

Veterans' Personnel Suggested

Names Presented To Commissioners; Jurors Are Drawn

A suggested list of appointments to the new commissioners was given to the Vance Board of County Commissioners today by Dr. P. M. McRae, representing the local unit of the American Legion. That list was worked up at the joint meeting of the Legion and the Board of C. Young, H. H. Parks, L. B. Watkins, F. B. Hugo and S. E. Johnson.

The group of men, all men over 50 before the Henderson City Council, both bodies have appointed $1,000 for relief funds during the coming year, and the Board expects that definite checks will be sent as soon as the fiscal year begins.

This was one of the principal items before the committee meeting yesterday at the monthly meeting of the Service Center. The organization counts some weeks of delay will be necessary before a final date for city taxes. From the list, the Board selected a group of men who were doing the cleaning work.

PREMIUM LIST FOR FAIR DISTRIBUTED

Cash Prizes Offered For Best Exhibits at Golden Bell Fair Next Month.

The premium list for the coming Golden Bell Fair has come from the fair, which is being distributed by C. M. Height, secretary, and F. L. Fleming, president of the fair association. The date for the annual exhibition is October 3-13.

Large sums of money will be offered in cash for excellence of exhibits in livestock, cattle, field crops and club workers' products.

Lawrence's Greater Shows has been engaged to furnish the amusement park for the midway, and Mr. Height said a number of free sets would be offered this year also.

The little show will include one by Four-H members and adults. Fair attendants have been encouraged to engage on this feature this year as a result of the excellent reception given in the first show of the year in recent years as given last year.

Wednesday will be school day with all school children admitted if they exhibit their tickets from their teachers in each class room.

This applies to all white school children in the four counties of Vance, Granville, Warren and Franklin since the Golden Bell Fair concludes in four counties as well as Meriwether County, Virginia, across the State line.

The premiums will be awarded before the Golden Bell Fair opens Tuesday, October 3, 1945.

The big prizes will be given during the three days of the exhibition.
