NIPPONESE SHIP BOMBED

Taken from an American bomber this picture might illustrate the recent disaster visited on the Japanese vessel in the Bismarck Sea. After a direct bomb hit, smoke and flame shot from the midship of the Japanese vessel. Splashes indicate near misses while in the circle a small Japanese vessel, probably a barge, is struggling desperately to escape. This action took place at Lae, New Guinea, prior to the destruction of the 22-ship convoy. Official Air Force Photo, International.
