Do not continue to spend

The GOLD LEAF stands at the head of SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 Cash.

VOL. XVIII.

HENDERSON, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1899.

NO. 26.

DR. PIERCE'S Favorite PRESCRIPTION

Makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"Dave's Place,"

(Opposite S. A. L. Station)

Restaurant and Lunch Counter. Englished Rooms, Comfortable Reds. Exerything strictly first-class. An orderly, ► SALOON → Equal to any in the State, stocked with nothing but the very Best and Purest FINE CIGARS AND TOBACCOS.

A Great Convenience To the People.

Pool rooms in connection.

I have placed a nice line of samples in office which I can order Suits from ad all wool, and a fit guaranteed. Also a nice line of serges. linen, ducks and bayele suits, cheap. Remember you can get what you want, from the cheapest to Beg. This does not conflict with my secate Tailoring at all. James W. White,

The Up-to-date Tailor. OFFICE over Beacom's store, opposite

In the Spring

You need a Tonic and Invigorforstitution. A good Blood Puri-fer is what you want. To purify and all diseases of the Blood and my marvelous cures effected by use. Write to-day for book of d Laboratory, Kittrell, N. C.

Scrofula, Old Sores, Rheumatism, Eczema, Tetter,

Sold in Henderson by ----The Dorsey Drug Co., Phil H. Thomas, and W. W. Parker.

SENT FREE

to housekeepers

Liebig COMPANY'S Extract of Beef

COOK BOOK --

telling how to prepare many delicate

Address, Liebig Co., P. O. Box 2718, N. Y.

BUY Harrell's

WADE AT SOUTH BOSTON, VA.

SOLD BY D. Y. COOPER, HENDERSON, N. C.

politician is the worst of all.'

you take away the object-lesson.'

NO INTERMARRIAGE.

EX-GOV. NORTHERN TALKS ON THE and the greatest obstacle to his pro-NEGRO PROBLEM.

The Eloquent Georgian Discusses the Toleration and Non-Interference, Between the Races.

Ex-Governor W. J. Northern, of Georgia, made a notable speech in Boston on the evening of May 22nd. He spoke in Tremont Temple before listened to by a large audience. His 50 per cent. subject was "The White Man's View of In thirty years 40 per cent. of tween Tweedledum and Tweedledee. of the Relations of the Negro in the the illiteracy of the colored race had

A press dispatch says the people of Boston showed deep interest in the address which, through lack of time, Gov. Northern was compelled to curtail, though he occupied more than two hours. It was the general verdict that there has never before been heard in Boston such an exhaustive statement of the attitude of the South on the neero question.

While some of Gov. Northern's statements did not meet the approval of an increase of knowledge will enable the audience, his speech as a whole them to better their condition. But This was shown by an expression from the floor, when the speaker was about to close, by a person who moved "that the gentleman be permitted to deliver the whole of his ad dress if it takes all night." The motion was greeted with ap- gard to intermarriage he said: plause and ex-Governor Northern con tinued for another half hour.

south. The South has her ills, her the discretion of the judge. sins and her crimes. What section south has had her sorrows. God much given to the effort at control civilized land. mows they have been grievous and of other men's matters. We are in overnment without sin, a people erfect in law and perfect in its enspectful obeisance and ask to be led ing its session at Birmingham, Ala. said about this doubly horrible outinto its broader civilization and its The negro preacher was discussing rage. better power. Till then, and not till the race problem, and when he reachthose without sin to east the first white people of the South. For the men he would not allow to sleep in but for a day? regroes of that section I cannot his bed. lecline to say that, taken as a mass, I would not exchange them for any have seen in any other parts of the equality is not desired by either race, maintain an ominous and painful inited States without tremendous money boot in the exchange. I am the friend of the negro in my State, beget amalgamation, and amalgama- as it encourages negroes to a repetiand they recognize in me one of their tion would result in miscegenation, tion. It is worse than cruel to the strongest defenders. I am not here and miscegenation would be an open broken-hearted victim and the comto defame them. God forbid! I am violation of the law of God. God munity that has suffered death in its here to speak their worth, when they made one a negro and the other a tenderest relations. deserve it, and to condemn them white man. It is the opinion of the . The policy is unfair, as between when their wickedness so demands.

the South's loyalty to the Union, surely, surely, the South will now be such arms as might be needed.

dollar in our business.

the white man wants.

