A Clean, Attractive Paper

That is read all over secures business for those who use its advertising columns. Such a paper is the Henderson GOLD LEAF. The proof of the claim is in the test thereof. Columns open to both believer and skeptic.

Are You One of Them

THAD R. MANNING, Publisher.

"CAROLINA, CAROLINA, HEAVEN'S BLESSINGS ATTEND HER."

SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 Cash

VOL. XIV.

HENDERSON, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 9, 1895.

The Latest Outrage

the real Simmons Liver Regulator, because they make more money by the imitation; and they care little that they swindle

the people in selling them an inferior article. It's the money they are after, and the people can look out for themselves. Now this is just what the people are doing, and merchants are having a hard time trying to get people to take the stuff they offer them in place of Simmons Liver Regulator-which is the "King of Liver Medicines," because it never fails to give relief in all liver troubles. Be sure that you get

Simmons Liver Regulator. You

Old Friend. Better not take anything else but that made by J. H.

ALEX. T. BARNES,

Fine and Medium Grade Furniture. &c.,

mENDERSON, N. C.

Can be supplied with the best of good things to eat—of the finest

quality and lowest price—at

Opposite Bank of Henderson,

W.A. BRITT.

CORDOVAN

3350 FINE CALF & KANGARGO

$3.50 POLICE.3 SOLES.

4050 $2. WORKINGMENS

EXTRA FINE-

2. $1.75 BOYS SCHOOL SHOES

LADIES. 3.5250-82.41.75 BEST DONGOLA

SEND FOR CATALOGUE
W.L. DOUGLAS.

Over One Million People wear the

They give the best value for the money. They equal custom shoes in style and fit.

$3 SHOE IS THE BEST.

bage, turnips, &c.

NEW

ZEILIN & Co., Philadelphia.

which the people of the South are resenting, is the efforts of some to sell them imitations for

It is a Matter of Little Consequence God's approval than a Christian who Great Body of Christianity.

And Abraham said unto Lot, Let there be no strife I pray thee, for we are breth-

We have said in a previous article hat whether you belong to this, that or the other religious denominations is a matter of no consequence whatever. Christianity is equally represented by all sects, whose peculiarties had their origin in differences of temperament. Sects are a convenience, but sectarianism is a crime.

know it by old stamp Z on the It has ed you, who have the same of the Red package. never fail-and people been pervere compelled to attend a Roman Catholic service, for the simple reason that it does not appeal to him, and likewise a misfortune were a Romanist to be forced into a Quaker meeting est day and the darkest night; He house, because he would be spiritually loved His kind with the love of selfunded to take something else have repelled. always come back again to The

If the Lord had made us all alike we could all be Presbyterians or Episcopalians, but since He saw fit to cast us in different moulds, giving one man a matter of fact nature and another man a nature poetic and imaginative, He certainly does not object if we worship Him after the fashion which Indertaker & Embalmer, He has suggested by endowing us with manner of it which is important.

one church does what he can to thwart the plan of God, in whose universe the aw of differences involves the greatest An orchestra whose members should all play the same part on the same ion to be considered.

BRITT'S GROCERY STORE, lated will be banished.

Everything in the line of staple and tancy groceries, canned goods, teas, coffees, sugars, syrups, flour, meal, meat, lard, hams, cakes, crackers, cheese, evaporated fruits, prunes, &c. Try our " Silver Bell" and " Round Hill" patent flour. No better article for the money. Pure home made sausage a specialty. We keep this on hand at all times. Also country produce of all kinds, such as chickens, turkeys, butter, eggs, potatoes, cab-My prices are very reasonable. A share of your patronage is solicited. Special attention to filling family DOUCLAS be benefited by sitting for an hour in Melville Dorsey's drug store. Regular

W. L. Douglas $3 & $4 Shoes All our shoes are equally satisfactory Their wearing qualities are unsurpassed.
The prices are uniform,—stamped on sole.
From $1 to $3 saved over other makes.
If your dealer cannot supply you we can. Sold by that is its misfortune, not our fault. NewGoods You may safely depend, however, on the fact that the best will in the The daintiest, prettiest patterns of step to the rear. The law of progress the production of that crop to the exthe season's has not been repealed. If we have a Novelties are lump of gold in hand we are not likely now ready for to exchange it for a lump of silver; your inspec- and if we have a system of thought tion. You will which produces the noblest kind of plus product. we found so fascinated for a time by other systems,

> We ought to be large enough to say Thank God for all the religions of the earth," by whatever names they visions with and the prices of the latmay be known. If Buddhism has taken a crude and imaginative people and moulded them into a high order of civilization, then Buddhism is a providential religion, and the dear DISCOVERY OF Lord has had something to do with it. Persia and Arabia and the uttermost let no man be deceived by the belief parts of the earth worship in a way that the price will go up next fall; it gay throng could realize what had

India as He is in America. SPINAL weakness east y cured by which does not recognize that fact is rilla. It makes PURE BLOOD.

