

Prostration, Nervous Head

doth feel most keenly the sharp and pointed thorns of defeat and disappointment, and while the wounds thus

[Contributed to the GOLD LEAF.]

Mr. Dougderty said : "I greet you This is memorial day in our great placing in so high a position a man so my countrymen with fraternal regard. and happy country, an anniversary set slightly acquainted with Executive

ASSURANCE SOCIETY his party and his State. And Judge

OF THE UNITED STATES.

The Equitable Society is :

1. THE STRONGEST COMPANY; while it is his special gift to enslave holding a larger cash Surplus than any the senses with the wichery of a becuother assurance organization in the world teous and opulent and gorgeous dic-(Surplus, 4 per cent. basis, Twenty-One tion, and to impress it with all the Millions.) dramatic glowings of a fervid and im-

the force of a ratiocination which cansumme. (Four Hundred and Fifty Millions)

3. THE MOST POPULAR CON- try, for he can in one minute lay down PANY; having for many years transacted the well tuned lute of poetic fancy, the largest annual business. from which the soul doth pour in (In 1886, One Hundred and Eleven Mil-Tipasel rhetorical elegance and beauty, and

4. THE SAFEST TO PATRONIZE; as in the next he can take up the sledge every policy becomes absolutely incontest- hammer of steel faced logic, and with ple should teach all such vile and of his own countrymen and with the many companies, be contested, or compro- the brawny muscles of a well developed Vulcan he can beat out truths and facts mised for part of its face value. that will stand the judgment of eternity.

5. OF ALL COMPANIES THE MOST And so our magnetic and glorious PROMPT. As soon as a policy becomes upon the receipt of "Proofs of Death," Of cogent and forceful and fascinating the death claims paid by the Society in and impressive debater, for conviction 1886, more than one-half of the total bows to the majestic sway of his imthe first sixty days,

Such a record is unparalleled.

6. THE MOST PROGRESSIVE COM. the rubblest wines of the mellowest surance famous throughout the world. of the richest poetic fancy.

THE MOST LIBERAL COMtract of assurance.

ever (introduced.

not only do all profits belong to policy- petuate Democratic rule and wise, may try it but he will receive such a woman and child in the land; it is to holders, but no other assurance company honest and economical government.-- rebuke from the people of this great reduce the unjust profits of monopolists Take them, O, God ! our brave, The glad fulfillers of Thy dreated for the glad fulfillers of Thy dreated for the glad fulfillers of the glad ful has ever been conducted in the same sense and to the same degree in the interest of Charlotte Chronicle. policyholders, From il nade will bleed most freely, still the MR. EDITOR: -1 saw in a recent In your presence I how to the majest precious balm of a thorough consecration to the party will all the lacerations heal, and, for our glorious party's weal, leave not a single cicatrice there to paper the following expression with of the people. The sight itself is inreference to Depew, a man that wishes spiring though sublime. You come to occupy the Presidential chair of this from every State and Territory, from tell of hopes so fruitless and so bare. great Republic: every nook and corner of our ocean

