VOL. XIII.

HENDERSON, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1894.

NO. 18.

The Old Friend

lator, (the Red Z)—that's what you hear at the mention of this excellent Liver mediane, and people should not be permaded that anything else will do. It is the King of Liver Medicines; is better than pills, and takes the place of Quinine and Calomel. It acts directly on the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels and gives new life to the whole are tem. This is the medicine you want. Sold by all Druggists in Liquid, or in Powder to be taken dry or made into a tea. OF EVERY PACEAGE.

THIS IS OUR SIDE

and your pecketbook. And we are which it instituted.

Next to W. S. Parker & Co.

DRUGGIST

HENDERSON, - N. CAROLINA LARGE VARIETY OF

New Field and Garden Seeds. MOW PRICES.

Onion Sets, Yellow or White.

A full and complete line of DRUGS AND DREGGISTS

SMOKET'S' GOODS, hominee for the Vice-Presidency. Prescription Work a Specialty.

HEADINE

WILL CURE-

4. M. SHEER & BRO., Quincy, III.

HON.THOS. J. JARVIS.

APPOINTED BY GOV. CARR TO SUCCEED VANCE. Brief Sketch of the Life and Public Services of the Distinguished Gentleman --- A Man of the People and a Well Equipped Statesman---Vance's Lieutenant Governor and Succesor in the Gubernatorial Chair .--- A

| Raleigh News-Observer-Chronicle.]

Thorough Democrat, &c.

Jarvis as Senator to fill the vacancy created by the death of the lamented server. Vance was, we imagine, generally expected throughout the State. Although still a comparatively young Ransom, the most distinguished citizen of the State in active political service, and it is fitting that he should wear the mantle that has fallen from the shoulders of the deceased Senator. Having loyally and gallantly served Captain of Campany B., Eighth office. 1868 as a Democrat, and was the leader of that little band of braves who rendered the State such signal unusual consequence. To him more Senator Ransom is seeking to obtain of honor at the grave. of it—we claim to have the best than any one else was due the credit for him a better place, which we hope The Swannanoa—Nymph of Beauty, Vance no longer graces the Senate B. Vance, has been heralded, and with stock of seasonable goods in town, of securing control of that body and he will be able to do. Indeed, Mr. in the mellow Indian tongue—which chambers at Washington, which was and at prices that will please you thus making possible the reforms Henry merits much more consider- first leaps from the weeping eye of the scene of his last labors, and the cause your view to coincide with nated as Lieutenant Governor on the was one that but few men who have precipices in agony of grief, wailing contains all that is left of him. Words ticket with Gov. Vance and made an received first class missions can equal and weeping and wringing her hands, are inadequate to express the feelings We carry a complete stock of every- active campaign. Being elected, he —have the ability to equal. We know until, with a despairing sob, she hid of grief at his loss, of reverence for take his seat as Senator, and during we do not over-rate other people.this period he exerted a wholesome Raleigh News-Observer-Chronicle. Canned Goods, Confectioneries, influence on legislation and still boreign and Domesta Truits, Cheese, further increased his knowledge of the Crackers, Cokes, Barter, Eggs, Citeen needs of the State. Coming to the Greecitics, Ac. Particular attention Executive chair fresh from familiar intercourses with the active men of the CANDY left over from Christmas. details of public matters, he entered intelligence. His administration, pro- years, many of them tempestuous and longed by subsequent election by the fiery. people to more than six years, was had begun were taken up and pressed world the one trusted leader who has to a conclusion, and new work was prosperous, contented and happy, and responded with cheerfulness to the suggestions of a practical Governor. We had made an exhibit at the to speak of Senator Vance as his dis-Also the Great Multiplyer, Atlanta Exposition and at Boston, and just before his term ended, the Hair, Tooth and Perfumery, Soaps State instituted an Exposition which was kept open a month, and which the fitting close of an administration which, measured by its fine fruits, had in the progress and advancement of SUNDRIES. the people never been approximated in I carry a beautiful assertment of . our history. About this time, Gov. Jarvis being in New England, made votion to North Carolina, large expe-FANCYARTICLES, such a favorable impression, that he rience in political and State matters, was much considered as a possible

And in the succeeding Assembly a majority, Jarvis received merited gnition in being elevated to the Speaker's chair. As presiding officer ton Messenger.