"Our Legislatures were composed of negroes and carpet-baggers, our laws were made, on the one hand, by those absolutely ignorant to our institutions and our government, and,

BLINDED OPPOSITION TO WHITES.

"Lest I may be misunderstood, I them so to remain. desire to say, with emphasis, that I "Miscegenation by law will never one and fowl of the other. Let it shall not speak to you in any sec- take place in the South. That may be fair and we will sooner be breth- bitterness of a sorrow, a shame, a cause they felt that they led the path tional or partisan spirit. Let us be accepted as an established fact ren. thank God that sectionalism is, or and settled beyond question. Inter- "What was done, under similar With a grandson of Grant on the argued a moment. Unless the South Jersey, Nebraska, Pennsylvania, staff of Lee; with Fighting Joe breaks the record of all history, there Minnesota, Oklahoma, Kansas, Illi-Wheeler, clad in the uniform of an is only one alternative left, and that nois, New York and other States that American soldier, rallying the charge is that the negro must be dependent. have had similar or even less ofunder the floating folds of the Ameri- in a measure at least, upon the white fenses? No State claims greater or giving his life blood to cement into him.

eternal brotherhood a divided nation: with Brumby, carrying amid the shouts of his applauding comrades at the South are in no sense alarmthe flag of the Union first planted in the Philippines; with Hobson, brave problem in righteous settlement for and heroic, a spectacle for God and ooth races if we are left alone. for man, as he stood upon the bridge

"Negroes are employed upon our of the Merrimac, the embodiment of They are used as coachmen, mechanics, and in all trades. They never heard without prejudice and with suffer for lack of work if they want a due consideration for what she may job. We provide for them good schools, that are superintended by the same boards as control the white "After the war the negroes were schools. Their religious training is promptly made citizens. They were carefully guarded by the churches in enfranchised and not only made equal all the denominations. Confidence is with their former masters, but they constantly strengthened, as the newere taught that liberty meant groes are beginning to know the license, and that the domination of white people at the South are their the white man was the one thing for best friends.

them to strive for and attain. The "It is only a very small per cent. people of the South looked not only of negroes that are malicious, crimiupon abandonment by the negroes, nal and mean. The race should not but upon absolute treachery among suffer in reputation because of the her own people. Many men who had bad character of a few. The better been true to their colors during the part of the negroes, and this is by far war, now broken down in fortune and the larger part, are beginning to cowithout hope for the future, believed operate with the white people for bet-they saw political elevation for them- ter conditions.

selves in the use of the negro's vote. "Uniting themselves to the carpet-baggers and scalawags who flocked to the South like vultures over a the press, our colored brethren of the ed to the South like vultures over a dving carcass, they are carrion together, as in all the shame of union leagues and midnight political manifest of the property of the papers of leagues and midnight political manifest of the papers of th rauding they planned for the negroes' this city appeared an account of a here to give you my reasons. Perantagonism toward the white people meeting. I suppose, of colored peo- sonally and officially I have done that has proved the bane of the negro ple, described to be enthusiastic, in everything known to me to suppress and the white man at the South. which it was said, referring to the re- it in my State. But there is an un-Here began the separation between cent lynching in Georgia: The cli- written law, not peculiar to Georgia the negroes and the white people of max of the evening was reached, how- or the South, but dominating condithe South. The breach was widened ever, when Captain Williams and tions in every State, that demands by the appearance of the military all Lieutenant Jackson said that every the quickest execution, in the quickover the South, not only encouraging negro should carry a Winchester and est way, of the fiend who robs a virthe schemes of division and domination concocted in the union leagues. but offering support and defense by

-a human tiend. Kill every white home. on the other, by those who had no man you meet who dares defend the ... I repeat again, mob law is tersympathy with our interests and not women of the South against such rible. You know its blood and iniquitous outrage, and the race prob- slaughter in your own State. Georgia

lem will be settled in the South! "The colored people of New York sachusetts or New York. Until Mas-"Since that day the negro at the South has been determined to oppose met about the same time and banded sachusetts, New York, Illinois, Penneverything politically that he believes | together to invoke the vengeance of sylvania and other States can control God upon Georgia and the South for the wild fury of a mob, let us be done "Upon this subject Prof. H. M. the lynching of Sam Hose, and not with denunciations upon Georgia Browne, a negro and a member of the one word of sympathy for the home when she fails. Georgia and the sugar of life; the one preserves, the other faculty of Hampton Institute, one destroyed, the man murdered, the South ask nothing but to be given the

"WHITE MAN'S VIEW." among the best schools for negroes at the South, says: wife outraged, and the children best schools for negroes at smeared with the blood and brains of and other sections.

