GEORGIA voted overwhelmingly Democratic yesterday. The entire State ticket and at least two-thirds of the legislature are Democratic. Even the tenth Congressional district from the meagre returns received, is said to have repudiated Tom Watson. If that be so this is glory enough for one day surely. What's the matter with the Third party? Oh, it's all right—badly left.

Judge Walter Q. Gresham, whom the People's party implored to accept their nomination for the Presidency, and who has heretofore been a Republican, has announced that he would vote for Cleveland. And Judge Gresham is not alone among prominent men and politicians throughout the country who have been Republicans heretofore, who have declared their intention to vote for Grover Cleveland.

Hon. Wayne MacVeach, who was Attorney General in President Garfield's cabinet, has publicly announced his intention to vote for Cleveland. In concluding his letter he says: "As I believe that the true welfare of the country would be promoted by Mr. Cleveland's election, it is my duty to vote for him and I recall the candor, the fidelity and the courage with which he has heretofore discharged every public trust committed to him, the duty becomes a pleasure."

The following resolution, offered by F. H. Busbee, of the North Carolina delegation, was read and unanimously adopted by the National Convention of Democratic clubs in New York city Tuesday: Resolved, That the chairman be requested to transmit to the President of the United States the respectful sympathy of the members of the Association of Democratic Clubs with him in his days of anxiety, and to express their earnest hope that in the providence of God Mrs. Harrison may, in his own good time, be restored to health.

The Raleigh News and Observer, thus comments upon the open letter of Mr. T. T. Hicks, published in the GOLD LEAF last week, and we entirely agree with our esteemed contemporary in what it says: Mr. T. T. Hicks who is making a strong canvass in Vance has issued an open letter to D. H. Gill who is the head and front of the Third party in Vance. Mr. Hicks handles the issues and questions of the day in a manner so clear and admirable that his letter is unanswerable. It ought to do good with any Third party man whose prejudice does not keep him from opening his ears to the truth.

Here is the latest lie incubated by the Progressive Farmer: Chairman Simmons, in a conversation with friends recently, is reported to have said: "There are three ways to carry North Carolina Democratic this year. One is to assess the railroads and banks $100,000. Another is to put 500 barrels of whiskey east of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad. Failing in this, I guess I know how to count."

Now let Boss Ramsey tell who those "friends" were and when and where the conversation took place, or stand a self-convinced falsifier. Chairman Simmons never said any such thing.

It was a high compliment and deserved tribute the Democrats of Massachusetts paid to Gov. Wm. E. Russell, in choosing him for the third time to be their standard bearer. Twice he has led them to victory and he will do it again. The fact that the nomination was unanimous shows in what estimation Governor Russell's abilities are held by the Massachusetts Democrats. The contest in which the young Governor is about to engage will be a difficult one, as Massachusetts has not for perhaps two generations been carried by the Democratic party during a Presidential year, but Governor Russell is better equipped than anyone else in his State to lead the fight against the Republicans, and if he does not break the power of that party in its former citadel of strength he will come very near doing so. The Massachusetts campaign is going to be an interesting one.

JOHN T. PATRICK, the man who wanted everything for nothing out of the North Carolina editors, for the so-called Southern Inter-State Exposition, has an apt imitator in the present secretary of the State Fair. With the single exception of Patrick no man has ever had the gall to send out column after column of each staff asking the free publication of the same. Every newspaper in the State (and the GOLD LEAF is no exception) stands ready at all times to do its part in aiding every worthy object or public enterprise, but they simply become disgusted and are not disposed to do as much as they otherwise would when they are persistently importuned and flooded with waste baskets full of circulars and prepared matter of the most extravagant sort such as emanate from the State fair—"bureau of information," all for a ticket of admission which one out of one dozen have no disposition to use. But we do not blame anybody but the publishers. As long as they permit themselves to be imposed upon they will always be found some one to take advantage of the opportunity.

CASTORIA for Infants and Children. "Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any other medicine known to me." H. A. ARMOUR, M.D., 111 So. Oxford St., New York City.

GRAND TOBACCO EXPOSITION! AT ROCKY MOUNT, November 2'd. Rocky Mount, N. C., will have her Second Annual Exposition on the 2nd day of next November. $1,000 IN GOLD WILL BE PAID OUT. $1,000

GROVER CLEVELAND, the friend of the people—the masses—and the sturdy champion and prototype of Democratic principles, pays a high and deserved compliment to all classes of true workers when he says: "Honour lies in honest toil." Still, unprincipled demagogues and people who do not know any better, would have you believe Mr. Cleveland is against the working man and under the influence and control of Wall street and the money power. How can this be when the whole New York delegation and the combined influence of Wall street and the "plutocrats" of which we hear so much, were opposed to his nomination at Chicago? And the "machine politicians" throughout the country were against him also. It was the popular will of the people—the rank and file of the voters of the country—that nominated Grover Cleveland, and not Wall street and the "plutocrats." They were against him, but the people won.

RETURNED TO THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY. Mr. W. T. Adams, who was formerly President of the Graniteville county Alliance, some time ago allied himself with the Third party. He has now seen the error of his way and returned to the Democracy. At a Democratic rally at Clays recently, he made a speech and declared he was done with the Third party and would support the Democratic ticket in full. The Oxford Day says: Mr. Adams was at Raleigh on the day of Stevenson's visit, and he was convinced of the error of his way and announced that some night his return to the Democratic fold. He said at Clays he believed in conservatism, favored white man's rule and that the only hope for relief for the farmers was through the Democratic party.

SEEING THE ERROR OF THEIR WAY. From all parts of the State we see accounts of prominent Third party men renouncing their allegiance to that organization and declaring their purpose to stand by the Democracy as heretofore. Nor are they alone. Leading Republicans are doing the same. They have become convinced that neither the Republican nor the Third party is the real people's party, but that the Democratic party alone represents those principles and advocates those measures that are calculated to prove of greatest good to the masses, especially of the South. And they see no chance for Weaver to win, nor do they desire the success of Harrison and his party of high protection and force bill proclivities. They are beginning to understand Cleveland's true position and the attitude of the Democracy with regard to the leading issues involved and the reforms sought for, and with the light before them there is but one thing to do, cast their fortunes with the party that promises some measure of relief, if not all that is desirable, and that has the best showing of success in the coming election. Others who have apparently strayed off will return to the Democratic fold before the 8th of November.

How DOES THIS STRIKE YOU? Commenting on the performances of old Mrs. Lease, the woman's rights shouter and social equality advocate, who has been making political speeches in the South in behalf of the Third party, and behind whose petticoat gallant (?) and brave (?) Gen. Weaver took refuge while "marching through Georgia" recently, the Wilmington Star says: Mrs. Lease, of Kansas, who is employed by the Third party managers to stump the South with Gen. Weaver, is one of the boldest of the Third party advocates and defenders. She is not as politic as some of them and speaks her mind more freely. At Waycross, Ga., she "thanked God that we now had a party that had wiped out all sectional lines, and had obliterated all sex and color." How is that for progress? (2) Third partyism? Here we have a party which one of its recognized representatives declares not only puts men and women on the same plane politically, but puts the white man and the black man there too. This might not strike with terrific force in Kansas or in other Western or Northern States where the negroes are comparatively few, but how does it strike the Third party man in the South where they are not only numerous enough to be a mighty factor in politics but in some States have a majority of the voters and can if properly organized and they act together elect whom they please to office? In some counties in this State the Third party conventions have nominated negroes for office, but thus far Marion Butler nor any of the other Third party lights have had the candor to admit that it is a negro equality party, as Mrs. Lease does.
