The Golden Text

The statue of Laocöon.

BY NEWMAN CAMPBELL

THE ancient Greek sculptor Laocöon, who lived in the city of Troy, was a man of great strength and courage. He was known for his physical prowess and his ability to withstand pain.

Laocöon's story is a testament to the power of the human spirit. He was a man who sought to do good and to help others. He was a man who sought to live a life of honor and integrity.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"That's really a great editorial you just read to us, Judge. Where did you say it appeared?"

the days of prohibition, when moonshine whiskey made quick fortunes for bootleggers, crooked politicians and dishonest police officials. As a result, we claim we know what we want in the way of liquor legislation and feel those at home should wait until we return before introducing further legislation on liquor control."
