

North Carolina Railroad Has Paid State Liberally

Goldsboro-Charlotte Line Is Under Lease To Southern Railway

By Eloys Britt. Raleigh, Feb. 9.—(AP)—A $1,000,000 investment which saved and lent money heavily to the Confederate States in the Civil War, has returned the State of North Carolina and its citizens a profit of more than $14,000,000 in 94 years.

The investment in the North Carolina Railroad, now owned by the Southern Railway Company, was made in 1850. At that time the State owned the railroad and its capital stock was $214,000. It was then that the State began to receive dividends from the railroad.

I have over a period of 17 years since the lease was granted, the operating company has paid to the State something like $15,000,000 in interest payments. At the end of the 94 years, the State has a profit of $14,000,000. The company has paid to the State $1,000,000 in interest payments. The State has a profit of $14,000,000.