> 1884, the legislature by a unanimous vote of both Houses, the Republicans cordially concurring, presented Gov. very much the poorer by his demise. larvis' name to him for a cabinet position. Mr. Cleveland shortly afterwards appointed Gov. Jarvis people. Since his return he has de-voted himself to the practice of his and to the United States House of The day promises to > > Senator larvis has always been a zealous Democrat. He has made speeches in every county in the State, and in many of them he has spoken at every recurring election. He is a plain, but very forcible speaker. He is direct in his methods, frank and sincere. He is cautious, prudent, and thoughtful. Above all he is patriotic. He is free from narrow sectionalism, but devoted to the interest of the people of North Carolina.

He will bring to the discharge of his Senatorial duties, a lofty patriotism, fine intelligence, high integrity, and a thorough acquaintance with the needs of the people of this State and of the Senator Jarvis was born in Curri-1836, and is now 58 years of age. He married Dec. 23, 1874, Miss Mary Woodson, of Virginia.

be fed to poultry to good advantage. - Wilmington Messenger.

OUR ILLUSTRIOUS DEAD. SENATOR ZEBULON B. VANCE DIED APRIL

Down the dark valley of the shadow gone In that dumb pageant which, with silent

Is marshaled on life's limits, and is led By death away into the Land Unknown And Carolina weeps but not alone! Beside his royal bier, uncomforted A nation grieves—He is the Nation's dead Flesh of her flesh, bone of her very bone! Wrapt in the silence of his native hills

To-day in tears we leave him. Back O Love Divine, is fled his lofty soul. But yours remain his high-born princi-Ye whom he loved! Guard your rich

The appointment of Gov. Thomas From time's fell seath or ravening death's Henry Jerome Stockard in Charlotte Ob-Chapel Hill, N. C., April 16, 1094.

> HON. WALTER R. HENRY. Tendered him by President with majestic curse.

Cleveland. in the army of the Confederacy as first class man should have a first class want how but a memory, but it will be a Regiment, he was elected a member of Mr. Walter R. Henry declines the the Constitutional Convention of 1865 Curacoa consulship. He is entitled to from Currituck, his native county, and a better position than the one offered. he was elected from the county of He is one of North Carolina's ablest Tyrrell a member of the legislature of and best men.—New Berne Journal.

Mr. Walter R. Henry, of Henderson, declined the consulship to some place unknown to most people. He is dead," flew through the mountain reconstruction but he was permitted from the scene of his Senatorial considered. He was a man of strong conservice in that Republican body. The State rang with his praises which were is a lawyer of parts, a man of brilliant caves, all Nature mourned. The sigh- only to catch a far-off glimpse of the tests to the resting place on the victions, and had no hesitation in their echoed from the mountains to the oratory we have understood, has been ing pines wailed out the awful tiding, Promised Land, where the people are efficient as a canvasser, and if he is to until their winged denizens, the mat- to have a reformed tariff and a popureceive any recognition by the powers ing birds, ran airily to every hidden lar currency, because his Israel murin which the Democrats happily held that be it should be of a kind that is height and dell (as Malise sped the mured and complained and cried: gaze of the multitude as it looks with leges and Elections, a member of the worthy of a gentleman of talents and Fiery Cross) until in every mountain "Raise up for us a new leader;" and moistened eye on the lifeless form once Finance Committee, and also a member a North Carolina Democrat. - Wilming- nook and cranny it was known-"Zeb this, too, in the days when the old the casket of the mighty mind and the of the select committee on Woman ation than the Department has ap- Mt. Mitchell, dashed down the hills souls of mourning people encircle as confident that investigation will The year following he was nomi- parently accorded him. His campaign ane around the rocks and over the with an ocean of love, that tomb which presided over the Senate until Vance something about men; and while we herself in the ample bosom of the his character, gratitude for his service, While he is no more in life, his name early in 1879 resigned as Governor to do not under-rate North Carolinians, Tahkeeostee — "Racing Waters," thankfulness for his life, and devotion faithful, able, true, tried and devoted State, and fully conversant with the public servant, Senator Zebulon Baird Vance, will cause a pang of profound Will sell at 25 cents a pound—just on his duties fully prepared to dis- sorrow to thousand of hearts in the what it cost at wholesale. Call early, charge them with a high degree of State he has served through so many

