Luncheon At Country Club Given For Bridal Party

On Monday afternoon at one o'clock at the West End Country Club, Mrs. M. F. Legg and Mrs. S. H. Watkins entertained at a luncheon complimenting Captain and Mrs. William Haywood Furman, Jr., who were married Monday afternoon at six o'clock in the St. Paul's Catholic church.

The club ball room was decorated with white and green, vases of white asters, tube roses, white gladioli and fern being tastefully arranged throughout the room.

The hostesses, Mrs. Watkins and Mrs. Legg, invited the guests into the ball room where the bride's table was placed. Members of the bridal party were seated at the bride's table which was covered with a lovely point de Venice cloth and centered with a bowl of tube roses, and white asters. Clematis gracefully trailed from the centerpiece. Other guests were seated at individual tables which were covered with white cloths and centered with flat green containers holding white gardenias. At each place were bridal place cards and unique white and silver baskets tied with clematis holding mixed nuts.

A three course luncheon was served to approximately 45 guests including the following out-of-town guests: Mrs. Charles Trego, of Wayne, Pa.; Mrs. M. J. Mackenzie, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. Clifford Hall, Mrs. Grace Hall Stokes, and Miss Lynn Hall, all of Louisburg; Miss Betty Kendrick, of Raleigh; and Mrs. Robert Furman, of Little Neck, New York.

Miss Tanner Feted At Bridge Party

Honoring Miss Trudy Tanner, whose wedding to James Hogarth, of Washington, D. C., and Raleigh, will take place at the First Baptist church, at four o'clock on the afternoon of August 28, Miss Edna Faulkner entertained at a bridge party and miscellaneous shower at her home on Nicholas street last night.

Arrangements of late summer flowers were used throughout the home. The bride-elect's place was marked with a corsage of white asters.

Three tables were set up for bridge and after several progressions, Miss Caroline Miles was awarded high score prize and Miss Frances Petty, low score prize.

The hostess presented the honoree with a gift of crystal.

The shower girls were disguised as a bundle of newspapers, the top one bearing the headline "Trudy and Jimmy To Wed August 28."

A salad course and iced tea were served after the presentation of gifts.

Playing bridge were Miss Trudy Tanner, guest of honor, Mrs. Josepha R. Balforsen, Mrs. Jeanita S. Morris, Misses Alma Dixon, Jackie Weston, Carolyn Duke, Frances Petty, Billie Rose, Dottie McDuffie, Lucille White and Dorothy Harrison.

Those joining the group for refreshments were Mrs. C. P. Tanner, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. M. C. Miles, Mrs. George V. Boyd, Misses Doris Dennis, Ann McIntyre, Anne Poyntress and Mrs. M. E. Whitmore.

Sunbeam Band Is On WMS Program

Members of the Sunbeam Band of the First Baptist church conducted the program at the regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the church. Mrs. L. T. Harris, president, presided at the meeting.

Mrs. S. P. Patterson, program chairman, introduced the Sunbeams, who gave the program. The Sunbeams proved delightful and entertaining under the efficient leadership of Mrs. Leon Frazier.

Sunbeam officers are: president, Florence Radford; vice-president, Patricia Eason; secretary, Hannah Ruth Garrett; treasurer, Ruth Watkins.

After the roll call by Hannah Ruth Garrett, the Sunbeams sang and recited verses in the acrostics spelling "Sunbeam Bands". Those taking part were Patsy Page, Lena K. McLenore, Nancy White, Mary Lane, Becky Lane, Sylvian Ann Hoyle, Patsy Freeze, Rachel Royster, Mary Williams Gee, Annella Moore, Dwight Junior Frazier, Betty Rose Frazier, Florence Radford, Hannah Ruth Garrett, Ruth Watkins, Patricia Eason.

Following the program there was a short business session. The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. J. Franklin Mills.

Sue Kelly Class Met Monday Night

Mrs. H. F. Ellington and Mrs. R. F. Reid were hostesses for the regular monthly meeting of the Sue Kelly Philathea class of the First Baptist church Monday night at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ellington on Zeno street.

The president of the class, Mrs. H. D. Bell, gave the scripture reading and Mrs. A. T. Harris led in prayer. After the opening song, "Onward Christian Soldiers", a brief business session was held with various committees giving reports.

During the social hour the hostesses served home made ice cream, cake and nuts.
