THE WOODLAND FOLK.
By Charles K. Bolton.

The woodland folk pass merry lives Except when thunder storms come by.
Or some soft-padded fox contrives To bark and scare them with his cry.

The pussy toes and ferny ball Stretch up to view the meadow's hem;
Arenasms and cowslips call To roving bees to sup with them.

The bluets, bound in tufted plot, Attract small wayward things in flight;
Yes, woodland folk enjoy their lot—They like the day, they love the night.

Miss Mary Francis Young Weds In Mobile, Alabama

MRS. CAMERON PLUMMER

Mobile, Alabama—Claiming widespread interest was the marriage of Miss Mary Francis Young, daughter of Mrs. James Madison Young, of Henderson, and Cameron McRae Plummer, son of Mrs. James F.
Plummer and the late Rev. Mr.
James F. Plummer, of Mobile, which took place in Christ Episcopal church, Mobile, Alabama, on Tuesday evening, August 29, at 6 o'clock.
Rev. Capers Satterlee, rector, officiated at the double ring ceremony and the altars were lovely with arrangements of graduated lighted tapers, vases of white flowers and greenery. The couple knelt on a draped prie dieu for the exchange of vows.

J. Clarendon McClure, organist, and the junior choir presented the musical program. Mr. McClure's numbers were: "Prelude in G Minor" (McClure); "Chorale in E Flat" (McClure); "Intermezzo in A Flat" (McClure); "Serenade in D" (Lemare); "Melodie in G" (Gluck); "Largo" (Handel); and "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" was played during the ceremony.
For the professional the junior choir rendered "The King of Love" (Kykos). The traditional wedding marches were used. The junior choir also sang "O Perfect Love." James P. B. Connell, of Henderson, brother-in-law of the bride, gave her in marriage and Miss Betty Briggs was maid-of-honor. Misses Sarah Lane England and Sheila Sprague were bridesmaids and Misses Frances and Mary Satterlee were junior bridesmaids. Mary Francis Cornell, niece of the bride was flower girl and Jimmy Cornell, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

Edward Plummer attended his brother as best man and groom-smen were Caldwell Delaney, Joe Goldsbey, Reid White Goldsbey, and Peter Bryce Hamilton.
The bride was lovely in traditional white satin. The gown was designed with a sweetheart neckline, long puffed sleeves, and a train. She wore a bridal veil of illusion and carried a bouquet of bride's roses, white asters and tuberoses. She wore a handsome gold cross and chain an heirloom in her family, and a beautiful gold bracelet on her left arm in the bridegroom's family.

Miss Briggs and the flower girl wore gowns of yellow net over tulle and the other attendants dresses were of aqua net over taffeta. The dresses were made with long, full skirts, sweetheart necklines and puffed sleeves. The flower girl carried a colonial bouquet and the other attendants carried old-fashioned bouquets of mixed flowers and wore dainty wreaths of flowers in their hair.

The mothers of the bridal couple were both gowned in black dresses and wore orchid corsages.
After the ceremony a reception was held by the congregation of Christ Church in the chapter house at which time punch was served by the Misses Elizabeth Drake and Anne Claude Barton. The wedding cake was cut by the bridal couple and Mrs. Edward Plummer and Miss Andre Noble were in charge of the bride's book.

After the wedding the bride changed to a smart black and white crepe outfit with which she wore black hat and white accessories and left with her husband for a plane trip. Mr. and Mrs. Plummer will be at home in an apartment at 60 North Ann street, Mobile.

Mrs. Young, mother of the bride entertained on the eve of the wedding with an after-rehearsal dinner party at the Admiral Semmes hotel.

WE ARE READY FOR FALL

We have been busy this Summer anticipating the needs and desires of our patrons, and we have succeeded in getting a fair share of the available merchandise for Fall. Our stocks are not as complete as we would like them to be, and we haven't got something of everything you have been accustomed to find in this store, but we feel that we can make a creditable showing with former years, and can supply you with most of the things you will need and want this Fall and Winter. So, it is on this basis that we invite you to come and make your selection early, as we do not know to what extent we will be able to replenish present stocks when they are gone.

Sell Your Crops In Henderson

We take this opportunity to welcome the farmers of this area to Henderson, and to remind them that Henderson is a mighty fine place to sell their tobacco and cotton, as well as a splendid place to trade.