WITH CHARITY FOR ALL.

A SHORT LAY SERMON OF PRACTICAL heathen who is given to practices THE INDIAN ARROW-MAKER'S DAUGH-THOUGHT.

What Religious Denomination You Belong to So Your Heart is Right-All Sects and Creeds a Part of the week. It is no merit of yours that you

[New York Herald.]

It would be a misfortune if a Quaker certain qualities of character.

It is the fact of worship, and not the The man who would gather us into sind of instrument would furnish only wearisome monotony. The trombone and drum have their places as well as the violin and harp, and if they are all played with skill the result brings tears. What instrument you play is a secondary matter. Whether you play it well or ill is the only ques-

If we take this broad view we shall have charity for all, and that offensive bigotry which has worked so much evil in the world and done more to injure the cause of true religion than all the infidelity that was ever formu-

But suppose we overstep the limits of Christianity and explore the domain of other religions, what conclusions shall we reach? Shall we slill hold to our charity and give our godspeed to every system of morality and every aspiration after immortality in whatever shape it presents itself, or shall we insist that others shall think as we do and accept our theories of life and death?

Can we be wide and inclusive enough to give a gracious good will to the dusky Hindoo, who was reared in a different climate and a different environment; to the Mongolian, who follows the precepts of Buddhism, and to the disciple of Mohammed, who kneels in prayer at the setting of the sun? Shall we look with disdain on we believe that God is leading all His children, some in one way and some in another?

There is a strong tendency in these days to go to the Orient for a fresh supply of ideas. We have fed so long on the diet of Christianity that we as if she could not survive them. A friend hunger for a change. A man who recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; has always lived in the sunshine may it was quick in its work and highly satisthe gloaming, and a trip to the Hima- size 50c. and $1.00. layas will, perhaps, be a grateful nov-

Let us travel as far as we please; no harm can come of it. If what we have is better than anything we can find we shall not exchange it for what has less value, but if we can lay hold of loftier thoughts and stronger incentives than those we possess it is not only our right but our duty to do so. If our Christianity cannot defend itself against all comers and all odds end prevail, and what is not best will manhood and womanhood we may be because novelties are always pleasing, but in the long run we shall come back to our own life with fresh appreciation is lower.

of its beauties. Cures in 1 to 4 days, Immediate in effect; quick to cure. Can be carried in vest pocket, all complete in one may not be our way, still, it may be one receipt of price. $1 per box.

One link in the progressive chain of country. Now is planting time and the formers cut their cloth accord-

> The honest man who does the best he knows how is safe in the loving hands of the Almighty whether he be PROTECTION from the grip, hands of the Almighty whether he be

BEAUTIFUL KINNEETA. false to itself and disloyal to Him who is the Father of all alike. Indeed, to speak plain truth, a pure minded

which we abhor, but who is conscientious in duty, enjoys a larger share of nods assent to the creed on Sunday and robs his fellows all the rest of the

were born among large duties and hopes, and it is no fault of the Bagdad

merchant that he was not so born.

Your merit lies in the use you make of your broad sunlight, and his merit

lies in the use he makes of his slender moonlight. Sunlight and moonlight

With a kindiy charity for all, with white; with profound respect for every in the problem of human progress, we may nevertheless be grateful for the wonderful hopes and ambitions which the Christ represents. His great heart went out in pity for the prodigal; He felt the Father's presence in the bright-friendless and the lover of the despairing; in His dire emergencies the heavens opened and troops of angels came down to minister unto Him; He did

If we believe all that, we need travel neither East nor West in search of

for we have jewels they do not possess.

the Christian must first give up his men by that love which is the only

A SONG OF THE DAISY.

