

Woman Badly Injured By Passing Car

Emma Braslow, colored, was badly injured late yesterday afternoon when a motor car, driven by a white man, stepped from a main thoroughfare onto a narrow alleyway and struck her as she crossed the way.

The woman, who lives at 1014 Plymouth street, was taken to Jackson Memorial hospital on the main thoroughfare. She was injured in the chest and abdomen.

The driver of the car, who was not identified, fled the scene. The woman's injuries are serious and she is expected to remain in the hospital for some time.

God Gives Laws for His People

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Exodus 19:21; Deut. 11:18-21; Galatians 3:23-28; 5:13, 14

The children of Israel came to the wilderness of Sinai, and Moses went into the mountain to talk with God.

After the Lord had given His commands to Moses, he called the elders and told them what the Lord had said.

On the third day, after the people had cleaned themselves they waited to hear the trumpet sound.

Amid thunderings and lightnings and from a great cloud the Lord gave His commandments.