DEATH OF SENATOR VANCE.

> His death is a sad blow to our peowithout doubt the most brilliant in ple in this time of doubt, dispondency the annals of the State, except alone and apprehension. At any time his PARKER, that of Vance during the period of the loss would be grievous to North Carolina, but now it is particularly serious The changes that Governor Vance and afflictive. It remoyes from the done more for our people than any undertaken with an energy that living son has been able to do, and control. Our people then were courage and constancy wherever it led, whether in war times or in more peaceful days. We can not at this hour undertake tinguished merits demand, and as we will at another time enter upon, with more of leisure and yet with a sorrowful heart. We have known him long, was a complete epitome of the State's have often paid homage to his high industries and resources. Such was gifts, and distinguished services, and have for many years regarded him as our soundest and ablest public man. His loss will simply be beyond estimate at this serious juncture of public affairs. His fidelity, courage of conviction, dehonesty of character and superior abilities, gave him a combination that When Mr. Cleveland was elected in was without estimate, and his removal

Senator Vance was born 13th May, 1830, and if he had lived to his next Minister to Brazil, where he passed the following four years with honor to himself and credit to the American Since his return he has de Minister to Brazil, where he passed the following four years with honor to himself and credit to the American Since his return he has de Minister to Brazil, where he passed county and was educated at Washington College, Tennessee, and at the himself and credit to the American University of North Carolina. He Nature does not know that this is Zeb of Congress ought not to be paid for the time they are absent from their the first few years in laboring for the relief to the American to County and was educated at Washing-ton County and was educated at Washing-ton College, Tennessee, and at the through the valleys. Who says that expression to the opinion that members of Congress ought not to be paid for the time they are absent from their they are absent from their the first few years in laboring for the relief to the American to Say idolized—by the exaggeration to say idolized—by the people of his State than Vance.

The announcement that he was to the passent from their they are absent from their they ar looks as if invisible angels are sweepelected in 1864. In 1870, he was elected to the United States Senate, but the Republicans would not permit him to take his seat, and he resigned.
In January, 1876, he was for the third
In January, 1876, he was for the third time elected Governor. He was elected to the Senate and took his seat pity man. in 4th March, 1879. In 1884, he was re-elected, as he was in 1890. So he was elected Governor thrice and was elected Governor thrice and stands upon the site of the one where the pay of the absent stands upon the site of the one where the pay of the absent and then as our Governor again, and the court house to the court house edited Charlotte Observer says:

| I finish writing this as the old clock in the court house of that long struggle for civil liberty in that long struggle for civil l United Stated Senator four times. His services have been long, and of Vance first practiced law. very great importance and value to honored and been more attached to tuck county, North Carolina, January, his memory and know how to pay ever saw—the saddest veterans, sadfitting honors to its illustrious citizen dest cadets, saddest negroes, saddest attacks of sickness is to be found in taking who was tried in many ways and school children. It looked as if the Hood's Sarsaparilla. If you are weak it entrusted with great responsibilities decades had skipped and left the sor-At present prices for wheat it can, and found efficient and worthy in all. rows of age upon the little ones. If

LAID TO REST.

LAST SAD RITES OVER THE BODY OF SENATOR VANCE.