Will Carleton, in Every Where for May

O, would that I were yonder thrush,

Mid forest branches swinging, While every dewy leaf would hush,

That cleaves the distance hazy;
'Tis not for me, alas! for I Am nothing but a daisy—
Though throned upon a jaunty stem,
And clasping tight a golden gem,
With star of silver crowning them.

And would that I were vonder oak.

My arms in triumph flinging; Or basking in a cloudless sky,

Mid dreams divinely lazy; Oh, that would be a life! but I Am nothing but a daisy— The humblest of the flowers, alas!

hat trembles when a foot may pass.

And would that I were yonder maid,

That with her laugh is ringing!
And look! for now she wanders nigh
Along the woodland mazy;
She takes me to herself! though 1

Am nothing but a daisy—
A child of nature, void of art,
I play at last an envied part:
This beauty clasps me to her heart!

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunder

tion in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While Rives Janction, she was brought down with hours with little interruption and it seemed factory in results." Trial bottles free at Wise Words.

1 Rome, (Ga.) Tribune. 1

mers of Georgia; it is a year that will be fruitful of much good or much evil

for them. If they do not let themselves be deceived by a delusion as to the condition of affairs and the final with the most gratifying accomplish-

The past few years, with the scarciclusion of provision crops, and that the fat smokehouses and cotton as a sur-farm supplies in this section was some-

Suppose they had planted the usual

all cotton crop last year; they would not have had any money to buy pro-

Let them repeat the experiment; it is one that cannot be repeated too often for the good of the country. Fe-cause there is an organized movement

to reduce the cotton acreage this year,

ter would have been the result.

This is a crucial year with the far spectre white amid the grass,

Whose fairy feet are bringing A precious form adown the glade

With vines about me clinging, Or with the storm's undreaded stroke,

And listen to my singing! Or would I were an eagle high,

to the heaven of eternity.

earth is.

one need not despise the other.

TER.

Legend of Absorbing Interest-Tragic Death of the Idol of the Tribe a raving maniac and his moanful Spirit Still Wandering up and Down the Earth-the Father's Curse.

[Written for the GOLD LEAF.]

About three-fourths of a mile from the quaint little village of Kittrell, the different tribes returned to their two noted ledges of crystal quartz, villages with mournful hearts and which run East and West through this down cast heads. are both from God, though, and the section, come together and reach, or cross, Baffalo Creek. Between these ledges runs a beautiful, limped stream carried before the aged and griefgood will toward every race, dusky or of diminutive proportions, which flows from a bold spring some two hundred system of religion, because it is a factor yards above. It is a lovely little valley, shaded by immense oaks, poplars, and other large trees, while the glittering of the sun on the ledges of clear, white crystal gives it more the appearance of the artistic works of man than of nature.

Tradition says that years and years ago, before the little stream had worn its way through the converging ledges, sacrifice; He was the friend of the there was a beautiful little lake here, which was surrounded by an Indian village where most of the symmetrical arrow-heads made from this crystal quartz were manufactured. There not die but simply departed that He seems to be sufficient grounds for this might prepare a place for us in Heavassertion, as the large piles of chippings en which is far more real than the round about testify. Here the old Indian arrow-maker fashioned out those pretty crystal arrow-heads that high aspirations, for they are close at are found only in the section around Kittrell. .

hand, India, Persia, Arabia, China It was here the scenes of the sad story I am about to relate were enacted, and I will give them as they were They have been travelling our way for related to me many years ago by an TORN TO PIECES BY A MAD DOG. a thousand years. By and by we aged citizen, who said they had been shall all be one in essential belief, but the first settlers occupied this country. dogmatic denunciation and draw all Said the old man, in speaking of the lake that covered the little valley:

