ADMONITION.

Listen for spring, and you may hear her voice
Across the valleys, over rising ground;
Wait for her song, and let the heart rejoice
At such sweet sound.
Hers is the lure of sunrise dipped in gold
And hers the song of swallows on the wing—
To find the loveliness her arms unfold
Look for the spring!

Miss Wiggins Weds Lawrence E. Scott In Monday Ceremony

In a private ceremony performed at the parsonage of Spring Valley Methodist church Monday afternoon at six o'clock, Miss Helen Turner Wiggins became the bride of Lawrence Edward Scott.
Baskets of white spirea decorated the house and white tapers were used on the piano and on the mantel before the couple stood to take their vows.
Rev. R. E. L. Moser, pastor, officiated, using the ring ceremony.
Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Albert Edwards, pianist, played "Indian Love Call," "The Bells of San-Mary's" and "Always," Miss Anne Baskett, cousin of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because" and for the benediction sang "O Perfect Love," "The Rosary" was softly played during the speaking of the vows.
Miss Annes Marie Wiggins served her sister as maid of honor. She wore a white dress fashioned on princess lines and used black accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of yellow roses.
G. N. Gill, uncle of the groom, was best man.
The bride wore a two-piece dress of blue aqua crape and used brown accessories. At her shoulder she pinned a corsage of tulleman roses.
Mrs. Scott, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bryan Wiggins, is a graduate of Henderson high school. She was employed at Peoples' Drug store here for a number of years and prior to her marriage was employed as bookkeeper at Hi-Way garage.
Mr. Scott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Scott, of Michigan City, Ind. He is a graduate of Michigan City high school and will be employed with the Railway Express agency in Michigan City, where the couple will make their home. He has recently returned from a month's service overseas with the armed forces.

Miss Ethel Chiffelle Weds Harry Patterson

Slatersville, R. I. — In a ceremony of beauty and dignity, Miss Ethel Chiffelle, daughter of Mrs. Francis A. Chiffelle and the late Mr. Chiffelle of Slatersville, Rhode Island, was married to Harry Conyers Patterson, son of Mrs. Sarah C. Patterson, and the late Dr. Kenneth Howell Patterson, on March 23 at 12 noon in St. James Episcopal church in Woonsocket, R. I.
Rev. H. C. Whitmarsh, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony. He heard the vows before an altar of white gladiolus, carnations and apragans.
Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial songs was given by Mrs. Eleanor Hunt Arnold, organist. Traditional wedding marches were used.
Herbert Strong and Carlton Pipping, both of Slatersville, were ushers. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Eugene R. Patterson, as best man.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her cousin, Kenneth Caldwell, of Winchester, Mass., wore an off-the-shoulder empire gown of white satin with sheer yoke, full skirt, and long pointed sleeves. A crown of orange blossoms held her fingertip veil of tulle. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies, carnations, and sweet peas.
The bride is a graduate of Slatersville high school and studied at Meredith college in Raleigh, N. C. She has just completed two years at the Rhode Island School of Design.
Mr. Patterson is a graduate of Henderson high school and attended N. C. State college. He has recently received his commission, serving three years with the army air corps. He served five months with the 15th air corps in Africa. Mr. Patterson will resume his study of optometry at Pennsylvania State college in Philadelphia.

Expecting a Baby?

MOTHER'S FRIEND, an exclusively prepared emollient, is useful in all conditions where a bland, soothing massage medium in skin lubrication is desired. One condition in which women for more than 70 years have used it is an application for massaging the body during pregnancy... it helps keep the skin soft and pliable... thus avoiding unnecessary discomfort due to dryness and tightness. It refreshes and tones the skin... for the first back aches or cramp-like pains in the legs. Quickly absorbed. Delightful to use. Highly praised by users, many doctors and nurses. Millions of bottles sold. Just ask any druggist for Mother's Friend—the skin emollient and lubricant. Do try it.
