

AS ELEVATOR STRIKE TIED UP MANHATTAN'S SKYSCRAPERS

HUNDREDS OF OFFICE WORKERS and business executives jam the lobby of the Empire State Building as New York's elevator operators began a strike immediately affecting 11,000 operators and nearly 1,000 buildings.

IN THE HEART of New York's huge garment district, thousands of workers are shown gathered in the street, refusing to climb stairs, following the strike of service employees and building superintendents.

Elevator Strike In New York Continues

Strikes In Oil Industry May Spread

Locals Get Power To Call Walkouts; Parley Continues

Chicago, Sept. 26.—(AP)—The oil workers international union (CIO) announced today it was instructing all district unions to tell local unions that nationwide strikes were now authorized.

15,000 Operators Remain Out; Many Businesses Are Affected By Action

(By The Associated Press.) The plans of the nation's powerful labor disputes spotlight was being focused directly today on the troubled labor front in New York City.

While a wave of post war labor disputes raged more than 350,000 workers and crippled business and industries across the country, a strike in the nation's largest city partially paralyzed business, idled hundreds of thousands of workers and virtually closed the garment industry.

Committee Discussing Tax Slashes

Excise Levies Not To Be Sliced Now; No Public Hearing

Washington, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Meeting for the first time in 16 years to consider reducing—no tax-cutting—taxes, the House Ways and Means Committee voted today to cut out any immediate reduction in excise levies.

Truman Wants To Share Secret Of Atomic Bomb

Washington, Sept. 26.—(AP)—President Truman reportedly favor sharing the secret of atomic energy, provided other nations are willing to agree to strict control measures.

Mr. Truman has yet to draft his recommendations to Congress concerning atomic power, but he has indicated that he believes the process which produces the bomb which caused untold damage in Japan can not be kept a secret by three nations.

Meeting Of MacArthur And Hirohito Is Near

Atmosphere Of Confab Is Brighter

U. S. Is Preparing To Stamp Approval On Hungary Regime London, Sept. 26.—(AP)—The big five's council of foreign ministers delved into German problems today in an atmosphere suddenly improved by a disclosure that the United States was preparing to recognize the government of Hungary.

Reporters Summoned For Instructions; Army And Navy Stripped Of Equipment

Tokyo, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Unconfirmed Japanese reports tonight said Emperor Hirohito will meet General Douglas MacArthur tomorrow, presumably at the United States embassy which is MacArthur's residence.

President Claims Policy Now Governing Japanese Was Approved By Allies

Gen. MacArthur's Appointment Agreed On By All Nations

Washington, Sept. 26.—(AP)—President Harry S. Truman said today that the occupation policy established for Japan and the appointment of General Douglas MacArthur as supreme commander was agreeable to all the Allies.

Eisenhower Calls Patton For Report

No Modification Of Order Can Be Made, He Asserts

Frankfurt, Germany, Sept. 26.—(AP)—General Dwight D. Eisenhower today summoned General George S. Patton to make a personal report on the demilitarized program in Bavaria.

HIGHWAY BIDS TO BE RECEIVED

Raleigh, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Bids will be received here October 9 on at least a dozen contracts calling for new highway construction in North Carolina.

COTTON MILL IDLE AS 2,000 WALK OUT

Greensboro, Sept. 26.—(AP)—White Oak Cotton Mills, largest denim manufacturers in the world and a unit of the Cone textile system, stood idle today following the walkout of approximately 2,000 employees shortly after 7 a. m. yesterday as a result of what was described as a difference of opinion between management and labor over wage scales for a small group of workers.

Friends Of FEPC Use New Strategy To Retain Agency

Washington, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Foes of the FEPC blocked a surprise attempt in the House today to try and get the agency set up as a permanent basis.

Reported Dead

Will Hancock (above), Associated Press correspondent missing since the fall of Java in 1942, is now reported dead, William McDougall, United Press correspondent, said Hancock was drowned when the Japs sank a refugee ship on which he was trying to escape.

Young Miss Describes Horror Camp

Lueneburg, Germany, Sept. 26.—(AP)—A 21-year-old Hungarian Jewess, Lena Stein, told the court trying Belsen concentration camp leaders here today that a woman guard brutally knifed a mother found talking to a daughter through a wire separating compounds at the camp.

Chinese Republic Topic of Mrs. Dubs At Tuesday Club

Mrs. Homer Dubs, of Duke University, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Woman's Tuesday club held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hiram K. King, with the program featuring the 34th anniversary of the Chinese republic.

WEATHER FOR NORTH CAROLINA

Clear to partly cloudy and continued warm tonight and Thursday. A few widely scattered showers Thursday afternoon.

Outbreaks Continue In Indo-China

Saigon, Indo-China, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Uncontrollable Annamites, making for independence, and usually allied to others yesterday, turned down Saigon's market place last night. The day a few blocks from the center of the city, raged uncontrolled through the colorful section.

TRUMAN WILL MAKE NAVY DAY SPEECHES

Washington, Sept. 26.—(AP)—The White House disclosed today that President Truman will go to New York City October 27 to participate in a Navy Day celebration and deliver a 20-minute address.

PROLIFIC LANE

Unghatzen, Pa., Sept. 26.—(AP)—Mrs. Rachel Ann Craver, 99, died today, leaving 175 descendants—four sons, three daughters, 43 grandchildren, 191 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.