

TORPEDO LANE! Outwitting the U-Boat Pack—a Graphic Report from the Log of a Convoy Escort

Nazi U-boats, which entered into battle. Its searchlight. A Fortress spotted a U-boat off. In the evening, the U-boats threatened. A U-boat was sighted. The torpedo lane had been broken. The convoy was safe.

Red Cross Clubmobile Hostesses Must Be Skilled Conversationalists

A Red Cross clubmobile hostess, Mrs. [Name], is shown in a social setting. The clubmobile is a mobile unit for social events. Hostesses must be skilled conversationalists.

BUILDING PERMIT IN FEBRUARY FOR $2,000

One building permit was issued in February for $2,000. The permit was issued for the construction of a building. The permit value is significantly lower than in previous months.

MEETING OF THE [Organization Name] held in the [Location]. The group discussed [Topic].

HOLDING HIS SUB MACHINE GUN IN HIS HANDS, a [Nationality] and [Rank] American MP is guarding a group of [Enemy Type] in the [Location].

"She'll believe it if The AP says so"

MRS. LOUIS F. CIHAK

Like millions of other Americans, Mrs. F. Cihak learned to rely on the dependability of The Associated Press. Her son, a lieutenant, was killed in action. She was told he was dead. She did not believe it until she saw the news in The Associated Press. She then went to the newspaper to see for herself.

AP THE BYLINE OF DEPENDABILITY
Henderson Daily Dispatch