test of character and that brotherly "Many, many years ago it was kindness and charity which render i surrounded by an Indian village, the but a step from the millenium of earth inhabitants of which almost worshiped the lake, upon whose limpid bosom they would row their birch-bark canoes while they sang their quaint Indian ditties when they met to celebrate the autumn harvest, or the return from a successful hunt. "The most prominent among the villagers was the old arrow-maker, whose reputation for shaping symmetrical arrow-heads was unequaled in the land. It was said that this reputation was owing chiefly to the skill of Kinneeta, his only child and daughter. The old man and his adopted son, Wauchula, would fashion out the arrow-heads in the rough, but they were always turned over to the skillful Indian maiden for the finishing touches; and it was said that an arrow-head down the game. "Such was the superstition in regard to them that the braves of this tribe would use no other arrow-heads when they went to battle. Kinneeta was described as a most lovely creature, both in form and character, who was idolized and almost worshiped, not only by her own people, but by the surrounding tribes. She was regarded such and declare that their religion is man, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted false while ours alone is true, or shall to make this extract: "I have no hesitamaker all difficulties that arose among the Indians were carried to her for settlement. Her decisions were never was pastor of the Baptist church, at questioned and always abided by. "Many were the suitors for her Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hand, but she loved only one-her foster brother Wauchula. Together they had been raised; together they had learned to row their birch-bark canoes; together they had always wandered over the hills, chasing the deer and other game; and together they had solemnly resolved to live and

"But the cruel hand of fate had otherwise decreed. Among the many suitors for the lovely maiden's hand was Oskunika, a son of the chief of one of the tribes which inhabited the Lynch Creek section. He adored her and for years had endeavored to gain her love; and when he learned that results, it will prove a year fraught she had resolved to marry his rival he determined that Wauchula should never live to claim her as his bride.

"On the full moon in September, ty of money and the downward course of the cotton market, has convinced when the braves and squaws of the different neighboring tribes were gaththem that there can be no money in ered at the lake to celebrate the nuptials, and Wauchula and Kinneeta, formed. only remedy lies in full corn-cubs and gaily bedecked with wild flowers, were Last year the crop of provisions and secretly hidden behind one of the tunity to send a shaft of death through section. Provisions of all sorts are the heart of the unsuspecting and happy cheaper than ever before while cotton bride groom.

"At last his opportunity came. As the happy pair rowed past he let fly an arrow on its errand of death. But alas! he had not calculated in his fiendish endeavor for Wauchula's motion in rowing the boat, and the shaft, passing him, went through the heart of the beautiful maiden, who fell, with a scream, dead at the feet of her lover.

"It was some moments before the happened. But when the facts did become known such wailing and howling went up as only the Indian is capable of. Never was such consternation known-never was such grief pneumonia, diphtheria, fever and disconsolate bride groom fell speechless Cheek. Christian or pagan, and the theology epidemics is given by Hood's Sarsapa- over the prostrate form of his life-long companion, sister and bride.

"With the fleetness of a deer the cruel murderer had fled, not knowing what his ruthless shaft had done. But with equal fleetness hundreds of braves were soon upon his trail, and before the moon went down, on being told what he had done, he at once became

-Treachery of a Rival Lover-His wailings were heard for miles around. "In the large mound at the junction of Tar River and Lynch's Creek the remains of the Indian idol were laid to rest, with all the customary ceremonies of the Indian burial, and the

> "The remorseful culprit was duly tried, condemned to death, and was stricken arrow-maker to suggest what tortures should be inflicted before death. But waving his hands to the guards, he said: 'Do not kill him, death is no punishment—only a relief. Unbind him and let him go that he may suffer the pangs of remorse the of the county. balance of his days, and may the Great Spirit prolong his days forever.' "And tradition says that he never died, that he still wanders over the hills around Kittrell, and that on the full moon in September, those visiting the spot of the murder, can yet hear his moanful wailings as they reverberate flowers. George had a mission and sible. These were his last words. up and down the little valley.

shaped valley."

said to have been polished by niece over the head, time and again, minutes after the trap fell. Kinneeta. I prize them very highly. until he thought her dead. Life was The neck was not broken and he RELIC HUNTER.

Kittrell, N. C., May 6th, 1895.

handed down from father to son since A Little Child's Awful Fate-The Stubbornness of a Neighbor Re-

mad dog recently, died last Friday.

