

Henderson Daily Dispatch

THIRTY-FIRST YEAR

LEADS THE DELIVER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

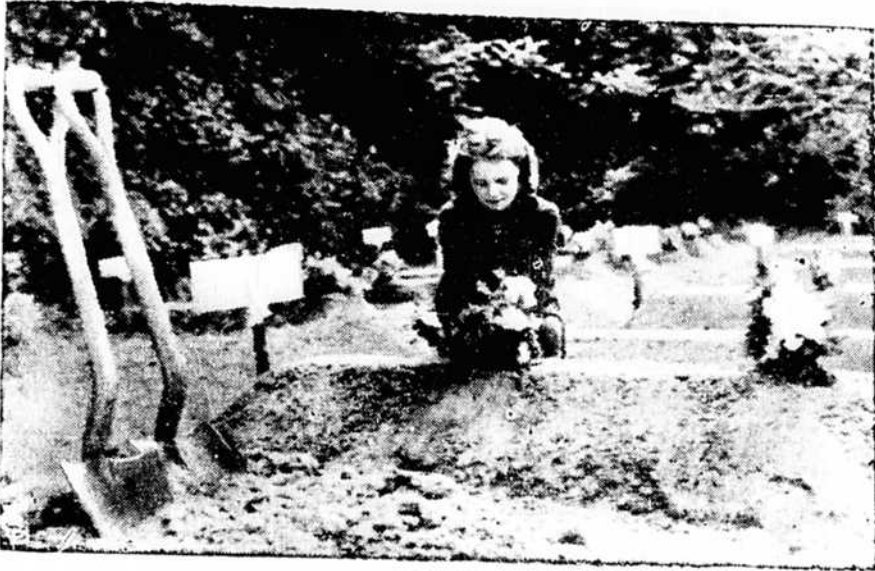

HENDERSON, N. C., WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 14, 1944

PUBLISHED EVERY AFTERNOON EXCEPT SUNDAY

FIVE CENTS A COPY

GERMAN DEFENSES CUT AT TWO POINTS

Little French Girl Honors Dead Yank

As she places a bouquet on the newly made grave of an American airborne soldier who gave his life on the soil of France, this little French girl honors the bodies of men who lost their lives in the beachhead area of Normandy. This is a U. S. Signal Corps Radio-photo.

American Air Forces Strike British Are Hard Behind The Nazi Front 23 Miles In From Coast

Attackers Divide To Bomb Germany, France, Belgium

Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force, June 14.—(AP)—A force of around 1,000 fighters and bombers split up today and attacked the oil refinery at Emmerich, Germany, and German air bases and bridges in France and Belgium. The assault extended the simultaneous bombing of the battle area and the German homeland around the clock.

The American force, supporting operations of Luftwaffe and fighters, attacked among other targets, the Le Bourget and Evry airfields at Paris, and other major airfields in France and Belgium.

Meanwhile, another American force, which arrived from Italy for an attack on Italy, Europe, which included heavy attacks from the south in the Monte area, both yesterday and today.

The air attacks took full advantage of ideal weather in stepping up the assault on German fighting forces and strategic targets. In fact, it was described here as "unusually an important campaign, getting more satisfactory every day."

In another part of Europe, fighting in the Monte area, the American force, which arrived from Italy for an attack on Italy, Europe, which included heavy attacks from the south in the Monte area, both yesterday and today.

Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force, June 14.—(AP)—A force of around 1,000 fighters and bombers split up today and attacked the oil refinery at Emmerich, Germany, and German air bases and bridges in France and Belgium.

SUPPLIES FOLLOW FRANCE INVADERS

BOUND FOR THE FRONT, a U.S. half-track army up a hill on the main road after taking on a load of supplies from the front in the background. If the Allies are successful in taking the great port of Cherbourg, its fine docks will facilitate the landing of war material. U.S. Signal Corps Radio-photo.

