Scouts Aid Polio Drive On Saturday

Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts of Henderson county will cooperate in a special polio drive on Saturday, Jan. 27, in the March of Dimes campaign against the disease. Fred Keeler, chairman of the drive, announced today. Last figures reported still showed a lack of about $1,500 in raising the goal of $2,538 set for Vance county.

Girl Scouts are to make home visitations and plan to visit every home in the city, while Boy Scouts of Henderson county, sponsored by the Henderson High School, will be sponsoring the March of Dimes campaign, will conduct "tag day" on Garfield street. Citizens shopping in the business district will be asked for contributions and will be given tags to wear showing that they have contributed to this worthy cause.

The drive opened on Sunday, January 14, and is to continue through Tuesday, January 27.

Scout Leaders In Regular Meeting

Members of the leaders' club of the Girl Scouts of Vance county met Monday night at the First Baptist church for their regular monthly meeting. Following discussion pertaining to Scout work, reports from the Girl Scout troops were given by leaders.

During the meeting plans were made for the award of awards which will be held on February 16 with troop No. 9 having charge of the program. Plans for the court of honor, the award of standards will meet on February 9.

It was announced that an institute for Girl Scout leaders will be held on February 6 and February 13. This institute will be held at the parish house of the Episcopal church at 3 o'clock in the evening and is designed to let mothers of Girl Scouts know exactly what is included in scouting. History of scouting, national and local, will be given and the present set-up in the county will be explained. It was stated that through this institute, which resulted from requests of mothers of Girl Scouts in the city, will further the scouting movement in Henderson and Vance county.