Chetwood, who lived in the same neighborhood with Mr. Gettys, was he refused and allowed it to run at

On the first day of this month the dog went mad. It went to Mr. Gettys' house where his three children, little Janie, aged six years, her sister aged about ten years, and an infant, were alone. It jumped upon little Janie, dragged her out of the house, and ran to a field nearby where a brooding over the morrow. colored man was plowing and told * * would get her. He rode to the house Great crowds surrounded the jail all portant come fresh with and imand was shot again and killed. ing from her mangled face and throat door with Mr. Robert Page and Dep- dreams pleasant. There will be more and the flesh hanging in strings, uty Brooks on either side. Mill's steps than one heart made glad, for no man crawled from under the house, walked were firm, and but for the fact of can live in the world a single day around to the door and into the house being nearsighted, he showed no evi- without the opportunity of doing good and sat down upon a little box in the dences of faltering. Indeed, never to some one. A cup of cold water, or room. Her nose had been torn off. did a man show more self possession a morsel of tood may be a blessed boon All the flesh on the right side of her and nerve than he did on such an and save some poor fellow mortal from face, and the left eye and left ear occasion. Not a tear dropped from suffering. A little thing! Yes a little were torn off and the flesh on that side his eyes from the time the party en- thing, but the whole of life's duties are of her face was stripped from the bones tered the jail and first caught sight of made up of little things. The great leaving the bones on both sides of her him, until the black cap concealed his things that men perform stand out as face exposed, presenting a horrible face forever from human gaze.

She was conscious and told how the dog had bitten and torn the flesh from her and had never for a moment ceased tearing and biting her until her uncle shot him. As it was thirty minutes from the time the dog dragged her from the house until her uncle rescred her, some idea of the poor little one's horrible suffering can be quietly rowing on the lake, while the gay visitors engaged in the marriage over her, she begged him to be quiet.

When her heart-broken father arrived and caught her to his heart sobbing over her, she begged him to be quiet.

When her heart-broken father arrived and caught her to his heart sobbing over her, she begged him to be quiet. gay visitors engaged in the marriage over her, she begged him to be quiet, quickly mounted the steps leading to to the dame of her and to get quickly mounted the steps leading to together. dance on its banks, Oskunika was to keep the dogs off her and to get thing phenomenal in the history of the crystal boulders awaiting an oppor- days the little innocent lay in agony, in her delirium begging to be saved from the dog until death came to her relief. The poor father, almost crazed, has obeyed his dead child's command. Wherever he goes he carries his gun and shoots every dog he sees. And he is right.

And how must Mr. Chetwood feel? But for his refusal to kill the dog when begged to do so and when common sense and common humanity demanded that he should, this innocent, harmless child would have escaped her fearful death.

Twenty Years a Teacher. CAMPBELLSVILLE, KY .- "I have been teacher for twenty years, and during that time have had repeated attacks of head ache. Now I am entirely free from them

FRIDAY. The Law Avenged for the Brutal and

GEORGE MILLS HANGED IN RALEIGH

Heartless Murder of lana Wimberly -Her Own Uncle the Perpetrator of the Crime-He Meets His Fate With Calm and Resolute Spirit. [Raleigh Evening Visitor, May 3rd.]

Nearly 11 months ago one of the oulest murders ever perpetrated in any community was committed near Apex, niece, paid the penalty of his diaboli-one of the blackest in the history of I leave it all in Thy hands. Sanctify George Mills was an uncle of Iana with the family. He was staying his arms and ankles with black cloth, there in June of last year. On the and Deputy Brooks adjusted the black evening of the 19th, he and Iana cap and the rope. As Mr. Brooks was started for the old Vaughn house a placing the rope over his head, Mills half mile distant to procure some wild asked the Sheriff to be as quick as posthat mission was accomplished. He "But the less superstitious think went to murder Iana. Like a lamb adjusted about his neck, and Sheriff that these sounds are only caused by to the slaughter, she accompanied Page at 11:40 pulled back the lever the blowing of the wind in this peculiar him. Mills at first gave her laudanum, which sent Mills down six feet below on a false pretext. The laudanum did to destruction. Such was the old man's story. I not work fast enough, so a dogwood have some of the pretty arrow-heads stick near by did. Mills beat his own dead at 12:01 p. m., twenty-one girl raised up and clutched the stick, hung limp and motionless after the praying her own uncle not to murder drop and there was no quivering or and yet he came down on her head again and again.

