CHURCHMEN BREAK TRADITION AND MAKE ELABORATE PLANS IN ANNUAL MEETINGS

Durham, N. C.—(CNB)—Four major Protestant denominational bodies, meeting in annual sessions this week, gave priority attention to evangelism and mission plans for greater expanded effort, toward increased church membership and church school expansion. With clergy and laymen joining in the venture of new local organizations, new efforts were reported by the Presbyterians, Methodists, Episcopalians and the United Methodist Church.

The A.M.E. Presbytery broke a long standing tradition by giving its annual meeting to the theme of "The Church as a Living Organism." The church leaders stressed the need for a living church, one that is active and growing. The Presbytery also adopted a plan for a new church school curriculum.

Cigarette Prices Won't Be Boosted, OPA Office Says

Raleigh, Oct. 12.—The concern of local smokers over a possible increase in the price of cigarettes was declared unfounded today by OPA.

As with all commodities under price control, OPA said that cigarettes come under regular study to determine whether they are being priced at the proper levels, but that the latest quarterly reports prepared by manufacturers do not show any increase in the ceiling price is necessary. On the basis of information we now have, there's no indication of an increase being necessary at present.
