DECORATION DAY. BY BRNEST M'GAFFEY.

Beneath a halcyon sun, The colors of the blue and gray Have blended into one; The bayonets, to plowshares turned, In peaceful sods are thrust, And cannon in the field inurned—

One brotherhood rules all the land, One nation day and night. As side by side again we stand Like those who scale a height— And looking down across the fields When autumn pours her horn. We bless the largess peace now yields,

Their mouths are stopped with rust

No more shall these our banners be In strife fraternal raised, From lake to gulf, from sea to sea, This message far is blazed: We mourn our dead, our loved and lost, With tears for all who fell; The blue sky's depth, the gray stars' host Shall be their sentinel."

For Lexington and Concord town Still in the distance shine, And Washington still marches down, And ruthless Brandywine: And Grant and Lee in silence rest, The cotton and the corn
