

THE GOLD LEAF.

ESTABLISHED 1831.

THAD R. MANNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: One copy one year, $1.75; 6 months, $1.00; 3 months, $0.50.

We desire a live agent and correspondent at every postoffice in Vance and adjoining counties. Correspondence on all subjects of local and general interest and opinions upon matters of public concern, are invited.

THURSDAY, DEC. 14, 1899.

VOLUME NINETEEN.

The GOLD LEAF this week enters upon another volume.

Eighteen years ago the first copy of the paper was given to the public. The present publisher then stood sponsor for it and he has been at the helm ever since.

We shall endeavor to improve upon the past and make the GOLD LEAF better at every point as we may have the strength and means to do so.

Further than this we have no promises to make feeling that it is not necessary to do so.

The conduct and character of the paper during all these years should be some guarantee of what its future will be.

Our lines have fallen in pleasant places. We thank the public for the kind consideration and liberal patronage given us; and to our brethren of the press we are deeply grateful for the courtesy, kindness and encouragement we have received from them at all times.

To me and all we extend the compliments of the season and offer assurances of our "most distinguished consideration."

To a man who has had three mothers-in-law the bluff put up by Congress would seem a tame affair to Mr. Roberts but for the salary that goes along with the seat.

AGUINALDO persistently refuses to stay in one place long enough to be captured, although Mr. McKinley's message was withheld a whole day in hope of being able to add a postscript about something to this effect.

The advertising columns of the GOLD LEAF will be found a helpful guide to holiday shoppers. You will find a diversity of lines and a variety of assortments represented from which you cannot fail to make a suitable selection.

Old Santa Claus can find plenty of things for Christmas presents for old and young in the Henderson stores. Our merchants have large, attractive and appropriate stocks of holiday goods. As to who these consult our advertising columns.

PERHAPS no better time to pay your subscription will ever present itself than the present—if you are in arrears. To ascertain this look at the date on your address label. The figures denote the time to which the subscription is paid, or when it started.

The wide-awake merchant is constantly on the lookout for bargains. The people are also on the lookout for bargains, and the merchant who can offer inducements is the one who can sell the goods, provided he lets the people know what bargains he has. To tell the people so in the newspaper is the best and cheapest way.

The face of our erstwhile familiar but some time absent friend the Congressional Record greets us again. Some thoughtful friend doubtless knowing the value placed upon said publication in all country newspaper offices as covering for single wrapper packages and kindling purposes kindly sends it to us regularly since Congress met. Thanks, this will materially reduce the expense for wrapping paper and coal oil while the cinch lasts.

We know it is not the popular thing to say but the GOLD LEAF thinks Congressman Roberts should have been seated. Then investigate his case and if he is not guilty as charged or if he is act or crime that would render him unworthy to sit as member of that body expel him. We honor Congressman Kitchin for not being influenced by the noisy clamor against Roberts. He voted to seat him and is now ready to vote to unseat him if the facts shall warrant it after investigation into the matter has been made.

B. B. B. FOR BAD BLOOD. Bottle Sent Free to Gold Leaf Readers.

Eating Sores, Tumors, Ulcers, Cancers, are all cured by B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) which is made especially to cure all deep-seated, obstinate Blood Diseases.

THE SENATORIAL QUESTION. It is generally understood that newspapers in publishing letters of their correspondents do not necessarily endorse the views therein expressed; but when they discuss questions of great interest and of personal concern, many overlook this fact.

It is for this reason that we now allude to the communication of our valued friend and correspondent Mr. A. Hatchett in last week's issue. We made no reference to it then but do not wish to be understood as endorsing the writing up of senatorial candidates or even about them at this time.

It is generally understood that the one great fight in North Carolina at this time is for "White Supremacy." The Amendment must be carried. While the Amendment will be carried by a large majority, so great is the issue and so far reaching the effect, no effort must be spared and no other issue must be allowed to come in and in any way interfere with the concentration of the efforts of every white man to this end.

This is well recognized and accepted by the party, and every prominent senatorial candidate, as we understand it, has signified his intention of holding off from the fight now and his desire that his friends do likewise and restrain their zeal. There is no intention or attempt to take the settlement of the question from the people or to in any wise sidetrack any candidate.

The merits and claims of each of the distinguished gentlemen named for this high honor are of such a character that they can well afford to wait until the Amendment is carried to have the question settled; and it is certain that any candidate pressing his claims now only hurts rather than helps his chances, while if his friends will not heed his advice and patiently wait, he may well exclaim "deliver me from my friends."

While this paper may have its preference in this matter, we will be content not to express it now, nor will we allow our columns to be used for this purpose until the proper time shall arise.

Since writing the above we see that the Democratic State Executive Committee in their meeting at Raleigh on the 11th have referred this question to the people that they may take such action as they see fit through their State Convention about the matter. It seems to be understood that the people in the different counties will decide in their conventions what course they will pursue and that all agitation will cease until after the August election. We say well done.

