AMERICANS LAY SIEGE TO CHERBOURG

Crew of Super Fortress Just Before Bombing of Japan

Escaped before their giant B-29, somewhere in India, these members of the crew of one of America's new air battleships are shown a few hours before boarding their plane for a take off on June 17. Three days later a long fleet of these Super Fortresses took off to bomb the steel-producing center of Yawata in Japan. This picture was flown to Washington by the Air Transport Command. The boys shown may have participated in the big raid. They are, left to right, Lt. A. Pettes, pilot, Monroe