Caen Outflanked By British Tanks; For Admits Loss

Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force, June 14.—(AP)—American and British armor cut back, have cut through German defenses in Normandy at two points. It was announced today the British tank outflanked Caen in a drive that carried 23 miles inland and the American armor cut the German back several miles west of Caen.

The British armor, following the lead of the American armor, cut through German defenses in Normandy at two points. It was announced today the British tank outflanked Caen in a drive that carried 23 miles inland and the American armor cut the German back several miles west of Caen.

The British armor, following the lead of the American armor, cut through German defenses in Normandy at two points. It was announced today the British tank outflanked Caen in a drive that carried 23 miles inland and the American armor cut the German back several miles west of Caen.

The British armor, following the lead of the American armor, cut through German defenses in Normandy at two points. It was announced today the British tank outflanked Caen in a drive that carried 23 miles inland and the American armor cut the German back several miles west of Caen.

The British armor, following the lead of the American armor, cut through German defenses in Normandy at two points. It was announced today the British tank outflanked Caen in a drive that carried 23 miles inland and the American armor cut the German back several miles west of Caen.

The British armor, following the lead of the American armor, cut through German defenses in Normandy at two points. It was announced today the British tank outflanked Caen in a drive that carried 23 miles inland and the American armor cut the German back several miles west of Caen.

The British armor, following the lead of the American armor, cut through German defenses in Normandy at two points. It was announced today the British tank outflanked Caen in a drive that carried 23 miles inland and the American armor cut the German back several miles west of Caen.

The British armor, following the lead of the American armor, cut through German defenses in Normandy at two points. It was announced today the British tank outflanked Caen in a drive that carried 23 miles inland and the American armor cut the German back several miles west of Caen.

The British armor, following the lead of the American armor, cut through German defenses in Normandy at two points. It was announced today the British tank outflanked Caen in a drive that carried 23 miles inland and the American armor cut the German back several miles west of Caen.

The British armor, following the lead of the American armor, cut through German defenses in Normandy at two points. It was announced today the British tank outflanked Caen in a drive that carried 23 miles inland and the American armor cut the German back several miles west of Caen.

The British armor, following the lead of the American armor, cut through German defenses in Normandy at two points. It was announced today the British tank outflanked Caen in a drive that carried 23 miles inland and the American armor cut the German back several miles west of Caen.

The British armor, following the lead of the American armor, cut through German defenses in Normandy at two points. It was announced today the British tank outflanked Caen in a drive that carried 23 miles inland and the American armor cut the German back several miles west of Caen.

The British armor, following the lead of the American armor, cut through German defenses in Normandy at two points. It was announced today the British tank outflanked Caen in a drive that carried 23 miles inland and the American armor cut the German back several miles west of Caen.

The British armor, following the lead of the American armor, cut through German defenses in Normandy at two points. It was announced today the British tank outflanked Caen in a drive that carried 23 miles inland and the American armor cut the German back several miles west of Caen.

The British armor, following the lead of the American armor, cut through German defenses in Normandy at two points. It was announced today the British tank outflanked Caen in a drive that carried 23 miles inland and the American armor cut the German back several miles west of Caen.

The British armor, following the lead of the American armor, cut through German defenses in Normandy at two points. It was announced today the British tank outflanked Caen in a drive that carried 23 miles inland and the American armor cut the German back several miles west of Caen.

De Gaulle's Tactics Harmful

House Beats Cotton Item In OPA Bill

Parity to Growers In Textile Ceiling Had Been Proposed

Washington, June 14.—(AP)—In a major victory for the administration, the House today voted 377-187 to approve a bill that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

French Officers Withheld by Him In Landing Party

Washington, June 14.—(AP)—In a major victory for the administration, the House today voted 377-187 to approve a bill that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

The vote came after House members voted to reject a provision that would allow the Federal Reserve to raise the price of raw cotton to 20 cents a pound.

Churchill Delays Commons Debates On French Moves

London, June 14.—(AP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill today secured a postponement of full dress debates in Commons on the controversial issue of British-American relations with the French Committee of National Liberation, pending a demand for a "showdown" with the assertion that "it would do more harm than good now."