Having done his most brutal and for interment. fiendish work. Mills left her for dead. [Rutherfordton Democrat, April 26th.] He wandered about and got back to Little Janie, the six-year old daugh- Wimberly's at midnight. He told the ter of Mr. Julius Gettys, of Duncan's tale, which the public at large believe imparting the strength and vigor so much Creek, who was so horribly bitten by a the Wimberly family knew too well. The Wimberly's managed to skirmish The full details of this tragedy form around and get a body guard sufficient a most heart-rending story. It to accompany them at daybreak to seems that about a year ago, a dog look for her body. Iana was not dead, belonging to a man by the name of as expected, and lived a week or two. Mills was arrested and at first debitten by a mad dog. His neighbors told of the murder and has stuck to "It might have been." And truly begged Chetwood to kill his dog, but that tale ever stnce. He reiterated it when one pauses for a brief moment to nothing to conceal.

by him.

would get her. He rode to the house of Mr. Plato Gettys and told him. Great crowds surrounded the jail all portant, come fresh with every day. If the morning. The crowd was for the we start out in the morning when the Mr. Gettys got his gun and went as most part the same as that which vigor of a restful sleep makes us strong fast as possible to his brother's and hangs around the court house on court for the work before us, and with deterfound the dog under the house biting weeks. Nothing but morbid curiosity mined zeal engage in the duties of HENDERSON, - N. C. and tearing the child's face. He shot attracted them thither to see a fellow life—no matter what they are, small and wounded it, whereupon it dropped being put to death. It was a sympa- or great—and perform them till the Street. the child, ran from under the house thetic assemblage, and murmurs of evening, we can claim the refreshment "there goes the poor fellow" could be of slumber with a clear conscience, The little child with blood stream- heard as mills walked out of the jail and our sleep will be peaceful and our religious exercises or the reading of The gift of a million dollars to an edthe death warrant, though he had ucational institution is published all quite a serious aspect on his face.

read, Sheriff Page stepped forward to with a sort of sacred reverence, while tell George that the time had come the hundreds of millions given in the for him to carry out the order of the smaller sums are not recorded, save law. Mills stood up at once and was by the invisible hand which is ever escorted out by Mr. Robert Page and writing the good deeds of men. The Mr. C. M. Walters. He taced the im- widow's mite outweighs all the "muni-

Prayer was again offered in behalf of the condemned man. The officiating clergymen then bade Mills good bye, saying at the time a good word for the unhappy man. Sheriff Page asked him did he have any statement to make, Mills replied that he did. Mills asked must he stand up to him "yes" and he arose from his chair. He spoke clearly and slowly. He gestured freely and showed no evidences of fright whatever. In fact, he was probably the least frightened person present. His talk was of a religious nature and he did not refer to Wimberly or the crime for which he was shown. This sudden loss of their idol after using Simmons Liver Regulator. It was more than they could bear. The disconsolate bride groom fell speechless the disconsolate growth g hung. Among other things he said: Creator. I am glad that He has All druggists guarantee Dr. Miles' PAIN | brought me to confess and acknowledge

HE PAID THE PENALTY. my sins. I believe that He has forcommitted. I shall soon appear before 'Him to whom every knee shall bow."

> Mills asked the crowd: "How stands the case with you?" He asked this question several times and said he wanted to impress it on the people. He asked prayer for those who refused to sign his petition for commu-

The Sheriff stepped up to bid George good-bye, but he asked to be allowed to pray. He prayed earnestly and Wake county. To-day George Mills, calmly, speaking every word with ea. the condemned murderer of his own phasis. "Help me to go along through Sarsaparilla the last moments of death. Rememcal crime by forficiting his life on the ber the whole human race. May it be a great year for trusting in Christ." The details of the murder as related He prayed for his father and mother, in both the Wimberly and Mills trials the prisoners in jail and all of his eneare fresh in the minds of the public mies. He asked especially that the and the less said about the commit- sins of his enemies be forgiven. Mills ment of the crimes the better, for it is closed his prayer by saying "Father, and save me forever. Amen." At 11:38 Mills stepped on the trap. Wimberly and lived from time to Deputies Page and Walters pinioned

No time was lost after the rope was

The physician pronounced Mills died from strangulation. The body her, according to his own testimony; perceptible contraction of the muscles. The body was cut down at 12:11, placed in a coffin and taken to Apex

After the grip, diphtheria, pneumonia, scarlet fever, typhoid fever, etc., Hood's Sarsaparilla is of wonderful benefit in Hood's Pills for the liver and bowels act easily yet promptly and effectively.

Duty Unperformed.

