> Portsmouth, Va., July 17 .- At 6 o'clock this afternoon, at Trinity church, Miss Willie Herbert Ashton, of Portsmouth, Va., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Whitcomb Ashton, was married to Mr. Charles Turner Williams, of the Scaboard Air Line Railway. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Arthur Conover Thompson, rector of the parish.

Long before the hour named the church was crowded to the doors with friends of the bride and groom, not only friends from Portsmouth and Norfolk, but from many places in and outside of the State, also. The floral decorations were dainty and artistic, and the arrival of the wedding party was prompt. The wedding march of Mendelssohn was rendered with fine skill and feeling by Prof. George W. Scott. The bride, on the arm of her father, was met at the altar by the groom, accompanied by his best man, Dr. Pierce M. Butler, of Atlanta. The maid of honor was Miss Clara M. Ashton, cousin of the bride. Grouped about these were the ushers, Mr. John Ashton, brother of the
