MARCH INTO BLOE S FON TEIN. His Success in Handling the Civil Problems of the City and the Manifest Equanimity With Which the Residents of the Crp'til of the Orange Free State Accept the Pritish Occupation E lipse in Interest the Military Nitu tion. London, March 16.-Lord Roberts success in handling the civil problems at Bloemfontein and the manifest equanimity with which the residents of the capital of the Grange Free State accept the British occupation momentarily eclipses in interest the military situation. It is believed here that the commander-in-chief of the British forces in South Africa will soon push on to Pretoria, but Great Britain is quite content to listen to a few days to the acclamations of the reople of Bloemfontein and permit the troops to enjoy a few days' test before expecting further success. Lord Roberts made a quaint speech to the Guards at Bloemfontein to-day when, in his first congratulatory words he expressed pride in their splendid march of thirty-eight miles in twenty-eight hours and gave ample assurance of his ultimate design. "Through a small mistake," said Lord Roberts, "I have not been able to march into Bloemfontein at the head of the origade, as I intended. I promise you, however, that I will lead you into Pretoria "

General Gatacre is holding Bethulie. and the whole line of the railroad south reached the outside world from Mafeking, dated Friday, March 9th, showing own resources, and working up the straits they were luoyed up by the knowledge that their plucky fight was appreciated at home. General Roberts reports that he found seven British officers and forty-three men wounded in the hospital at Bloemfontein and that they had been well wounded by telling them they will be allowed to proceed to their homes, instead of being made prisoners, as soon as they can leave the hospital." SEABOARD'S NORTHERN LINE. The Rumor That it Will Connect With

B. and O. Revived. The Baltimore Sun revives the rumor that the Baltimore & Ohio is to handle the Seaboard Air Line's business North from Washington, and the Seaboard will take charge of the Baltimore & Ohio's Southern freight from Washington. The story has been several times printed. Each time it has been denied. But it has not been denied since it became practically assured that the Seaboard would have its own tracks into Washington and would not have to enter that cffv over the tracks of the Pennsylvania. The Sun says: "The gap between Washington and Richmond filled in would remove the physical barrier for an alliance with the Baltimore & Ohio. Up to the present nothing has appeared to show that a contract has been signed between the Seaboard Air Line and the Baltimore & Ohio. Baltimore & Ohio officials are especially well posted about the affairs of the Seaboard, and there has been some quiet investigation and figuring going on about handling trains between Washington and New York for this new line to the South. One official when asked about the possibilities of an alliance, sententiously replied: 'I haven't seen the plans for a bridge across the Potomac as yet.' It would not take long to get at these plans, as the engineering department of the Baltimore & Ohio is thoroughly informed on the situation.

"In straightening out the legal attacks which the opponents of the Seaboard combination have sprung, the law firm of Cowen, Cross & Bond is of Bloemfontein is now in the hands of conspicuous.
