The Finest in Memorials From the Largest Monumental

W. W. LANGSTON

Just seven small envelopes—but they helped Mr. and Mrs. John Smith to build a home of their own.

Each had a label on it, you see, labels that read: 1) Rent, 2) Gas and Electric and Telephone, 3) Food and Laundry, 4) Pocket Money, 5) Clothes, 6) Doctor and Bonds, Each week Mr. Smith's pay was divided into each of those envelopes—and not-asthose envelopes—and, not-as-those envelopes—and, not-as-to our country's bound to our bank balance every week.

out of that last little envelope came the down payment on a home they financed at this institution.

If all of us did the same, whether we used the "envelope system" or not, we would assure our own and our family's financial security in the postwar world.
