Ellery Queen's Mystery Magazine

Edited by Ellery Queen, famus detective of the radio, the ovies, and best-seller books, it devoted exclusively to the hest in detective crime short-story lit-grature. The fact that a story owes its plot to crime and detec-tion need not prevent its being well written. Short detective fic-tion that is well written is not too readily available. But we are finding them—in books, in maga-zines, in the files of famous au-thors—and by arrangement with thers—and by arrangement with other publishers as well as with authors, we reprint in the ap-proved Reader's Digest manner the best detective fiction to be procured.

Palmer and Ellery Queen are to be found in it. But stories are selected on their merits, not on authors' names. Tough and suave, casual and swift, comic and tragic, they are mingled with refreshing variety and stimulating change of variety and stimulating change of pace. Rare gems, fit for the most critical, delightful to the most naive. You will find the new magazine well printed—sharp and clear, kind to the eyes. You will find the size same as The Reader's Digest—convenient to hold, to handle, to slip into your pocket. of life."

The Pharisees were sconful.

"Thou bearest record of thyself," said they; "the record is not true."

Jesus answered, "Though I bear record of myself, yet My record is true; for I know whence I came, and unither I go; but ye cannot tell when I come, and whither I go. Ye tage after the flesh; I judge no man, and yet if I judge, my judgment is the life." I am ma alone, and I and the Father that sent me."

Also to the accusation Jesus said.

Also to this accusation Jesus said, "It is also written in your law, that the te timony of Leo men is true. I am one that bear writiess of My-sell, and the Father that sent Me toward." WORKING—Members of the house of representative who are not on important committees found out. Thursday that committees found out. Thursday that committee member have been really working. The session lasted a full two hours, and less than half the public calendar was reached because of a flood of local bitls reported out of committees. Committee meetings Thursday began at 9:30 and continued until the open sessions at noon. The house adjourned at 2 o'clock, with the important appropriation ground lated to meet right away. Many night meetings of committees are being held this week in order to get the the work out.

He heant by this, when they had cruedled Him, for well He knew that that was what they meant to do. They would not see that He was the Messah for whom they had been looking; the Christ that was to save them, they were angry with and jealous of the fact that the common people listened to Him and loved Him for Himself and for the good He did. He did God's will as He said, "The Father hath not left Me alone; for I do always those things that please Him."

When He spoke these words, many believed on Him, and He said to them, "If ye continue in my word, then are ye My disciples indeed; And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

How tree? Hey asked: "We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man; how sayest Thou, ye shall be free."

That was a very odd statement to come from the Jews who had been continually in bondage to one peoples of another for generations. They were under the rule of Rome at the time they were speaking.

"If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham; but now ye seek to kill Me, a Man that hath fold you the truth which I have heard of God; this did not Abraham."

And 'urther He told them, "If God were your Father ye would love Me.
