Butner Wacs Fill Empty Stocking

Camp Butner, Dec. 24.—Away from home for the Christmas holidays, many of them for the first time, the WACs at Camp Butner decided their Christmas would be a happier one if they helped some one who was worse off than they. The Darham Sun's Empty Stocking Club seemed to them the logical place to find a family whose Christmas would be bleak without outside help. Through the newspaper they found a family, consisting outside help. Through the newspaper they found a family, consisting of a mother and her four-aged children, who needed assistance. Approximately forty dollars was collected for their Christmas fund.

Because there are no ration points in the WAC Detachment and because they felt the children's mother would be better able to buy the things they needed, no basket had been prepared. The WACs have turned the money over to the mother. Warm clothing, toys and a Christmas dinner will brighten their holidays.