FDR Approves Pearl Harbor Inquiry Bill

Washington, June 14.—(AP)—Approving the bill for the investigation of the attack on Pearl Harbor, President Roosevelt today signed the bill into law.

The bill would establish a commission to investigate the attack on Pearl Harbor, and to report to the President on the causes of the attack.

The bill would establish a commission to investigate the attack on Pearl Harbor, and to report to the President on the causes of the attack.

The bill would establish a commission to investigate the attack on Pearl Harbor, and to report to the President on the causes of the attack.

The bill would establish a commission to investigate the attack on Pearl Harbor, and to report to the President on the causes of the attack.

The bill would establish a commission to investigate the attack on Pearl Harbor, and to report to the President on the causes of the attack.

The bill would establish a commission to investigate the attack on Pearl Harbor, and to report to the President on the causes of the attack.

The bill would establish a commission to investigate the attack on Pearl Harbor, and to report to the President on the causes of the attack.

The bill would establish a commission to investigate the attack on Pearl Harbor, and to report to the President on the causes of the attack.

The bill would establish a commission to investigate the attack on Pearl Harbor, and to report to the President on the causes of the attack.

Americans Capture Highway Junctions To North Of Rome

Rome, June 14.—(AP)—The American forces today captured several highway junctions to the north of Rome, according to a report from the American command.

The American forces today captured several highway junctions to the north of Rome, according to a report from the American command.

The American forces today captured several highway junctions to the north of Rome, according to a report from the American command.

The American forces today captured several highway junctions to the north of Rome, according to a report from the American command.

The American forces today captured several highway junctions to the north of Rome, according to a report from the American command.

The American forces today captured several highway junctions to the north of Rome, according to a report from the American command.

The American forces today captured several highway junctions to the north of Rome, according to a report from the American command.

The American forces today captured several highway junctions to the north of Rome, according to a report from the American command.

The American forces today captured several highway junctions to the north of Rome, according to a report from the American command.

The American forces today captured several highway junctions to the north of Rome, according to a report from the American command.

Stock Trend Is Irregular

Washington, June 14.—(AP)—The stock market today showed an irregular trend, with gains in some sectors and losses in others.

The stock market today showed an irregular trend, with gains in some sectors and losses in others.

The stock market today showed an irregular trend, with gains in some sectors and losses in others.

The stock market today showed an irregular trend, with gains in some sectors and losses in others.

The stock market today showed an irregular trend, with gains in some sectors and losses in others.

The stock market today showed an irregular trend, with gains in some sectors and losses in others.

The stock market today showed an irregular trend, with gains in some sectors and losses in others.

The stock market today showed an irregular trend, with gains in some sectors and losses in others.

The stock market today showed an irregular trend, with gains in some sectors and losses in others.

The stock market today showed an irregular trend, with gains in some sectors and losses in others.

Red Army Striking Hard At Reserves Of Finland

Moscow, June 14.—(AP)—The Red Army today struck hard at the reserves of the Finnish army, according to a report from the Soviet command.

The Red Army today struck hard at the reserves of the Finnish army, according to a report from the Soviet command.

The Red Army today struck hard at the reserves of the Finnish army, according to a report from the Soviet command.

The Red Army today struck hard at the reserves of the Finnish army, according to a report from the Soviet command.

The Red Army today struck hard at the reserves of the Finnish army, according to a report from the Soviet command.

The Red Army today struck hard at the reserves of the Finnish army, according to a report from the Soviet command.

The Red Army today struck hard at the reserves of the Finnish army, according to a report from the Soviet command.

The Red Army today struck hard at the reserves of the Finnish army, according to a report from the Soviet command.

The Red Army today struck hard at the reserves of the Finnish army, according to a report from the Soviet command.

The Red Army today struck hard at the reserves of the Finnish army, according to a report from the Soviet command.

WEATHER FOR NORTH CAROLINA

Fair to partly cloudy today, tonight and Thursday, with little change in temperature.