will be shown on Wednesday.

Indications are now that the exhibit hall will be tilled with the many displays to be offered.

Prell's Broadway Shows will furnish entertainment for the Midway.

Mr. Hight said the organization will bring eleven rides and eight shows, together with a high dive feature as part of the free acts. The fair itself will offer other free attractions.

For the first time since before the war, the fair will have fireworks displays nightly. Previously this had been a feature of the fair, but had to be discontinued while the war was in progress. The fair itself, Ir that matter, was discontinued two or three seasons during the war period.

E. L. Fleming, president of the fair, and Mr. Hight voiced enthusism over the outlook for the annual autumn exposition, and expect record crowds, given favorable weether.