THE EMPIRE OF THE SOUTH. This is the very appropriate title of a valuable work which has recently been published by the Southern Railway Company, in the interest of the Southern States, and of which the Manufacturers' Record says this: Its contents illustrate Southern progress from a manufacturing, commercial and agricultural standpoint in a manner which shows that the "empire" may be fittingly applied to this instance. It is a book which is worthy of a place in the most carefully selected library, for it contains data which can be found in no other volume. The mass of statistical and other information represents much time and a really vast amount of labor. The illustrations, which are numerous, are extremely artistic and varied in character. In themselves they tell a story of Southern progress and development. The South is greatly indebted to the Southern Railway Co. for preparing such a work, which has involved a great expense, as it will advertise this section of the country not only in the United States, but abroad.

TALK UP YOUR TOWN.

As an exchange aptly says every man ought to show some ambition for and pride in the prosperity and well being of the town and community in which he lives.

To be sure there is scarcely to be found a town against which there can be no criticism, but it should be the duty of every person, if interested in the growth and welfare of the town, to show it and express it as often as opportunity presents itself.

It is wrong to wilfully misrepresent anything and no one should be commended for overrating his town or community for the purpose of deceiving some other person. But it becomes every good citizen, who lives in a good community, to feel a pride in that community and to exhibit such feeling—give expression to it.

Nothing makes a town more attractive to a stranger, for instance, than to hear every person living in that town saying something pleasant about its people and its interests.

One of the best ways in which to make a town attractive, with that sort of attraction that will draw other people to it, is for every man and every woman to have something good to say about the people and town generally.

Talk up your town if you would have it do well. Talk up your town if you would have others come to you. Talk up your town as if you were interested in it, and would have its people feel as you do.

There is no other way to do it. Many a time one little word of unpleasant reference to something that may not exactly suit you or particularly concern you, as to that matter, will turn a good man's influence away from your town and will even drive him away.

Then at your fireside talk up your town. Among your neighbors talk up your town and plan for its improvement. When you come in contact with strangers talk up your town, and let the world know that you think your town is the town par excellence of all towns.

The great Modder River fight, where blood flowed like the waters of the stream and death sat on its reedy banks, again reminds proud England of its mighty lion's mane.

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

Twenty-five Years' Constant Use Without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack.

Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack.

It is used in many thousands of homes of homes of children, and never fails to learn the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual.

No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by The Dorsey Drug Co.

Tickets on sale for the Christmas holidays by the Seaboard Air Line, December 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, also December 30th and 31st, and January 1st, 1900, good until January 14th, inclusive.

A Gift to Give. It is often difficult to decide what to get your friends for holiday gifts. Here is a suggestion:

"Good morning, Jennie I have bought you a nice present," said Gertrude, as she handed her friend a neatly wrapped package.

"The pale, weary looking girl, who was slowly recovering from severe illness, opened the handle and held up a large bottle of clear, rich medicine.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla," she exclaimed. "I have been reading about it today and wished I had a bottle."

"On New Year's Day I am very able to be out on the street, and to my friends who remarked how well she was looking she simply said, 'Hood's Sarsaparilla,' and every one of them knew it was this great medicine that had given back her health."

THE GRADED SCHOOL. Prof. Alderman gives a few interesting items about the institution of which we are all so proud.

EDITOR GOLD LEAF:—The good people of Henderson have shown such an interest in the graded school, and are so interested in some items from the work.

We opened on the 30th of October with about 265 pupils present. During the first month we enrolled 140 males, and 157 females, making a total of 297. The number in each grade was: First grade, 62; second 59; third 42; fourth 35; fifth 44; sixth 26; and seventh and eighth combined 31.

Notwithstanding the prevalence of measles and other contagious troubles, the average daily attendance for the first month was 240.

We undertook to make the vaccination list complete. Dr. F. R. Harris and Dr. Goodie (theatham) examined and we recorded all successful vaccinations in a book kept for the purpose. The vaccination list is nearly complete and we hope all will comply so that they may not be under the necessity of being vaccinated hereafter.

Dr. Harris and all the other physicians in town have been very kind in helping the superintendent look after the health regulations. There are very few in school now who have not had measles. Let the children return to school as soon as they may safely do so.

We appreciate the friendly visits of parents and those interested in the schools, and we hope they will feel free to come at any time.

Several members of School Board have shown their appreciation by their visits to the school. Mr. W. E. Gary always brings sunshine and a pleasant word for the teachers. Such visits are reassuring and helpful to the anxious teacher.

The public will never know to what extent they are indebted to Mr. J. L. Curran for his untiring zeal in behalf of the school. The midnight hour often finds him with tools and workmen hard at work arranging for the comfort of the pupils and teachers.

The school is running smoothly. The teachers are enthusiastic and faithful. Let the rail road to them and give them hearty support. They are human and need encouragement and kind words with hearts overflowing with anxiety and hope for the best interest of the children. No teachers have ever been more devoted and faithful.

The pupils are given to their department. They yield readily to the school regulations and show a pride in their work. We are striving to encourage a kind emulation among the children and earnestly hope this may find a cheerful response in the hearts of the people.

Our Normal Class meets every Wednesday at 3 P. M. in the office, and remains one hour. We are now studying Hodge's Mistakes in Teaching. All white teachers and those preparing to teach or interested in teaching are invited to meet with us and join the class free of cost.

J. T. ALDERMAN, Superintendent, Dec. 12, 1899.

WHY STOP AT ROBERTS?
