Raleigh, Oct. 3 --- Democratic and Republican party leaders are getting together on one item of preelection publicity. That is to emphasize the fact that no person can vote whose name is not properly recorded on the precinct registration books, and that none except mem-bers of the armed forces or their auxiliary units can register except by personal appearance. State law provides that registra-tion books shall be open at nine o'clock in the morning of the fourth Friday before the election at the park, it was de ignated polling place. candidate for the same office. It is almost inevitable that some voter will mark the circle at the top and also mark one or two individual candidates. In that event, under ruling of the State Board of Election: the vote will count for all party nominees under the circle except those marked in the other column. To make that clearer, if a voter marks the circle at the top of the Democratic ticket and then puts a cross mark beside the name of Frank Patton in the Republican column, it means his vote will be counted for every Democratic nominee except Gregg Cherry, and will be counted for Patton for governor. (After the forego were written it developed that pre cinct registrars do have to handle three books during the fall registration.
