

GREETINGS

CHRISTMAS, the season that recalls to mind one of the most beautiful things in life; the spirit of friendship which exemplifies itself through gift and greeting, for without our friends life would indeed be empty of happiness.

May this spirit have even greater significance than ever before, is our wish to all our friends at this Christmas time.

A Very Merry Merry Christmas

As we relax on this Christmas and turn away from worry and work we look to the finer and sweeter sentiments of life. Yes, the Christmas Spirit brings out the best in us, takes us from the plane of everyday to a feeling of Joy and Happiness.

May this Christmas be unusually happy for you is our wish.

SAYS FDR UNDECIDED ON FOURTH TERM

Washington, Dec. 24.—Frank C. Walker, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, said after lunching with the President today that he did not think M. Roosevelt himself knew now whether he would seek a fourth term. "Did you discuss politics?" Walker was asked by reporters as he left the White House. "A little," replied the Postmaster General. "Is the President going to run again?" "I don't know," Walker said, "and I don't think he does himself. It's much too early."

ENTERTAIN CHILDREN