.. The greatest enemy to the negro their murdered father. "May I say to my friends, the gress is the politician, and the negro colored people of the North, if they will look after their own business and ... It may be said that in 1860 the attend to the lawlessness that occurs Subject Before a Boston Audience- colored race was totally illiterate, in their own bailiwick, they will pos-Abuse of the South Will Not Settle says Hon. W. T. Harris, United States sibly have quite as much as they can it or Abate Lynching-Pleads for Commissioner of Education. In 1870 profitably manage. I would be glad more than 85 per cent. of the colored to know what they said about the and Declares the Relations Amicable population of the South, ten years of mob of 150 men who strung up Bradage and over, could not read nor lev, near New York, charged with write. In 1880 the percentage of stealing Martin Kelley's pocketbook, illiterates had been reduced to 75 per as reported in the New York World, cent., and in 1899 the illiterates com- April 21st. There it is said that prised about 60 per cent. of the some of the mob wanted to burn colored population ten years of age Bradley, and that women fainted the Congregational Club, and was States the percentage is even below enacted. There is a difference, a and over. In several of the Southern while the deed of horror was being great difference, everyone knows, be-

THE SAMUEL HOSE LYNCHING. disappeared. In education and in-"You need not ask me if I approve dustrial progress this race has acthe horrible enactment that occurred complished more than it could have within forty miles of my home a few achieved in centuries in a different weeks ago-the lynching of Samuel environment, without the aid of the Hose. God forbid that I should. whites. The negro has needed the Do you condemn the burning as example as well as the aid of the strongly as it was condemned through white man. In sections where the the Northern press?' I answer emcolored population is massed and rephatically, just as strongly. Then moved from contact with the whites you approve the course taken by the the progress of the negro has been retarded. He believes in educating lynchings at the South?' Pardon me, his children, because he can see that if, in reply, I say that I condemn the course of the Northern press upon lynchings at the South with all the segregate the colored population and extreme. The relations of the negro to religion and society were next considered by the ex-Governor. In re-"Intermarriage at the South not fiend, Hose? Great scare headsonly makes the union void, but sub- 'Another negro lynched at the South. punishment in the chain gang, the whites toward an unfortunate and poverty, fed him when he was hungry, and the other Southern comme I am not here to apologize for the penitentiary or heavy money fine, in defenseless negro. Inhuman devils furnished him means to accumulate burn a colored man within fifty miles property and money, educated his "If the people of the North see fit of the capital of Georgia and gloat children to prepare them for useful-

"Not one word of sympathy for a through his votes? perfect harmony with the old adage: pure and virtuous woman; her honor "Whenever the South finds an ideal overnment without sin, a people "I heard a very admirable speech presence; she and her little children from a very intelligent negro, before dragged in the fresh, warm blood of orcement, the South will do its re- a Southern Baptist convention, dur- the dying man, and not one word then, we shall stand abreast of all ed this feature of his subject he re- no sympathy except for a negro? as later. What is needed now is, at other sections, claiming as broad a marked that many people seemed No kindly feeling and no tender word least, toleration and non-interference, civilization as any, and challenging afraid the negro would at no distant for the defenseless women of the day demand social equality. He South, who carry with them a living then said there need be no fear on shame, in a living death, in a life all this point, as he knew many white too long for its miseries, if it lasts