[N. Y. Dispatch.] It is said that the saddest word nied committing the crime. Later he that can ever fall from human lips are, vesterday to his brother, saying he had reflect upon those four little words, their importance grows with the re-Mills has stuck to it that he was sub- flection. They outweigh the whole serving the ends of Wimberly and that universe in the weight of their despair. he was forced to commit the crime They outmeasure the whole oceans of all worlds in the tears they wring from

Mills has been holding up under the lost soul. Their cries sound loud the ordeal through which he had to above the din of crashing matter in pass remarkably well. Yesterday he their wail of remorse. "It might have into the yard and under the house, began to weaken and last night gave been!" Oh, the rivers of blood that that had passed through her dexterous undeterred by the child's screams. under completely. He slept little or track these words on the road from hands would scarcely ever fail to bring The older child caught the baby up, none, sitting up most of the while earth to Heaven! The bleeding footprints of earth's weary one! And these words are many times, him that a dog had her little sister Though Mills was greatly overcome ave, in almost every instance, simply under the house "eating her up" The this morning, so much so that he duty unperformed. The hearts of men negro instead of going to rescue the could hardly speak without weeping, are everyday burdened with care, and HENDERSON. . . N. C. child, unhitched the mule, jumped on he was remarkably cool from the time their pathway hedged about because of Office: In Harris' law building near it, took the baby and galloped off he donned his new suit of clothes un- neglect. Morning dawns with the

do the high peaks in the mountain Mills was not visibly affected by the chain, only here and there visible. over the world, and the name of the "liberal" hearted donor is regarded

The duties of life, when faithfully did the ministers also. No others but performed, bring rich rewards of peace WARRANTED. PRICE 50 cts. Sheriff Page and deputies were allowed and contentment to ourselves and benefit to our fellows.

Guar- PIII

NO. 20.

Nervous People should realize that the only true and permanent cure for their condition is to be found in having

Pure Blood

Because the health of every organ and tissue of the body depends upon the purity of the blood. The whoie worl 1 knows the standard blood purifier is

Hood's And therefore it is the only true and reliable medicine for nervous people. It makes the blood pure and healthy, and thus cures nervousness, makes the nerves firm and strong, gives sweet sleep, mental vigor, a good appetite. perfect digestion. It does all this, and cures Scrofula, Eczema, or Salt Rheum and all other blood diseases, because it Makes ure Blood Results prove every word we have said. Thousands of voluntary testi-monials fully establish the fact that

Hood's Sarsaparilla Imm Be Sure

ures to Get Hood's "I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for scrofula and the result is that I am permanently cured." CLAUDE R. DOTSON, Richie C. H., West Virginia. Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, constipa-

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

ATE CONSUMPTIVE

HINDERCORNS. The only sure cure for Corna Stone all pair. ISc. at Druggists, or HISCOX & CO., N. Y.

DR. W. J. JUDD, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON Offers his professional services to the citizens of Henderson and vicinity. W. B. SHAW, Attorney and Counselor at Law

NOTARY PUBLIC AND REAL ESTATE HENDERSON, - N. CAROLINA. Practices in State and Federal Courts.

ATTORNEY AT LAW.

H. BRIDGERS,

DENTIST.

Office over E. G. Davis' store, Main

IS JUST AS COOD FOR ADULTS.

GALATIA, ILLS., Nov. 16, 1221.

Paris Medicine Co., St. Louis, Mo.
Gentlemen:—We sold last year, 600 bottles of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC and have bought three gross aiready this year. In all our experience of it years, in the drug business, have bever sold an article that gave such universal satisfaction as your Tonic. Yours truly, ABNEY CARE & CO.

Sold and guaranteed by PHIL H. THOMAS, druggist.

Nearly Every Fourth Person Has

Are You Heart Disease Free Heart, with color d plates Name this paper. Address

Dr. Miles Medical Co., - Elkhart, Ind. I want every man and woman in the United States interested in the Opium and Whisky habits to have one of my books on these diseases. Address B. M. Woolley, Atlanta, Ga. Box 382, and one will be sent you free.

Barnes' Clothing Store, Henderson, N. C. Mrs. H. D. Church Brookston N. C.

> many rare and beautiful things. And you will wonder, too, how we manage to sell them for so very little.

PIGEON THE GREATEST DISCOVERY OF THE AGE. Sold in Henderson by M. Dorsey, druggist God's way, for God is just as truly in let farmers cut their cloth accord-

H. THOMASOM, General Merchant,

NOT WHAT WE SAY, but what Hood's Sarsaparilla Does, that tells the story of its merit and success. Remember HOOD'S Cures.