Buried at Asheville in the Presence of a Large Concourse of Sorrowing of ladies were singing "Jesus, lover of Friends and Admirers--- A Great Demonstration in Honor of the Lamented Dead---The Solemn Journey brellas. From the Table Lands to the Mounthe Mournful Occasion.

[Special Correspondence Charlotte Ob-

Walter R. Henry was right in declin- berated from crag to crag with all the was buried after being vouchsafed a ple he had time and again been greeted ing the post of consul at Curacoa. A musical mellowness of Swiss boy's distant view of the land of Canaan. by admiring multitudes, of all classes Vance in the United States Senate is hidden paths, and when Elisha stiff-necked people. In the shadows very extravagance of enthusiasm, but valuable services in that distinguished of the Black, leading the Highland broon, in lovely Asheville cemetery, and fondly she loved him. He had his and while the humor of his eloquence loved preceptor. of the House he enhanced his reputa- It is understood that Mr. Walter R. mountain eagle soared up to the sun, spirit and struggling with disease. tion and made still plainer to the Henry has decided that it is too risky Nature's great rugged, rock-ribbed And now in the early afternoon the hand of affection as the funeral cortege Senator Vance was extremely wise, his conduct just and his course insurance companies will not insure The encircling mountains, led by to the disappearance into glory of the his life at Curacoa. He is willing to Pisgah, as Saul among his fellows, archangel that attended the funeral as another.—Wilmington Star. He was a member of the Constitu- serve his country, but is not desirous standing as a cordon of eternal senti- ambassador from the court of Heaven. tional Convention of 1875 and again of sacrificing himself on the altar in rendered the State signal service of these piping times of peace. And so and formed the God appointed guard In a grave where Tar Heel's have laid him.

whose grief was greater, though more to his memory.

UP THE MOUNTAIN SIDE.

Words can not depict the glorious night as in the moonlight the engine puffed up the mountain. On, on: around, around; upward, upward; but the eyes which could most appreciate it were shut forever. I stood by the side of the casket as the train passed Gombroon. I would lina, but now it is particularly serious love to write the indescribable sensa- of farms than anything else of equal tion as I then felt, but tast falling tears cost. obliterate every pencil mark.

bespoke progress in every line of State whose plume has been followed with gleaming lights could be seen in the macadamizing. among the fastnesses that "Zeb" was dead, and the Highlanders were annually. The cultured and wealthy brought the and then a good road would be the crowd looked on and cried.

I stood on Battery Park Heights nothing. and saw the red sun come up from be- The principle of good roads are that hind Beaucatcher-they call it Beaumont. Not a cloud was in the sky. merable carriages rattled by, going to would otherwise be idle. the depot where the corpse was awaiting to be brought up to the city. The hearse, drawn by four splendid blacks, communication between town and country, benefit trade, enhance the soon followed. People began to stir. value of all adjacent properties and is a very great loss to North Carolina. Soon followed. Teople segan looked effect a large saving in money extoward the southwest for Pisgah. He pended in hauling materials over bad could not be seen. His stately form roads. and all the western range of hills that birthday he would have been 64 years old. He was born in Bincombe in a white cape of early morning mist.

and to the United States House of Representatives in 1858. In 1862, he was elected Governor, and was rehe was elected Governor, and was re- looks as if invisible angels are sweep- opinions we expressed. We believe we can never be fully appreciated because vast crowd. His hold upon the good in the State within our recollection. funeral procession. It was the mourn-North Carolina will long cherish fulest North Carolina if not this Union late and Nature could not contain herself any longer. She had to weep. It was while the great concourse was around the open grave and the preacher had read the Scripture about the resurrection and the life; the choir my soul." They sang it through, too, in spite of the rain, and the few um-Senator George looked long-faced tain Tops---Scenes and Incidents of Blackburn's eagle eye was cast down; Dubois looked exceeding sad; Gray looked tearful; Chandler looked magnanimous; Ransom looked like Apollo ASHEVILLE, April 18 .- Ashes to crowned with crape and myrtle ashes; earth to earth; dust to dust, instead of his usual laurel and her-All that is mortal of Zebulon Baird alded by Vesper instead of Aurora.

