

Falkner In As Primary Candidate

S. B. Rogers Files For Commissioner; Deadline Saturday

With only one day left for candidates to file notices by two more incumbents who have been announced today by the Vance County Board of Education.

F. D. Falkner, clerk of superior court for more than a dozen years, filed as a candidate for school trustee for a two-year term, and S. B. Rogers, long time member of the Vance Board of County Commissioners, entered his name and paid his fee to succeed himself for a term of two years.

Only for the office of available of Henderson township has a three-way contest developed so far. But races are under way for the State Senate, the State House of Representatives, sheriff, and register of deeds. Incumbents are without opposition as yet for registrar and clerk of superior court.

Not a single entry has been made for the office of county commissioner, which also would be filled, but it is expected that will be done by the deadline of six o'clock Saturday evening.

Name of one candidate who has filed in Henderson township was mentioned in the Dispatch Thursday as G. S. Chaffin, who it should have appeared as G. S. Chaffin, who is an owner member of the county police department.

Pre-Easter Meditation Next Week

Holy Week Monday services will be held at the Stevenson theater, in the center of the business district of Henderson, next week under auspices of the Henderson Ministerial Association, that body announced today. Ministers of the several churches will conduct the programs.

For several years this arrangement has been made, the services lasting only 20 minutes after beginning the minute at each noon. The purpose is to make it possible for business people to attend for the singing the prayers and a 10-minute talk by one of the pastors.

The services will be held Monday through Thursday, and on Friday the long three-hour service, beginning a noon, will be held at the First Methodist church, with different ministers leading the six half-hour periods. This service rotates from year to year among the participating churches. Chorus furnish the music.