"Depew is defiant, not to say a bound continent-covering country. Judge Fowle deserves this high and quarter of a century behind the times. You are about to discharge a more eloquent recognition, and his nomina-He says he would nail the bloody than imperial duty with the simplest shirt to the masthead if necessary." ceremonials. You, as the representapetitors is indeed a splendid tribute Necessary for what? To promote tives of the people, are to choose a to his brilliant attainments, and a him to the high position of President magistrate, with power mightier than magnificent reward for the noble serof the United States? Just think of a monarch, yet checked and controlled vices he has so faithfully rendered to it. A man claiming the mental abil- by the supreme law of the written Conity to occupy the highest seat of honor stitution. Thus impressed I ascend the Fowle will confluct a most brilliant in the gift of the people, vile enough rostrum to name the next President of campaign, and infuse into it an enthuto wish to ride unto power by sowing the United States. New York presents siasm that will sweep from the mounthe seeds of brotherly alienation, and him to the convention and pledges her tains to the sea, and electrify all destroying the harmony of the differ- electoral vote. Delelegations from hearts with the quivering waves of his ent sections of the country. The thirty-eight States and all the Terrideep and thrilling inspiration. And name of such a man should descend tories are here assembled without cauthe stream of time into the deepest cus or consultation, ready simultas shades of infamy, followed by the ex- neously to take up the cry and make ecrations of his countrymen. Like the vote unanimous. We are here, the devil in Eden, he would resort to indeed, not to choose a candidate, only 2. THE LARGEST COMPANY; hav- passioned delivery, still it is in his all that is mean, subvert the order of to name the one the people have ing the greatest volume of Outstanding As- power to convict the sober reason by good government, and excite feelings already chosen. He is the man for of discord from one extremity of this the people. His career illustrates the not be shaken by any breath of sophis- country to the other to effect his glory of our institutions. Eight years wicked and selfish ends. Such a man ago unknown, save in his own locality, is unfit for any position of honor and he for the last four has stood in the trust in the government; and should gaze of the world discharging the most sweetest rills its glorious streams of feel the weight of the scorn and con- exalted duties that can be confided to tempt of the conservative element of a moral. To-day determines that not the country upon his head. Our peo- of his own choice, but by the mandate presumptuous miscreants that men of sanction of Heaven he shall fill the broader views and patriotic emotions Presidency for four years more. He are wanted in the offices of the land- has met and mastered every question that their proper place is in peniten- as if from youth trained to statesmanleader-the silver tongued orator of tial seclusion or some anon rock, far ship. The promises of his letter of usual delay of sixty days, but immediately the State-has all the elements of a away from the society of the better acceptance and inaugural address have class of men they are too base to as- been fulfilled. His fidelity in the past inspires faith in the future. He sociate with. The time has gone by for unprinci- is not a hope; he is a realization. were received; and the balance, with the perial logic, delight hangs in dreamy pled demagogues to ride into popular Scorning subterfuge, disdaining re-elecexception of a few scattering cases, within rhapsody upon the entracing witchery favor-into offices of trust on the dead tion by concealing convictions he of his thrilling thetoric, and enchant- issues of the past. A better feeling courageously declares to Congress, ment drinks to sweetest intoxication pervades the land, and we want no dropping minor matters, that the su-"bloody shirt" antagonism impeding preme issue is reform, revision, and re-PANY; having been the pioneer in all the and most luscious grapes that ever grew our progress and disturbing the repose duction of national taxation ; that the reforms which have made American life as- and ripened upon the luxuriant vines of the nation. We want unity and Treasury of the United States, glutted strength in our onward march to our with unceded gold, oppresses industry, brilliant future, with the best wisdom embarrasses business, endangers finan-

PANY; issuing a policy which combines As that gallant and knightly son of of the land holding the reins of gov- cial tranquillity and breeds extravamore guarantees and advantages than any the lower Cape Fear, Maj. C. M. ernment. We want no political hot- gance, centralization and corruption; other company can offer under a single con- Stedman, eloquently said to the con- spur poisoning the avenues of our so that high taxation vital for the exi end vention, it makes little difference about cial existence, riding into power on ditures of an unparallelled war is rob-8. THE MOST REMUNERATINE the elevation of men whose names the ruin of our institutions, plunder- bery in years of prosperous peace; that COMPANY; having not only accumulated are so soon to perish out of memory ing the treasury of the country, with the millions that pour into the treasury a larger surplus for the future benefit of in comparison with the principles of the "bloody shirt nailed to the mast- come from the hard earned savings of policy-holders, out having devised the Ton-tine method of assurance under which Democracy, it behooves the patriots of head." James G. Blaine tried four the American people; that in violation larger profits have been 1aid to policy- the party to conserve and hand down years ago to influence the Northern of equality of rights the present tariff holders than under any form of assurance a legacy to coming generations. Let mind against the South with the has created a privileged class who politicians, let the press, and let the "bloody shirt" argument, but went shaping legislation for their personal

9. THE MOST WORTHY OF BEING people of the State, go to work, down with the scorn and contempt gain, levy by law contributions for the CALLED A MUTUAL COMPANY; for, unitedly and energetically to per. of the people as he deserved. Depew necessaries of life from every man, Who counts the weary life drops flow, country he will never forget while and boss manufacturers and all conmemory holds her empire in his breast. sumers to retain the rest. The man apart to commemorate the deeds and duties as was Grover Cleveland. to consecrate the lives of those who day those doubts have been removed went forth to save us a nation, and who and no man can be named in either by their acts of patriotisin, will ever party, who can claim so fully the conlive in the hearts of their countrymen. fidence of all classes and conditions of This season of the year so bountiful of our people. With no record but that the beauties of nature, has become a of a truly honest and courageous man, fixed one dedicated to the memory of Mr. Cleveland was raised by the that vast army of heroes who departed people to the Presidency four years in the pride of robust manhood to do ago; and at this time assured that their battle for principles and if need be to judgment of the man was not mistaken, lay down their lives to perpetuate the they had asked of their representatives government founded by the Fathers of in convention the privilege of again the Republic. From our midst were seating him in that exalted place. In those whose graves will be honored to- our country fortuitous circumstances day by the comrades who are left : and may raise the most obscure individual the interest is ever increasing from the to exalted station, that sudden exaltatime when the patriotic custom was tion makes it the more difficult to first instituted in the village of Water- maintain the proper dignity and to loo, when the late honored and gal- discharge the new and arduous duties lant Gen. John B. Murry, with a few of the office. It this ordeal Mr. Clevecomrades marched to our cemeteries land has shown his greatness. Never and placed the garlands of affection has official diginity been better main-upon the last resting places of those tained by a President of our country. who had been his comrades in arms. Never has a Chief Executive taken a From that spontaneous, public act, has more decisive, more comprehensive been evolved a national day that will views upon the great question of popube second only to the anniversary of lar government, or shown a more the birth of the nation, and will live thorough understanding of the details while a true American exists. For of Executive functions. sacred and sweet, consecrated by love Mr. Cleveland is not a negative and tearful affection, are the tributes character. He does not stand upon brought to-day, to the graves of our the mistakes he has avoided, but his administration is to be judged by its patriotic dead.

