Dr. Graham's Status

Some months ago when certain groups of citizens suggested that Dr. Frank Graham should give up his duties in Washington on the War Labor Board and come back to Chapel Hill to devote his entire time and energies to management of the Greater State University...

What has happened in the few intervening months to bring about this change of attitude? Have conditions become more urgent or have many individuals changed their minds?

We thought and said last spring that the University had first claim upon Dr. Graham and that his proper place was at Chapel Hill, rather than spending most of his time in Washington...

It will be interesting to see how it goes with the demand, or suggestion, or whatever it was, three months ago will beget the trustees for the official action they have taken...

There is a necessity for a full-time president of the Greater University in normal times, it would appear that there is even more need for such an authority in these admittedly strenuous and perilous days...

Our view is now, as it was in the spring, that President Graham should return to the State and devote his entire attention to the office to which he was elected.

Three hundred different varieties of birds are now flying south. What does this prove? The power of winter resort press agency?

Specialties In Stocks Active

New York, Oct. 4.—(AP)—Principal activity in today's stock market was in specialties, which attracted higher bids as most leaders held aloof even with yesterday's closing levels.

Industrial pivots showing minor gains near midday included Bethlehem Steel, Goodrich and Montgomery Ward. Some rails were a shade lower.

Democrats To Listen In On Rallies

Democrats of Vance county were planning today to listen in on the nationwide radio broadcast meetings set for Thursday evening, October 5, at 10 p. m. EWT, for addresses by President Roosevelt, National Chairman Robert E. Hannegan, and Mrs. Charles W. Tilton, vice-chairman.

Mrs. Alpheus Thompson, vice-chairman of the Vance County Democratic Executive Committee, has been making contacts and arranging for local parties to listen on the broadcasts.

Hornaday Talks At Legion's Meet Tuesday Evening

The regular meeting of the American Legion post here was held last night at the Legion hall, with Commander S. N. Powell presiding.

J. A. Hornaday made an interesting talk on "Human Relationships," stressing the importance of being able to overlook little faults in people.

Plans were made for a barbecue supper and dance at the armory in observance of Armistice Day, November 11. More elaborate details will be announced later, it was stated.

Several new members, veterans of World Wars I and II, were added last night and members were reminded that the membership drive is still on.

Rotarians Hear Report on Recent Inter-City Meet

Dr. W. W. Noel, president of the Rotary club, and R. G. Kittrell, past president, reported on the inter-city meeting of Rotary clubs held in Chapel Hill about two weeks ago.

They further reported that this is the first meeting of this character ever held outside Chicago, and was attended by many distinguished Rotarians from this country and from foreign countries.

A report from the chamber of commerce on the countywide observance of a V-day Thanksgiving planned was heard.

Slight Gains For Cotton

New York, Oct. 4.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened unchanged to 15 cents a bale higher. Noon prices were unchanged to 20 cents a bale higher.

Al Smith, 70, Dies After Long Illness

from humble surroundings on Manhattan's East Side to a place where he never was out of the public eye. He was defeated for the presidency in 1928 by Herbert Hoover.

SMITH WAS TRUE PATRIOT, PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT SAYS

Washington, Oct. 4.—(AP)—President Roosevelt said today that with the death of former Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York "the country loses a true patriot."

"The nation mourns the death of the happy warrior. Al Smith had qualities of heart and mind and soul which not only endeared him to those who came under the spell of his dynamic presence in personal association but also made him the idol of the multitude."

"To the populace he was a hero. Frank, friendly and warm-hearted, honest as the noonday sun, he had the courage of his convictions, even when his espousal of unpopular causes invited the enmity of powerful adversaries."

"During his tenure as governor of the great State of New York, he attracted national attention by his skill as an administrator. It was a natural sequence that he should become the candidate of his party for the highest office in the land. In a bitter campaign, in which his opponent won, Al Smith made no compromise with honor, honesty or integrity. In his passing, the country loses a true patriot."

The slim silhouette will continue for some time, says a fashion note. At least, we imagine, until the end of food rationing.