"I submit that the policy of the "So we are pretty well agreed on press at the North, in condemning both sides down South that social simply the lynchings, while they and, in my candid judgment, it will silence about the crimes that provoke never obtain. Social equality would them, is incendiary in the extreme, people of the South that He intended lynchings at the North and lynchings woman, outraged, delicate, cultured They fought not from revenge, not at the South, making always flesh of marriage at the South need not be conditions, in Ohio, Oregon, New can flag: with brave young Bagley, man, as he cannot hope to dominate more advanced civilization than New York, and yet, it is only a few years since a wild and frenzied mob cruelly murdered eleven innocent negroes, whose only offense was that they were negroes, then burned the negro orphan asylum over the heads of and misery and loathsome wretchedthree hundred little helpless negro children, simply because they were negroes, and the little ones barely escaped by the back door, while the maddened mob beat down an entrance at the front. Why did not the great State of New York control the mob blow of a fiend buries an axe to the better than Georgia did? "Do you ask me how these lynchings can be stopped at the South? I answer promptly-just as they can be stopped at the North, and in no other way. Stop the outrages and the lynchings will cease. Continue the outrages and the lynchings will always follow, regardless of threats by the law, whether in Georgia, Minnesota, Illinois, Ohio or any other

"Is it forgotten that the people of Massachusetts themselves burned a negro woman at the stake who had been simply suspected and not conhis wife? We can't tell what is going to happen, even in the best regulated wherever a negro was killed their tuous woman of her honor to gratify brethren should go out on the high- his hellish diabolism. Human nature ways and the byways and the first is the same throughout the civilized white man they saw should be shot world, and say what you may, Massachusetts will not be one whit be-. This is one way to settle it, accord- hind Georgia when you make Mrs. ing to the colored people of Boston. Cranford the wife of a farmer in your Not one word about the villainous State and Samuel Hose, a brutal fiend scoundrel who did the double tragedy in human shape, a neighbor near her can no more suppress it than Mas-

GOVERNMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY. "When the Government appoints a minister to Austria and the cablegram comes-persona non grata-the name is recalled and another substituted at Why Austria and not the South? Why dominate the South with an appointee who is persona non grata when Austria can get what she wants? Why dominate a section whose people, or a section, are more thoroughly American than any other section of the continent; a section more devoted to American institutions than any other section as such, because of its more American citizenship; a section that defends the American flag with as loyal hearts, as heroic, daring and as patriotic devotion as ever characterized a libertyloving citizen of the nation? Let the North answer me, why? "Now, then, if the slave trade, the promoter of slavery in America was a sin, whose sin was it? Not the sin of the South, but the sin of England, the Dutch and New England. people, absolutely untaught in the simplest elements of Government, Northern press in the matters of was a mistake, whose mistake, was it? Not the mistake of the South, but the mistake of the North. "If the avenues to division and hate and blood and carnage, outrages vehemence of an offended nature. It and lynchings and violence and mobs is incendiary, unfair and cruel in the have been opened up at the South "Now, hear me! What was the and the politics taught him to pursue are more noticeable among the people policy of the press at the North, with in the destruction of the white man of the South." only two exceptions, so far as I know, were a sin, whose sin was it? Not in the lynching of that villainous the sin of the South, but the sin of tke North.

has not? The South has had and will to differ with us on this point we will over his tortures like demons. Surely ness in life, to whose honor is it but have violent shocks to her civiliza- not have any dispute over the matter, these people have been remanded to the honor of the men who have borne he said: ion. What section has not? The as the people of the South are not barbarism and become savages in a for a generation his burdens while he

"The negro problem at the South will not be settled in a day. Step by step, as it marches into the future of the nation, it must be met by the conditions best suited to the detail of its solution. It will never be settled had as well understand that fact now if the South is to become responsible for results.

"And the good ladies of Boston,

"I read your speeches delivered painful to me when I reached the loathsomeness which I pray God you of duty. may never know. You have not given me one word of tenderness or sympathy to take back to her.

"God pity the day, the cruel day, upon which we have fallen! "At this point I hestitate. My duty to injured innocence demands

