

City Takes Holiday For Thanksgiving Occasion

Business Resumes Tomorrow In Busy Christmas Season

Most business activities in Henderson were suspended today for the Thanksgiving Day holiday. It is one of the four or five-day holidays of the year that is so covered by the closing Christmas, Easter, Monday and the Fourth of July.

The post office had no city or rural delivery, but outgoing mail was put up in boxes and outgoing mail was dispatched as usual.

The tobacco market was suspended following yesterday's sale through the weekend and will resume activities Monday. The "through" to the close of the season about a week before Christmas. All schools were closed today.

Remnants of the week after close of classes Wednesday. Many of the business and service establishments were closed today.