Year by year the silent, invisible bold, honest, statesmanlike acts and army increases, and nearly every boat utterances which have not been few. that crosses the dark stream that sep- Apparently careless of popular favor, arates us from the great beyond car- devoted to duty, always conscientious, L. C. EDWARDS, ries over an honored veteran to the he has thrown himself upon the peovast camp of silence and rest. Already ple trusting to their justice and love of have Grant, Hancock, McClellan and the right to vindicate him. A politiothers of the country's great heroes cian would have avoided many positions passed beyond the pale of mortal strife, which he has purposely and honestly and to-day while a nation is bowed in defended. His attitude toward the holy reverence and paying its loving prodigal expenditure of the people's rites to the herioic dead it is sorrow- money upon unworthy pensioners a fully awaiting the last roll call of one demagoge could not have ventured to of the gigantic leaders whose name assume; and a man of less courage will be eternal on the scroll of his would not have taken such a stand. country's fame. Perhaps ere these On the tariff Mr. Cleveland led his words are read, the gallant General party, stalking out boldly for a tren.

Sheridan will be numbered with the chant reform. Nowhere has he been countless bosts of those who have found the servant of another's dictation earned for themselves a niche in the His course and the grand result show history of great and patriotic achieve- in his unanimous selection sa his own ments in the cause of Union and Free- successor prove that with the people dom. And so, while a mourning nation sterling honesty and conscientiousness awaits the dread doom of one of her are more valued than distinguished greatest chieftains, with patriotic glow abilities. Mr. Cleveland is to-day far will be placed upon the graves of the stronger with the people after a trial of fallen brave who have rendered up four years than when his career was a their country's cause, the emblems of thing of the future, and the party that undying love:

Sleep on, brave boys, full well we know adds strength to the ticket. Notepre-And, dying for Freedom, died for Thee. sentative Democrat of the old school progress toward a permanent supremances of victory next fall.

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesoneueve. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low tes', shert weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only tin cans. ROYAL BARING POW-DER Co., 106 Wall St. N Y , aug. 18, 16

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

JAS. NORFIEET.

ATTORNEY AT LAW HEMPHERSON, N. C.

Office over the Bank of Henderson. [april 26-a.]

M. PITTMAN, 1.

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

HENDERSON, N. C.

Prompt attention to all professional busi-ness. Practices in the State and Federal courts, Refers by permission to Commercial Na-tional Bank and E. D. Latta & Bro., Char-lotte, N. C.; Alired Williams & Co., Kaleigh, N. C.; D. Y. Cooper and Jas. H. Lassiler, Honderson N. C. courts Henderson, N. C. Office: Over Jas H. Lassiter & Sou's store. nov 5-1 c.

A NDREW J. HARRIS,

ATTORNEY AT LAW

HENDERSON, N. C.

Practices in the courts of Vance, Granville, Warren and Franklin counties, and in the Supreme and Franklin counts of the State. Office: In Harris Law Building, next to Court House.

A. R. WORTHAM, Oxford, N. C. Henderson, N. C.

L'DWARDS & WORTHAM,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

HENDERSON, N. C.

Offer their services to the people of Vance county. Col. Edwards will attend all the Courts of Vance county, and will come to Henderson at any and all times when his assistance may be needed by his partner. march 19-a

W. H. DAY. A. C. ZOLLICOFFER. DAY & ZOLLICOFFER,

ATTOBNEYS AT LAW,

HENDERSON, N. C.

Practice in the courts of Vance, Granville, Warren, Hallfax and Northampton, and Ha the Supreme and Federal courts of the State. Office: In Zollicoffer's law building, Gar-ett street. feb. 9-61. nett street.

The Bank of Henderson.

HENDERSON, VANOE COUNTY, N.G.

has nominated him has made rapid General Banking, Exchange and

Collection Business,

acy, and this has added to the assur-FIRST MORTGAGE LOANS Negotiated The nomination of Judge Thurman on good farms for a term of years, in sums of $500 and upward, at 5 per kent as a candidate for the Vice-Presidency interest and moderate charges. Apply to Wyl. H. S. BURGWYN, At the Bank of Henderson.