"Make the case your own. (Will you pardon me if in this presence I tell a part of this horrible tale of woe ness, that you may, somewhat, understand?) Let it be your daughter, sitting at tea, with her husband and little children, happily enjoying an evening meal. A bloody murderer stealthily approaches and with the him, beats his brains till they spread in sickening horrow over the floor. He raises his devilish hand and strikes a stunning blow upon the face of a little child-your grandchild. Can you imagine? He drags it across the bleeding, dying body of its father, your daughter's husband, and leaves it senseless, its father's blood dripping from its little skirts. See him as he takes another child, your grandchild, by the heels in one hand and his axe in the other, while he demands of the mother her consent or the cruel murder of her child. Be present in your thought at that supreme moment, and hear her saying, Save my child!' See him, then, as he confronts, in all the appalling horror of fiendish glare, with uplifted axe, the trembling form of the wife. her in the warm blood of the only one she had hoped to defend her from such awful, awful, awful cruelty and shame. Hear her piteous cries as she writhes, in the embrace of a villain, and then see her, as she falls at her father's gate-your gate-(can you imagine?) half clad, and in a death swoon, to tell her horrible, sickening, loathsome story (a story I cannot tell here, and which has not vet been told because of its loathsomeness. Hear her tell it into her loving mother's ear, and tell me, would you feel that the punishment of the nethermost hell, whether administered here or hereafter was too much for such a human fiend? What would you do? What would your neighbors do? What would a mob in Massachusetts do? I am not asking what ought to have been done. As to that, you and I are fully agreed." Ex-Governor Northern closed by pleading for better understanding between the North and South. Discretion is the salt and fancy the weetens it .- Bovee.

FIGHTING JOE WHEELER

SPEECH

Delivered at Charleston During the Confederate Veterans' Reunionthe Armies of the South Laid Down Their Arms but Not Their Belief in the Truth and Justice of Their Fast Passing Away.

"The history of our country, when heart. Defeat but exasperates, adding desperation to vigor and energy to battle. determined resolve.

"It was the teaching of fathers and mothers who fled from the oppression of caste and class, braved the unfathomed ocean and landed upon these shores, confronted by wild "If the conferring of citizenship beasts and savage Indians that the and the battlot upon four millions of highest honor and greatest privilege was to fight for country, its safety no power in our grasp could have

"If the people in the North excel in some qualities, it is also true that those of the South excel in others. It has been said that tenacity of purpose, thrift and perseverance predominated in the Northern character. This may probably be so, but it is through the ballot given to the negro also true that other characteristics

Gen. Wheeler declared that the military history of the Southern peotke North.

"If the people in the South sheltered the negro in his absolute."

"If the people in the South ple has been a prominent feature in history from the first settlement of proposition is to admit that our for sale by all Druggists.—Price 50c, per bottle. Gov. Northern spoke in part as fol- jects the officiating elergyman to Fiendish brutality on the part of the sheltered the negro in his absolute this country. He cited Washington system of Government is lacking in Andrew Jackson and the other heroes sess. In one year we have risen to gave marked ingratitude in return during four years of bloody warfare dazzled the world with the splendor annually to renew the friendship. which formed among such scenes i the warmest and most enduring. No by abuse of the South, and the North led by Alexander, Hannibal, Charlemagne or Napoleon, for your achievements excelled all theirs.

"In the greatest battles of the Civil war you contended with men of endurance, fortitude and courage, men with the same birthright of freedom, imbued with the same spirit of lib-God knows I would not offend one of crty, men who were as conscientiousthem for the world, refined, cultured, ly contending for what they deemed pure as the driven snow, the em- the right of the Federal Government, bodiment of all that is lovely and as you for what you just as firmly held to be your rights. "While our Civil war I may truthlast Saturday. I agree fully with all fully assert, was the most sanguinary you say about the horrible barbarism recorded in history, it was also the of lynching. Say more on that line most remarkable as in there was no and I will say 'Amen.' But, oh, how element of personal hostility, and the soldiers as individuals, could not in end! All your sympathy for a human | the nature of things, have entertained devil, and not one word for the feelings of hatred for each other. and pure, sitting to-day in the from malice, not from desire to shed shadow of your burning words in the | blood, not from ambition, simply be-

