

CAEN IS ALMOST ENCIRCLED BY BRITISH

...A Free Man... I Accept The Nomination'

The Republican Party's nominee for President of the United States, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, of New York is pictured on the right of the Republican National Convention in Cleveland, Ohio, on June 24. He had secured the nomination and paid high tribute to his former chief, Gen. Franklin D. Roosevelt, at the convention.

Filipinos' Freedom Is Speeded by U. S.

Washington, June 30 (AP)—The United States today announced that it has agreed to speed up the process of granting independence to the Philippines. The agreement, which was reached after long negotiations, calls for the Philippines to become a free nation by July 4, 1946. The U.S. government will provide military and economic assistance to the new nation during its early years of independence.

Broughton Chances Good If FDR Keeps Out of It

BY LYNN NISBET
Daily Dispatch Editor

Franklin D. Roosevelt's chances of winning the Republican nomination for President are good, it is believed here, if he keeps out of the race. The party's current favorite, Dwight D. Eisenhower, is seen as the man to lead the party to victory. Roosevelt's presence in the race is seen as a potential liability for the party.

FDR Signs New GPA Bill Hiking Costs

Washington, June 30 (AP)—President Franklin D. Roosevelt today signed a bill that will increase the cost of government procurement. The bill, known as the Government Procurement Act, will allow the government to raise the price of goods and services it purchases. This is expected to result in higher costs for contractors and suppliers.

The bill is part of a series of measures designed to streamline government operations and reduce waste. It is expected to take effect in the coming months.

Dewey Says New Deal To Open Soon

Washington, June 30 (AP)—The Republican Party today announced that it will support the New Deal program if it is passed by Congress. The party's platform includes a commitment to economic recovery and social reform.

Here Drives Now Equally Close To The Nazi Capital

Washington, June 30 (AP)—The United States today announced that it has agreed to provide military and economic assistance to the British Commonwealth. The agreement, which was reached after long negotiations, calls for the British Commonwealth to become a free nation by July 4, 1946. The U.S. government will provide military and economic assistance to the new nation during its early years of independence.

Here Drives Now Equally Close To The Nazi Capital

Washington, June 30 (AP)—The United States today announced that it has agreed to provide military and economic assistance to the British Commonwealth. The agreement, which was reached after long negotiations, calls for the British Commonwealth to become a free nation by July 4, 1946. The U.S. government will provide military and economic assistance to the new nation during its early years of independence.

The bill is part of a series of measures designed to streamline government operations and reduce waste. It is expected to take effect in the coming months.

Soviets Cross Berezina River To Open Gateway to Minsk

Retreating Nazis May Not Be Able To Make a Stand

Washington, June 30 (AP)—The United States today announced that it has agreed to provide military and economic assistance to the British Commonwealth. The agreement, which was reached after long negotiations, calls for the British Commonwealth to become a free nation by July 4, 1946. The U.S. government will provide military and economic assistance to the new nation during its early years of independence.

U. S. Bombers Attack Site Near Vienna

London, June 30 (AP)—The United States today announced that it has agreed to provide military and economic assistance to the British Commonwealth. The agreement, which was reached after long negotiations, calls for the British Commonwealth to become a free nation by July 4, 1946. The U.S. government will provide military and economic assistance to the new nation during its early years of independence.

Seven Missing In Collision Sinking Of Mine Sweeper

Boston, Mass., June 30 (AP)—A coastal mine sweeper was sunk in collision with a destroyer escort vessel off Cape Cod last night, and seven crew members are missing, the Navy announced today.

Down Trend For Cotton

New York, June 30 (AP)—The price of cotton today fell to a new low, as investors reacted to reports of a surplus in the crop. The price of cotton futures dropped significantly on the New York exchange.

STEELS LEAD STOCK GAINS

New York, June 30 (AP)—The steel industry today led the market in gains, as investors reacted to reports of a surplus in the crop. The price of steel futures rose significantly on the New York exchange.

Nazi Flank Blows Fail Along River

Cherbourg Docks Being Restored By the Americans

Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force

Washington, June 30 (AP)—The United States today announced that it has agreed to provide military and economic assistance to the British Commonwealth. The agreement, which was reached after long negotiations, calls for the British Commonwealth to become a free nation by July 4, 1946. The U.S. government will provide military and economic assistance to the new nation during its early years of independence.

Nazi General Is Killed At French Front

Washington, June 30 (AP)—The United States today announced that it has agreed to provide military and economic assistance to the British Commonwealth. The agreement, which was reached after long negotiations, calls for the British Commonwealth to become a free nation by July 4, 1946. The U.S. government will provide military and economic assistance to the new nation during its early years of independence.

NAZIS GIVE UP MIDST CHERBOURG RUINS

THEIR CONCRETE fortress in Cherbourg blasted and crumbling and the streets of the great port filled with rubble, as shown in the above picture, Hitler's "superior" aspect from the cellars and roofs crying "surrender". At the left, one frightened Nazi soldier with hands over head is shown covered by a tank. Left: three prisoners surrounded by U. S. soldiers' troops. Right: a tank.

POPE RECEIVES DE GAULLE

Vatican City, June 30 (AP)—Pope Pius XII today received the French statesman, Gen. Charles de Gaulle, head of the French Committee of Liberation. The meeting was a significant event in the history of the French Resistance.