Giraud Declares No United French Move Agreed Upon

With deGaulle, French To Supply Commissioner Says

Allied Headquarters in North Africa. Jan. 29—(AP)—General Henri Giraud declared today that there were no prospects of any single united French movement at the present time and that the only agreement be-tween himself and General Charles de Gaulle would be one "of linison on military, economic and financial matters.'

ic and financial matters."
Giraud, high commissioner for French North and West Africa, told a press confereive that he had not taken up "the question of politics" with the leader of the Fighting French when the two were brought together during the Roosevell-Churchill conference at Casablanca.

"There is no questic of a single united French movement throughout the world at the present time," he said.

"We are establishing a permanent liaison on critical economic and military questions."

meant—that the United Nations will do the dictating, with the axis powers denied the right to a single chirp on a negotiational basis. From that thesis there is no dissent.

The difficulty, however, is that the United Nations' spokesmen are likely to have considerable negotiating to do among themselves. If they get into a premature wrangle involving their own respective countries' ultipolicies, it will tend to disunite their joint military effort while Waupun, Wis., Jan. 29.—(AP)-

'Question of Politics' Draftee 'Pool'

Washington, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard will draw on a draftee "pool" hereafter to fill their requirements.

The new system, announced by selective service headquarters, is effective Monday. Winde the drafted men cannot be certain which branch of the service will claim them, selective service officials said, individual preference will be given "the fullest consideration practicable."

A single set of physical standards for industees, somewhat higher than at present, has been adopted and each service will notify national selective headquarters how many men will be needed during a certain month, for example ment and $193,349,12 for a ten-day encampment.

In addition, Caveness would authorize the use of school buses to carry the State or National Guard to places of encampment.

General Metts, who appeared before a legislative committee several days ago, said that the Guard was responsible now for certain types of civilian protection, since the Nacivilian protection, since the National Guard had been called into service. Additional units, further training and equipment, he said, are vitally needed and would prove thei worth in cases of emergency or dis aster.

A measure similar to one intro-duced in the House yesterday would provide scholar-hips for children of disabled or deceased veterans of any world war. Should more than 15 apply, the Veterars Administration would select the 15 to receive the scholarships to any State educational institution. # Is Suggested

Washington, Jan. 29.— (AP)— Senator Van Nuys, Indiana Demo-crat, added his proposal today that Edward J. Flynn end a bitter Senate controversy over his appointment as minister to Australia by requesting President Roosevelt to withdraw his name from consideration.

Van Nuys, who voted against Flynn in the Senate foreign relations committee in what he said was a protest against the submission of controversial nominations in warting told reporters he believed the withdrawal of Flynn's name would be a very wholesome solution" to a situation which had found the Senate almost equally divided on the question of confirmation.

"The people believe that Mr. Flynn is a Broux, Tammany politician who is not qualified for the important post as minister to Australia," Van Nuys declared, "Whether that is true or not, this is no time to plunge the Senate into confroversy, when any of a dozen well qualified men could be confirmed without a dissenting cote," ame from consideration.
