AUTUMN

The days are mellow
With a deep content
Of harvest over
And the fruitage home.
The even is yellow
In the gleaming ricks,
The plowers roam
Unfettered on the wing
Across the shaven fields,
And little copeswoods
Settle, gently sleeping,
To the distant springs.

Marian Martin Pattern

PATTERN 9783
Here are some eye-deceiving details used by Marian Martin to make "Pattern 9783" the most slenderizing mode you've ever worn. A trim front buttoning, for example, that makes you seem taller and minimizes the hips! Graceful side panels in the bodice that come below the waist to increase the vertical emphasis! Those side panels, incidentally are also repeated in the back. In the short-sleeved version they may be cut on the bias, if you use a checked fabric. Don't you think the scalloped a feminine touch—use them on the short sleeves too, if you like. Make this frock up for immediate wear in a crisp cotton that launders easily—make another in wool!

Pattern 9783 may be ordered only in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 requires 3 5/8 yards 35 inch fabric.
Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or the MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.
Send your order to The Henderson Daily Dispatch, Pattern Department 122 W. 18th St., New York, N. Y.

Mrs. Burwell Has Contemporary Club

The Contemporary Book club was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Richard Burwell, with twelve members present.
Mrs. L. H. Hayin presented a very interesting program on William Shirer, author of "Berlin Diary". She gave a sketch of his life, and read several passages from the book. Books were exchanged by the members during the afternoon.
Mrs. Burwell served individual minicement pies with cheese balls and delectable to her guests.

Philathea Meeting With Mrs. Knott

The Claire Mills Philathea class of the First Baptist church met with Mrs. S. W. Knott Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. J. G. Parker as assistant hostess. Miss Hallie Mills, president, opened the meeting by appointing new committees and having reports from old committees. Miss Elizabeth Shaw conducted the devotions, and Mrs. W. Shearer, led an interesting social hour, including games and contests. The hostesses served a delicious sweet course.

Vance Girl Calls On Mrs. Roosevelt

Miss Annie Mae Dickerson, Vance county's representative in the North Carolina delegation to the national 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, is one of the group who were received by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt at the White House this afternoon, as they called to present the First Lady with a gift of canned food from the pantry shelves of Irene Melvin of Cumberland county, 1941 4-H state canning champion.
Miss Graces MacGregor, assistant 4-H club leader, arranged for the group to visit Washington and to be received by Mrs. Roosevelt, en route to the Chicago convention.
The Vance county girl was winner of the state 4-H club dress revue, and will compete in the contests at the national meeting.

Townsville Club Has Birds as Topic For Day's Program

The Townsville Garden club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Hattie Plummer in Middleburg on Wednesday. Her home was beautifully arranged with autumn flowers.
After the business meeting Mrs. E. B. Taylor gave a talk on migration of birds. Mrs. R. B. Taylor read Mrs. John Yancey's paper, as she was absent, on "Keeping Your Bird Friends All Year". Both talks were very instructive and educational.
Mrs. Plummer had an attractive bird contest. Mrs. R. B. Taylor won the prize, naming the most birds.
Mrs. Plummer, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Cress, and Miss Josephine Raines, served a turkey party followed with a sweet course and coffee.
Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Lily Carroll, of Washington, D. C.

Moore's Are Hosts With Bird Supper

A. H. Moore, proprietor of Planters Warehouse, and Mrs. Moore were hosts Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at the Vance hotel at a bird supper honoring the tobacco buyers in Henderson and their wives.
Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Moore and were invited into the private dining room of the hotel, where two long banquet tables were placed. A delicious four course dinner was served to about fifty guests.
After dinner Mrs. Frank M. Harris, art song "Indian Love Call" and gave several selections on the piano.
Beautiful colonial costumes will be used in the play, most of them furnished by professional costumers. Music will be by the pit band of the school.
For the first time a condenser made by William Adcox as a project in dramatics will be used. With this, special effects can be gained in the lighting of overhead and footlights. Acceptances for the play include Davada Loughlin, Roy Adcox, George Furquerson, Blais Grissom, and Harry Patterson.
Assisting in the make-up will be Miss Bess Johnson, a former president of the high school dramatics club and more recently connected with the Playflickers of Women's college.

In Senior Play

Featured above are Maria Legg and Thomas Faulkner, who will have the leading roles in the senior play, "Another Spring" which will be presented tonight at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium. The former is cast in the parts of Nancy Carlisle and Nancy Allen, with the latter playing the double role of David Lee and David Madison.

Miss Josephine Raines, of Henderson, Herman Davis, Jr. and Carol Taylor.

Junior Red Cross Dance This Evening

As a climax to the very successful Junior Red Cross roll call just completed at Henderson high school, an informal dance will be held in the school gymnasium tonight from 10 to 2 o'clock. Charlie Blackburn, chairman of the roll call, also has charge of arrangements for the dance. The membership committee is composed of home room presidents, and Principal W. D. Payne is sponsor for the school.
Members of the Junior Red Cross executive committee for Vance county will be in the receiving line. They are: Mrs. Lawrence D. Wall, chairman; Mrs. Leon Vick, chairman of home nursing; Mrs. Geneva B. Tesse, chairman of first aid; Mrs. Wesley Jones, chairman of knitting; Mrs. Thomas Homer and Mrs. D. Morgan Cooper.
Members of the cast of the senior play, which will be presented just preceding the dance, will also be honor guests.

The Epsom high school band has the honor of being one of two bands chosen to play for the 4-H club parade and contest which is being held in Lenoir Saturday. The members of the Epsom club and band are looking forward to a good time in Lenoir. This is being sponsored by the Lenoir Chamber of Commerce.

School Group Will Hold Meeting With One Member Gone

Members of the Vance County Board of Education will hold their monthly meeting next Monday with one of their number missing. T. B. Farham, Jr., who was elected to the office only a year ago for a second term, has died since the last meeting was held. Whether or not the board will at this time name his successor to serve until the next election has not been learned.
The board may have some discussion of the colored school building situation at its meeting Monday, though it could not be definitely learned today whether plans had matured sufficiently to permit of any action by the board at its December meeting.

MIDDLEBURG P-T. A. HEAR DR. D. B. BRYAN

The regular monthly meeting of the Middleburg P-T. A. was held Tuesday evening in the school auditorium. The principal sponsor of the evening was Dr. D. B. Bryan of Wake Forest College, whose subject was "How Students May Spend Their Leisure Time and How P-T. A. can help". Dr. Bryan discussed his subject in a most interesting and inspirational manner, saying that we should all learn to fill our leisure time with creative endeavor, whether it be in play, houses, music, art or any other form.
Following the address by Dr. Bryan a short business session was held before adjournment.
Bryan's official name is Robinson.