Zeb Vance was a mountain boy. On Nebo's lonely mountain, Moses, ches have their birth. He knew the tient and angry with a stubborn and and enthusiasm that seemed to be the long enduring memory. Nor will his Mitchell lost his life, he climbed the of the great Black Mountain, not far it was not until the great heart had body be soon forgotten. He had been hills and searched the gloomy caverns from the once happy home of Gomclans, until the sullen giant, unwilling, Zebulon Baird Vance lies in a newyielded up the body of the dead, be- made grave. He delivered his people great ones, but none which approx- there were great force and impressiveof the Old North State from the bonds imated in all the elements of glorious ness in his deliverances when serious And so when the news, "Zeb Vance of oppression and from the Egypt of triumph this solemn funeral march questions were to be seriously con-people his superior merit. In those for him to accept the appointment frame shook with grief, and her sad, sun is shining over the western hills moves amid sombre draperies, tolling popular with his fellow Senators, and critical times, his counsel was always which has been tendered, as the bleeding heart, despairing, broke. with a radiance that might be likened the grave.crowned hill in the lovely life which in every season, relation cemetery as the penitent of old washed and employment, was crowded with the feet of Jesus with her tears and all that twaines the affections and ad-The death of North Carolina's wiped them with the hairs of her head! miration of North Carolinians .-Granville County Reformer.

The living form of Zebulon B.

Why we Need Better Roads.

Teams and wagons will last longer with good roads. How to get good roads is a good topic for general discussion. A good road means big loads to and from market in less time. Good roads add more to the culture

A good road built is built to stay. Be sure the location, grade and direc-All the way across the mountains tion are the best before hardening or There is immense amount of money watching the passing of the corpse. A town should own a stone crusher, flowers, but the homespun, calico result. It would cost considerable in lasting. The material could be had for larger loads can be carried with greater speed, that farmers can market their product at what ever time they can get At the foot of the hill a military com- the best price without being dependent pany was marching down to the depot on the weather and that they can also his heroic acts and splendid achieve- affection with which he was regarded to the sound of muffled drums. Sud- use the roads in wet weather during denly a bell in a near-by church spire the spring when they can not plow: wailed out in musical grief. Innu- thus utilizing their horses when they

So all Will Say Yet.

I finish writing this as the old clock press agrees on this point. The ably members be stopped. This is right of finally through these many years of the State. The people at large have THE FUNERAL—RAIN FELL IN THE OPEN man for work which he did not perNation's council for the uplifting and the Since its first introdoction, Electric Bitters has gained rapidly in popular favor, him than to any man who has figured It is no use to try to describe the this treatment will have a most most menial laborer to the one in the medicinal tonics and alteratives containpublic business.

Hood's pills are the best after-dinner not have rained, but it was a little ZEBULON B. VANCE. BY THE PRESS.

> What is Said of the Death of the Eminent Statesman---Eulogies Pronounced Upon Him by Those Loss to His State and Country.

A STATE'S HEART TRIBUTE. It has never been the fortune of any son of North Carolina save Zebulon B. Vance to be as much beloved and honored in life or to be as touchingly Vance was laid to rest to day in the They were all bare-headed. There and sincerely mourned in death. What beautiful cemetery around which the was never before such universal sad- North Carolina is doing now is but the man, Gov. Jatvis is next to Senator He Declines the Appointment dirge-singing French Broad sweeps ness and heart-breaking at a grave- heart tribute of affection to the memory wit. He was a statesman, sincere, of the patriotic, devoted and brilliant brave and true. -Rocky Mount Phoeson whom in life she confidently His youthful songs had often sounded who led his people out of the house of trusted and was proud to honor with all the honor that she could confer. The Winston Sentinel says: Hon. through his native valleys or rever- bondage, out of the land of Egypt, In life as he mingled with his peoceased to beat, and the spirit fled, that a prominent and familiar figure in the North Carolina showed how tenderly Senate chamber for about fifteen years, triumphs in life, many of them and possessed a certain irresistible charm, mountain side in the county of his assertion. He was also a diligent and nothing compared with the sorrowful chairman of the Committee on Privi-Vance is dead!" And while the battle-scarred veteran was grieved in great heart and soul, or the myriads of Suffrage and the University of the flowers banked upon his bier by the United States. mourns him as she never mourned THE DEAD STATESMAN.

