

Henderson Daily Dispatch

THIRTIETH YEAR

PLEASED WITH THE QUALITY OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

HENDERSON, N. C., MONDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 1, 1943

Published by the Henderson Daily Dispatch, Inc.

FIVE CENTS COPY

Morgenthau Asks New Taxes In Sum Of $10,500,000,000

German Resistance In Corsica Ceases As Bastia Gives In

Allies Are Driving Up Toward Po River Lines

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Algiers, Oct. 1.—AP—The final collapse of German resistance in Corsica was marked today by the entry of French forces into Bastia. Motron Gomme, the French forces were the first to enter the city at the northeastern tip of the Mediterranean island which now becomes a threat to the German forces on the Italian mainland above Rome. Remnants of German forces were still scattered on beaches at isolated points both north and south of Bastia. But these were being pressed by French troops and American Rangers.

NAZIS FLEE AS ALLIES ENTER NAPLES

THE FIVE GERMAN DIVISIONS THAT WERE THE MAINSTAY OF THE NAZI DEFENSE IN THE SOUTH OF ITALY WERE DRIVEN FROM NAPLES AND THE SURROUNDING AREA BY ALLIED FORCES.

British Get East Coast Stronghold

Clark's U. S. Forces Pushing Toward Rome On the West Coast

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Algiers, Oct. 1.—AP—The British Eighth Army, with the support of a select group of American forces which have been sent to the Adriatic coast, have captured the strategic town of Termoli, a vital link between the Italian coast and the mouth of the Po river in northern Italy, officials here in dispatches announced today.

Last German Hold In Caucasus Reels From Soviet Blows

Japanese Claim They Have Sunk Six Allied Subs

LONDON, Oct. 1.—AP—A communique broadcast by the Tokyo radio today declared that Japanese naval units had sunk six Allied submarines during September near Japan proper, and in other operations in the Pacific.

General St. Bernard L. Montgomery Advances on the Atlantic Coast

General St. Bernard L. Montgomery, advancing on the Atlantic coast, today captured the historic path of commerce toward the Lubian Way, which leads to the Po valley. He also threatened to turn the defenses of German Marshal Rommel and Kesselring which may be centered about Rome and the Apennines.

Japs Caught In Vise In New Guinea

Last Large Coastal Supply Base Is Gone; Position Untenable

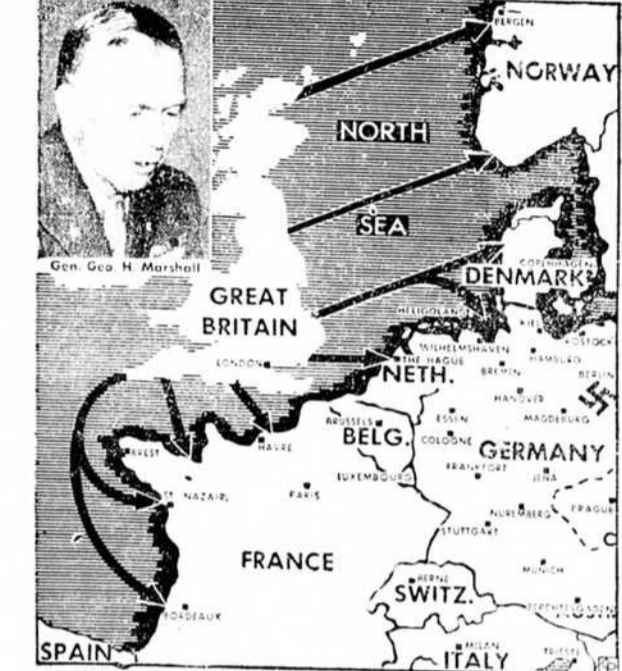

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, in the Southwest Pacific, Oct. 2.—AP—Their last important coastal supply base gone and their land flank boxed by a column of Australian troops, the Japanese on New Guinea's Huon peninsula today were squeezed between the mountains and the sea.

Tinschhafen, the major enemy anchorage and air station on the eastern coast of the Huon peninsula, fell Saturday to Australian forces. The Japanese had defended veterans of Tobruk and El Alamein.

Three Violent Deaths Listed

Three deaths were reported today as a result of the bombing of Henderson, N. C., by enemy aircraft. The victims were identified as Mrs. J. W. Smith, Mrs. W. H. Jones, and Mrs. M. L. Brown.

GENERAL MARSHALL'S COMMAND

ALL FORCES which actually attack Europe in the west, and those of which they come from, will be directed by General George C. Marshall, Chief of Staff of the U. S. Army, who has been named Commander in Chief of the Allied Forces in the West. The announcement of General Marshall's new command was made in London, May 1942, his theatre of operations.

Isolationism Must Cease, Green Says

AFL Head Declares At Convention That U. S. Must Do Share

BOSTON, Oct. 1.—AP—Keynoting the 41st annual convention of the American Federation of Labor, President William Green today declared that the United States must abandon isolationism forever and join the world family of nations.

Announce Names Of 400 Soldiers Missing in War

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—AP—The War Department today announced that it has announced the names of 400 soldiers missing in the war.

Cotton Trend Rather Mixed

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—AP—Cotton futures today showed a mixed trend, with prices fluctuating between gains and losses.

Increase In Gas Tax Somewhat Of Mystery

In the Sir Walter Hotel, Daily Dispatch Bureau, By LANS MRSBET

It is a mystery why the State highway department today announced a 10-cent increase in the gas tax. The increase is expected to take effect on October 15th.

BUSINESS and industry are expected to be affected by the increase in the gas tax. The increase is expected to take effect on October 15th.

Individuals Would Give Two-Thirds

New Squeeze Upon Business Proposed; Luxuries to Be Hit

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—AP—Secretary Morgenthau asked Congress today to provide an additional $10,500,000,000 a year in wartime taxes, taking $6,500,000,000 of this huge sum from individual incomes.

The new taxes would be levied on a wide range of goods and services, including luxuries and non-essential items.

Nazis Still Holding To Coo Island

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, in the Southwest Pacific, Oct. 1.—AP—The Japanese still hold Coos Bay, Oregon, and other coastal areas in the Pacific Northwest.

Arnold Says Allies Had Barely Enough Airplanes

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—AP—Army Air Corps Chief General Henry H. Arnold today said that the Allies had barely enough airplanes to meet the demands of the war.

FASTER THAN SOUND

Lieut. Robert B. Krupp, Army flyer of Norwich, N. Y., is credited by intelligence officers with having flown at the rate of 810 miles an hour. The fastest speed ever reached by man and faster than the speed of sound. Lt. Krupp made his record in a sky battle over Lunden, Germany, when his controls froze and he dove vertically 25,000 feet.

WEATHER FOR NORTH CAROLINA

Not much to worry about this afternoon, slightly cooler tonight and Tuesday forenoon.

Strafing Of Continent By Bombers Continuing

LONDON, Oct. 1.—AP—American Flying Fortress bombers, supported by four other Thunderbolt fighters, continued today to attack targets in France and attacked targets in Frankfurt, which is 91 miles southwest of Kassel, where RAF heavy bombers struck last night, it was announced today.