Mrs. Overby Addresses Woman's Club Wednesday

Mrs. J. Roy Overby, of Norlina, president of the 14th district of North Carolina Federated Woman's Clubs, was principal speaker at the first fall meeting of the Henderson Woman's Club held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred S. Royster on Highland avenue. Mrs. Overby discussed plans for the district meeting which will be held in Henderson on October 14. The meeting will be held in the ladies' parlor of the First Baptist church and will be followed by a luncheon at Hotel Vance. Mrs. Overby was presented by Miss Dorothy Wester.

The meeting was conducted by Miss Dorothy Wester, vice-president, who presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. A. W. Ghoslin, Jr. Club members repeated the club collect of union as the meeting opened. A letter was read from Mrs. Ghoslin in which she outlined her plans for the year and named various committees for the forthcoming district meeting in October.

Mrs. E. A. Latta gave a report on the four birthday gifts sent by the club to children in correctional institutions. Miss Nannie Smith, treasurer, read a proposed budget, set up by the executive board for the approval of the club; the club accepted the budget proposal.

Attractive yearbooks, in the state colors of blue and white, were distributed by the program chairman, Mrs. W. K. Phillips, Jr. Reports were given by department chairmen of the work accomplished during the

Mrs. Glenn Speaker At Sans Souci Club

"Things New in Science" was the subject of Mrs. E. G. Glenn's talk at the first fall meeting of the Sans Souci club held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Blacknal on Charles street.

In the absence of the president Mrs. R. C. W. Radford, the meeting was conducted by Mrs. F. M. Barnhart. Mrs. Barnhart also read greetings from the president.

Mrs. Glenn touched lightly on two books, "Doctors East, Doctors West" and "They Shall Walk"; life of Sister Kennedy, famed infantile paralysis nurse. She more fully reviewed the book, "Southern Horizon" by William Hayes and discussed the new medical science discoveries and new uses of cotton.

Following Mrs. Glenn's talk the members told of their activities during the summer months.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. D. P. McDuffee in serving a salad plate and tea followed by cakes to ten members and one guest, Mrs. Lucie Robertson, of Long Beach, California.

Returns To Peace.

Miss Louise Trogdon returned to Peace college, in Raleigh, today after spending the summer vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Trogdon. She is a member of the senior class.

Wesleyan Guild Has Picnic Supper Meet

A picnic supper was held at the regular meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild Tuesday night in the basement of the First Methodist church. Supper was served buffet style to approximately 45 members.

Following the supper the program was presented. Devotionals were led by Mrs. Pat Bobbitt.

Mrs. Carlyle Wright conducted the program which was begun with two piano selections by Miss Frances Woodlief. Mrs. C. D. Barelift then gave a talk on the two Methodist magazines, "The Methodist Woman" and "The World Outlook". She read several poems and excerpts from these two magazines. The program was concluded with a solo by Mrs. Barnhart.

During the business session, routine matters were discussed and Miss Lucy Plummer Jones, president, presided during the meeting.
