

Entering the Promised Land

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Joshua 1-6, 23, 24.

Joshua, Joshua's leader, and two men into Jericho to spy out the land. They found out that the walls were made of brick and that the walls were not very high and they were not very thick.

The Lord caused the waters of the Jordan to part so that all the Children of Israel walked across with dry feet and Joshua commanded one man from each tribe to pick a stone from the river to be set up as a memorial.

The city of Jericho was shut up tight because of the Children of Israel, and Joshua told seven priests to go before the ark of the covenant, blowing horns, the rest to go before and behind and on the seventh day the walls would fall.

Finally Joshua became old and feeble and was about to die, so he called all the people together and asked them if they would be loyal to their God, and all of them swore fealty before him.

"Be strong and of good courage, be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for Jehovah thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest."—Joshua 1:9

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

The Lord said to Joshua, "Be strong and of good courage, for I have commanded thee, and the Lord will be with thee." Joshua answered, "My sword is not as the sword of men, neither shall I be as men, for I will not stand against the Lord." The Lord said to Joshua, "Thou shalt stand upon the stones which thou shalt set up, for thou shalt say to all the people, 'The Lord hath done unto me in this manner.'"

Joshua said to all the people, "The Lord hath done unto me in this manner." And all the people said, "The Lord hath done unto me in this manner." And the Lord said to Joshua, "Thou shalt say to all the people, 'The Lord hath done unto me in this manner.'"