"It was a war fought to settle questions that for more than half a century had been matters of the most earnest, and I might say bitter contentions, increasing in intensity until an appeal to the God of Battles was rendered inevitable so that no arbitrament save that of the sword was possible. When the South yielded, it was to numbers, battalions, artillery, to the unlimited resources of the Federal Government. "The armies of the South laid down their arms, but not one iota of their belief in the truth and justice of their cause did they surrender. With energy and determination they met "Above the carnage, above the wail of widows and the cry of orphans, above the desolated homes. above the fields overgrown with new forests, there arose a new civilization and a new union, one niche in whose temple holds a figure whose name shall be honored throughout the ages. Lee, whose matchless skill, whose soldierly spirit, whose wonderful endurance, was only equalled by the fiat of war lived out to its full close, the noblest life recorded in all history for the admiration of posterity. "As between the soldiers on either ide, there was no real enmity. Mutual admiration for each other' prowess is the sentiment of all brave naturally increases. "The lifetime of a generation has softened the memories of that conflict, and side by side, but North and South have stood together in battle against a foreign foe. "We meet here to cherish and intensify the memory of the great struggle in which you were actors. Your devotion to duty, your courage in battle and your unmurmuring endurance, was your heritage from your ancestors." Gen. Wheeler touched upon the question of expansion be declaring that Southern soldiers and Southern statesmen had ever taken a promito the enlargement of our territory. "History for all time," he said. will record that it was under Southern presidents that we have wrested from the wild Indians the greater part of the 822,388 square miles. which lay between our thin lines of settlement on the ocean and the Mississippi river; and under Southern this domain an area nine times as Dorsey Drug Co's. great as the present area of the original thirteen States.

were being had, and our dominions were being enlarged, adding the glory of the country, chiefly through the influence of the Southern element most bitter opposition was developed in other parts of the Union.

While the various negotiations

"It is a matter of which the Southern people may well take pride, that during all the great progress and ad-HIS ELOQUENT AND PATRIOTIC vancement of our country, including the armed contest of last year, and which I am glad to say now appears to be happily ended, no section of our land has been more devoted to the cause of our country and to upholding its honor and prestige than the people of the Southern States.

"Those upon whom rests the cares, Cause-Battle Scarred Veterans are duties and burdens of government have encountered no embarassment or complaints or criticism from Southern States. None of their brave compared with that of all the eras volunteer regiments have asked to be that have preceded us, shows that released of active duty and when the our civilization has produced the request has come from Governors of highest class of men and the noblest other commonwealths, volunteers type of soldiers. The very idea of from the Southern States have liberty nerves the soul and fires the promptly begged for the honor of California Fig Syrup Co., illustrate filling their places in the front of the value of obtaining the liquid laxa-

"The position in which the American people find themselves to-day was not sought by them, but is the logical result of conditions thrust upon the country by a course of dispelling colds, headaches and fevers events beyond our control. If it be gently yet promptly and enabling one said they were foreseen and predicted, it must also be admitted that no power in our grasp could have stance, and its acting on the kidneys, stayed the tide, and now we stand liver and bowels, without weakening before the gaze of civilization confront or irritating them, make it the idea ed by grave responsibilities. The su- laxative. preme test of the American institutions is involved, and the American system of Government is on trial. "It is said by some that while England, Holland, France and other known to the California Fig Syrup nations may extend a protecting hand Co. only. In order to get its beneficial to peoples and lands separated from effects and to avoid imitations, please the home country benefiting both the protector and the protected, that we shall be utterly unable to accomof the Revolution, Winfield Scott and every sovereign power should pos-

of the war with Mexico, and then first place in the family of nations: passing to the war between the States to make the smallest retrograde step. A strong line of both Life and Fire Com would be at the expense of the panies represented. Policies issued and "The battle-scarred veterans, who prestige we have won. To return to risks placed to best advantage. the starting point of a year ago, would be to lose what it would take a of their heroism are fast passing century to regain. In answer to away. The few who remain gather those who say that the policy of our forefathers forbade the extension of Fire, Life and Accident Insurance, territory, I would point to Jefferson and the Louisana purchase, Monroe greater heroes were in the legions and Florida, Polk and Texas, and the Office in Cooper Opera House Building, vast territory acquired from Mexico, and later to Andrew Johnson and the acquisition of Alaska. "If there be any who contend that .. we should not permit the Island of Cuba to become a part of the United States, and its people if they desire it, to enjoy all the rights of American citizenship, I have only to point to the official declarations of our great statesmen commencing with Thomas Jefferson and running through almost the entire period of the first half of this century. During all that period our honored statesmen and Presidents from Jefferson to Buchanan laid down in their message and state documents the imperative necessity of making the Pearl of the charge for examination. Antilles a part of the United States." In concluding his address Gen. Wheeler paid an eloquent tribute to the women of the South and the part they bore in the war and the dark years that followed, saying: "Although some of those blessed women are still with us, many more street. have long since gone to their reward, but they have rocked in cradles, the principles, minds and characters which are to control the future of their beloved land. The thought which I wish to impress upon the minds of the generation to whom we must soon intrust a sacred charge, for the Confe lerate soldier's race is nearly run, and the injuction which I would leave with your sons and daughters-for the daughters have the pobler part, and I know they will faithfully perform it-is this: "See to it that the women of the Confederacy have, in their posterity, the new problems confronting them. a monument more lasting than any that could be built of stone."