mourns. From one end to the other of this great land, the death of Zebulon equal swiftness have the encomiums on the celebrated dead been sounded from Maine to California. His greatness was not confined to this State alone. The Senate chamber echoes had been with distinctness his statesmanship and is dead and the people can not be comthat he was the Commoner of his day. forted. sumed it and strikingly unbiased by uncovered head in the presence of a clamor or haste in his part of national great and over-powering calamity.

which had so frequently resounded with New Berne Journal. his pleas for pure and good laws. He was recognized as one of the wisest and most potential men in the politics of North Carolina. With a sented his State in the upper branch wasted yearly by paying Tom, Dick clear and vigorous mind he grasped of Congress for more than twenty and Harry for scratching the dirt roads every political issue and was able to years. He was not only the North seldom failed to produce conviction- days of Mahone's regime in this State worthy to be trusted—the people be- our people looked upon him as our lieved him. His religion was intensely defender and protector, in the branch the beginning but the result would be practical, he recognized the fact that lasting. The material could be had for the bedrock principle of Christianity in man is living for the welfare of his they had no representative. In those fellow man. In Senator Vance's death days Virginia Democrats relied upon the State has suffered an irreparable Senator Vance and his colleague to loss, for, "turn the pages of North defend their interests. That the Carolina history and the brightest and gallant North Carolinian performed most glorious are those illuminated by this service well is attested by the ments."-Charlotte Democrat.

HIS MEMORY WILL NEVER FADE. No North Carolinian in the history of fine abilities. Not only was he of the State was ever so well, so truly probably the best stump speaker known and so universally loved as was Senator in the South, but he was equally as Vance. No man has ever been so much at home in discussing the most Vance. No man will probably ever be so sadly mourned for as he. There is hardly a child in the State but knows something of this great and Governor of North Carolina, an office Office: In Harris' law building near good man. His record is probably in which he displayed fine executive court house. better known than that of any living ability. But it was as a United States or dead North Carolinian and bardly Senator and as a political orator that any man knew him who did not love the deceased was best and most popu-

We note with pleasure that the and when every soldier, and every mattered not in what sphere he was woman and child loved him as a father. called upon to act. itself-there is no reason in paying any untiring and unceasing toil in the the burial had been on time it would a box. 25c. In pills; assist digestion, cure headache. Try is nonored in death. His memory will 50c, and $1.00 per bot never fade as long as there lives a true. Dorsey's drug store.

North Carolinian. For him we mourn, but in his record and fame we rejoice with thousands of his fellow citizens TRIBUTES PAID TO HIS MEMORY | who knew him only to love and to honor him. Peace to the askes of the greatest of North Carolina's sons .-Greenville Reflector.

GREAT TRIBUNE OF THE PEOPLE.

