MOUNTAIN PATH.
(Blue Ridge Summit, Pennsylvania)

No one has climbed the path we take, high-tangled, through the wild wet woods—at least not this spring nor the last. Only a snake or rabbit could afford to let such briars grow and leave no smark upon this place where violets are underfoot and dogwood branches interlace. What turbulence is shuttled out completely by a wall of 3 oaks, by laurel crisp in polished leaves and honeysuckle full of bees! Only the passing cry of trains distracts our peace—just that alone—never the calling of a bird on far-off water, tapping stone. Whoever blazed this trail, be it an elk, like us, he went away, but may come back to wonder who has left these footprints on his clay.

Expecting a Baby?

Mother's Friend helps bring ease and comfort to expectant mothers.

MOTHER'S FRIEND, an exquisitely prepared emollient, is useful in all conditions where a bland, mild anodyne massage medium in skin irritation is desired. One condition in which women for more than 70 years have used it is an application for massaging the body during pregnancy... it helps keep the skin soft and pliable... thus avoiding unnecessary discomfort due to dryness and tightness. It refreshes and tones the skin. An ideal massage application for the numb, tingling or burning sensations of the skin... for the tired back muscles or cramp-like pains in the legs. Quickly absorbed. Delightful to use.

Miss Cheatham Is Feted At Luncheon

By Mrs. O'Donnell

Miss Elvira Cheatham, whose wedding to Ensign John Meredith Jones, will take place at noon on Saturday, May 26, was entertained yesterday at a luncheon by Mrs. Joan Burke O'Donnell at the home of Mrs. W. R. McAlister.

The dining table, which was covered with a white lace cloth, was centered with a white bowl of green and white plants placed on a large mirror reflector with white tapers being placed at each end of the reflector. The table centerpiece was accentuated by the smaller mirror reflecting at each end of the table which held figurines of a bride and her attendant.

At the place of each guest was a white scroll tied with green ribbon. The scroll revealed a coded message. Miss Becky John was received a prize for being the first to decode the message which read, "Meredith Jones, Elvira Cheatham, 5-26-45."

The hostess then presented the bride-elect with a wedding gift. Green and white placecards marked the places of the following guests for the two-course luncheon: Miss Cheatham, the honoree; Mrs. Joel L. Cheatham, Mrs. R. E. Clements, Miss Helen Royster, Miss Alice Rose, Miss Becky John Mills, Miss Ann Upchurch, Mrs. James P. B. Program Friday At North Henderson

A large and appreciative audience received the spring program of the North Henderson School on Friday evening, May 18.

The variety entertainment included an operetta, "The Wedding of Jack and Jill," a number of songs, rhythmic dances, a humorous one-act play entitled, "No Suit For Bell" and a musical novelty, "Glow Worm." Characters for the leading roles were well chosen and the interpretations were especially well enacted.

A patriotic pageant, "We Who Serve," as the finale, was given as a tribute to the men and women of North Henderson who are now serving in the armed forces. Special mention was made of the men who have given their lives for their country in World War II.

The program was the outcome of an intensive musical program carried on in the school during the year under the direction of W. T. Hearne and the teachers in the school.