DEWEY DINNERISIS.

[Geo. V. Hobart, in Batimore American.

See, de conkwearing hero comes Gawge, is yo' hongry? Beat dem li'l kettle drums, Gawge, is yo' hongry? All de tables laid au' set, Been so long sence yo' done et Dat mos' likely yo' fo'get— Gawge, is yo' hongry? Smell dat precious chicken stew Gawge, is yo' hongry? Cookin' ev'rything fo' yo'-Gawge, is yo' hongry?' Roas' beef restin' in de pan, 'Taters soaking in de can— All yo' appetite can stan'-Gawge, is you' hongry?

Oven full of biscuits hot, Gawge, is yo' hongry? Soup a bilin' in de pot, Gawge, is yo' hongry? Li'l clams from Oyster Cove T-a and coffee on de stove-When yo' 'spec' dat yo'l arrove?

'ustards dat will tempt vo' eve Gawge, is yo' hongry? Had no vittles fo' a year 'An' yo' stummick's empty clear From vo' gizzard to vo' ear-Gawge, is yo' hongry?

No Right to Ugliness. The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her nent part in all movements looking health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, right complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of presidents that we have added to a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at the Truth crushed to earth will rise again, 'Tis well that this is so. For otherwise truth would have been Stamped out long, long ago.

THE BEST should be your aim when buying medicine. Get Hood's Sarsaparilla and have the best medicine MONEY CAN BUY.

An Excellent Combination

tive principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually,

In the process of manufacturing figs taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package. CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

Henry Perry, -Insurance.

Hunter & Coleman, Real Estate, Etc.

HENDERSON, N. C.

II. SKIDGERS,

ATTORNEY AT LAW, HENDERSON, . . N. C Office: in Harris' law building near

FRANCIS A. MACON, Dental Surgeon,

Parlors in Parker building, oppo site Dorsey's drug store. Office hours 9 A. M. to 1 P. M. 3 to 6 P. M. & sidence Phone 88; office Phone 25. Estimates furnished when deired. No

DR. F. S. HARRIS,

DENTIST.

HENDERSON. - - N. C. 1-9" Office over E. G. Davis' store, Main

The above figures tall a remarkable story; they rear nt almost exactly the per continuous of cures

RHEUMACIDE two per cent, were not curable, or failed to take medicine according to directions. Thousands have been cured. In view of the fact that many physicians think theumatism is incurable, and that most remedies fail, it must be true that must be true MACIDE is the greatest medical discovery of the age, Particulars and testimonials of many well known people free to all applicants MANUFACTURED BY THE BOBBITT DRUG COMPANY,

Raleigh, N. C. Sold by Druggists generally at $1.00

Dr. Humphreys'

Specifics act directly upon the disease without exciting disorder in other parts of the system. They Cure the Sick. CURES.

1-Fevers, Congestions, Inflammations. .25 2-Worms, Worm Fever, Worm Colic25 3-Teething, Colic, Crying, Wakefulness .25 4-Diarrhea, of Children or Adults25 7-Coughe, Colds, Bronchitis 5-Acuralgia, Toothache, Faceache.25 9-Headache, Sick Headache, Vertigo . . . 25 10-Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weak Stomach, 25

11-Suppressed or Painful Periods25 12-Whites, Too Profuse Periods. 13-Croup, Laryngitte, Boarseness 14-Salt Rheum, Erystpelas, Eruptions . .25 15-Rheumatism, Rheumatic Palna..... .25 16-Malaria, Chills, Fever and Ague25 19-Catarrh, Influenza, Cold in the Head .25 20-Whooping-Cough

27-Kidney Diseases 28-Nervous Debility. 30-Urinary Weakness, Wetting Bed. . . 25

77-Grip, Hay Fever ...

Dr. Humphreys' Manual of all Diseases at your Druggists or Mailed Free. Sold by druggists, or sent on receipt of price. Humphreys' Med. Co., Cor. William & John Me., New York.