The sad news of the death of our Who Knew and Loved the Great great Tribune of the people, Zebulon Garolinian --- Universal Sorrow B. Vance, will be received with the at His Passing Away .- Senator greatest sorrow throughout the State. Vance's Death an Irreparable As North Carolina's great War Governor, he ranked in point of efficiency and zeal and affection in which he was held by the troops, higher than any other Southern Governor. Since the war, Gov. Vance was the leader of the people and occupied the highest offices in their gift. He was a man of great breadth of character, strong originality, of native genius and worth -gifted with a ready and sparkling efficient worker in the committee All the tributes of oratory are as room, and at the time of his death was bells and the music of the dirge, all universally well liked for his excellent voicing the grief of the State that personal qualities, in the private relations of life no man was more greatly beloved. It is needless to say that by the people of North Carolina, The State is afflicted; the Nation bestowals of honor, he was held in the from whom he received repeated highest esteem. He was always their friend, in storm or sunshine, and his friendship was gratefully appreciated. -Washington Post.

A FRIEND ALWAYS IN STORM OR

A GREAT AND OVER-POWERING CA

There is mourning throughout North heard from year to year to pronounce Carolina to-day. Zebulon B. Vance

It is not for us to write the epitaph is a monument of greatness in death, or pronounce the eulogy of Senator an ensample for generations to come. Vance. Others more gifted and closer subdued, and who bathe the feet of A great life has closed. It was a He will rank with Clay, Webster, and to him in public and private life will per-Crittendon as a patriot inspired purely form that sacred duty. Our place is by what he conceived to be a duty, with the mourners—the people of North bold in the position of right, as he as- Carolina. Reverently we stand with legislation. He was an honest man. At the proper time steps will be At no time in his history, did even the taken to commemorate his worth by breath of suspicion blanch his record. the erection of a monument to proclaim No political opponent ever found the his virtues and perpetuate his fame. slightest cause to assail his character The Old North State has few monuit was with the world a spotless one. ments to her illustrious dead, but the He loved his State, and the affection suggestion of a monument to Vance was strongly reciprocated in the re- would be immediately followed by the peated honors thrust upon him. He spontaneous contributions of the peoloyed the South; he was ever ready to ple. Let it rise until it meets the sun battle for it. He loved his country, in his coming. Let the earliest light and so stood always between the emis- of the morning gild it and departing saries of each extreme, in the halls day linger and play on its summit.

A PURE AND HONEST MAN.

Senator Vance had in part reprepresent his views in a manner that Carolina Senator, but during the dark popular with the masses as Senator important national issues before the J. H. BRIDGERS,

The distinguished Senator was a man

A Leader.

form; but in addition to being right, benefiting his fellow men from the until now it is clearly in the lead among salutary effect upon the progress of the highest position either of wealth or ingnothing which permits its use, as a beverage or intoxcant, it is recognized as Senator Vance knew no difference the purest and best medicine for all ail-The best mutual insurance policy against between his fellow citizens. His ments of stomach, liver or kidneys. It counsel will be missed in the State and will cure sick headache, indigestion, conthe Nation. All honor to the honorable dead. He was great in life. He bottle or money will be refunded. Price is honored in death. His memory will | 50c, and $1.00 per bottle. Sold at Melville

Good Advice Quickly Followed

Cured of Rheumatism by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "I was taken down with rheumatism over a year ago. I was sick for over six months. Often I would have such pains that I could hardly endure them. A friend came to me and advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took him at his word and got a bottle of it, and since have taken eight bottles of it.

It Has Cured Me When the doctors could do me no good whatever. After being benefited so much from this medicine I describe Hood's Sarsaparilla as a wonderful medicine. I also advise every one who is troubled with rheumatism not to be with-

Hood's Pills are hand made and perfect

FOR THIN PEOPLE. Are You Thin?

Flesh made with Thinacura Tablets is a scientific process. They create perfect assimilation of every form of food, secretworthless. They make thin faces plump and round out the figures. They are the STANDARD REMEDY for leanness, producing 12 to 15 lbs. per month, containing no arsenic, and Guaranteed Absolutely Harmless. Price, prepaid, $1 per box, 6 for $5. Pamphlet, "HOW TO GET FAT," free The THINACURA Co.,

GRATEFUL COMFORTING.

DENTIST. HENDERSON. -Office over E. G. Davis' store, Main

DR. F. S. HARRIS,

HENDERSON, N.

