nice, big, comfortable house "kept his finger" on special cases, Sheila? to live in-indefinitely, because, but he had turned over most of his old car put into good shape as a turned over the keys and a few mer." Eric said dreamily. "Any suggestions. . . I've got cock swimming or tennia?"

After two weeks of bridge parties, luncheons and teas given for Sue pulled at the lobe of her ear.
Hallie stood in the doorway. "Yes and no," she answered. "If brightly of the wonderful time she said, "This is only the beginning the answer to a prayer. When I go three of them started for the house Next year we'll have a bigger to Worburn, I can bring by old car that was to be their home for

Augusta Amberson's house

b." Eric said.
"You're among friends, Adams. It wasn't the cocktail that made hill and its many windows looked her limbs sing; she was going to out upon rolling countryside and the big house just back of Green- wood in the baskets by the wide mental thing in her made her long 'Trankly, the best I can do for you is a bit on a morning program.

That to several you in The feel of a spade and rich earth beneath her fingers. She with butter and eggs and milk. It's Hallie thought: "He's sweet!"

But two can't live on it." Louise was Hallie's girlhood; they were giving her something that was an Hallie said that night. "It wasn't "This is where I come in," Sue age-old appreciation of roots and enough to just write and thank him for the check. I want to do it

There's a catch in it." Sue told Louise at her grandmother's home. if you must know, Now go to sleep of Agriculture W. Kerr Scott and under the direct, persistent effort to enforce der the direct, personal management personalities and dancing ability round out the all star cast of Sollie Child's "Bring on the Dames" revue.

(To Be Continued)

> Bohemian tanned sole leather is claimed to be the world's best.

Last year's bicycle accidents caused the death of 700 and the injur-

STEVENSON 9c - 25c-Inc. Tax

ROY ROGERS—in "Bad Man From Deadwood" COMEDY and SERIAL

--- S U N D A Y ---

- On Stage -SOLLIE CHILDS—Presents "BRING ON THE DAMES"

- On Screen -Jane Frazee - Johnny Downs in "SING ANOTHER CHORUS"

GENE AUTRY SMILEY BURNETT-in "Gaucho Serenade" SERIAL . COMEDY

STEVENSON SUNDAY, OCTOBER 12

Jane Frazee in "SING ANOTHER CHORUS" Children . 20c

EMBASSY

SUNDAY — MONDAY — TUESDAY -

"WHERE HAPPINESS COST SO LITTLE"

PHONE 492 WEDNESDAY -

VICTOR MacLAGLEN.

MARJORIE WOODWORTH.

Night

"BROADWAY LIMITED"

