Mr. Willard Smoot and his sister Miss Willard Smoot, of Richmond, spent over in Henderson, making Mr. and Mrs. Starbuck and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lewis. They were returning from Durham where they went to attend the marriage of their brother Mr. Otis Smoot and Miss Ethel Roberts Tuesday.

Henderson gives cordial welcome to her honored guests the ministers and laymen who are here attending the very Presbytery this week. We trust they are as glad to be here as we are to have them and that their impressions of the place and people will be so favorable that they will wish to come again.

The Ladies' Mission Union of the Presbyterian church met here this week, holding their services in the Sunday school room of the Methodist Protestant church. The papers and address yesterday morning were very fine, while the services throughout have been exceedingly edifying and enjoyable. A fuller report will be given next week.

Evidently our good friends in the Epsom neighborhood were not satisfied with the last census returns and are determined to make a better showing next time. Our bright young correspondent at Epsom says there are almost as many April babies in and around there as there are hills of corn planted. Then the GOLD LEAF advises that the 'hog and hominy' acreage be increased.

Blushing with newness is the exquisite line of ladies' dress goods and trimmings, furnishings, etc., at Samuel Watkins'. The fresh spring products represent all the latest fashions and fabrics and a suggestion of sunshine mingled with the tints of the sky and the hue of the flowers woven in to make them bright and beautiful as becoming the latest creature whose persons they are to adorn. See them and you will admire them.

Mr. H. Nutrizio is not only a good shoe merchant but a handy man with carpenter's tools or painter's brush. His sign of the Big Shoe attests his skill with the former and the colored signs stand in front of his store as evidence of the latter. The latter is better. One of them reads as follows: "The best thing for the stomach is nutritious food. The best thing for the feet is Nutrizio's shoes."

Fire Sunday Night. Mr. J. P. Taylor's stables and barn caught fire from some cause early Sunday night and but for the prompt arrival of the hose companies the building would have been a total loss. The horses and cows were removed and the loss beside damages to the building was about one ton of hay, a small quantity of oats and other feed-stuffs. The flames were extinguished before the house was burned down but not before considerable damage was inflicted. Mr. Taylor estimates his loss at something like $150. The fire is believed to have been accidental.

Bites of insects, reptiles, dogs and cats, and the stings of bees, etc., should be instantly treated with Pain-Killer, the quickest and surest remedy for pains, aches and soreness of any kind. There are chatworth prints, amaranths, percales, vicuna cloth, silk taffets, covert cloths, organza, lawns, batistes, nainsooks, pliques, ducks, white goods, etc., in large variety and exquisite patterns. All at 12d and under.

All woolen goods are being sold at coat to keep from carrying over such stock and make room for more seasonable stuffs. Your chance to get bargains in these lines.

Given Up to Die With Croup. Mrs. P. L. Cordier, of Mannington, Ky., writes: "My child had a case of croup. The doctor said she could not live and I gave her up to die. I went to Melville Dorsey and bought a bottle of his Honey and Tar, the first dose gave quick relief and saved her life." For sale by Melville Dorsey.

Albemarle Presbytery. The twenty-fourth session of Albemarle Presbytery convened in the Henderson Presbyterian church at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, Rev. E. W. Farris, of Goldsboro, moderator. After the roll call Rev. J. N. H. Somerville, of Washington, was elected moderator, and business was regularly proceeded with.

Some very able men, ministers and laymen are to be seen and while the delegation is not altogether as full as had been expected, what is lacking in numbers is made up in ability and zeal and altogether it is a fine body, distinguished looking and—handsome. A more extended account of the proceedings will be given next week.

STOP THE COUGH And work off the cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25c. each.

Says Advertising Paid Him. Some weeks ago Mr. L. G. Twisdale, proprietor of the Oakland Dairy Farm, put a small advertisement in the GOLD LEAF stating his butter was sold by Davis & Ross. He tells us he finds it paid him as he finds ready sale for all he can furnish. Mr. Twisdale's butter is a strictly first-class article, cleanly handled and nicely put up, for which a demand was easily created, such attention was called to it. This he did by advertising. A thing may be ever so good and meritorious but if nobody knows of it only by chance sales will be slow and creating a demand greatly retarded if achieved at all. It pays to advertise anything that people buy.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson.

LEADS ALL OTHERS. The Gratifying Record of a North Carolina Company.

There is published elsewhere an article of special interest to cotton ginners and cotton planters to which the GOLD LEAF has pleasure in directing public attention. Reference is had to the announcement of the Liddell Company, of Charlotte, the largest cotton press builders in the world, and what is said about the value of improved methods of cleaning and handling cotton, the great staple money crop of the South.

But it is not alone cotton gins, presses, elevators and the like that they make. They build engines, boilers, saw mills, pulleys, shafting, etc.—more of them perhaps than at any other factory in the South. The Liddell Company is one of the oldest and best known concerns in the State, thoroughly reliable and asking patronage on merit alone, and what they say or do can be relied on.

Read carefully their statement and the testimonials offered in support of the claims made for the superiority of their machinery.

If troubled by weak digestion, loss of appetite, or constipation, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Every box warranted. For sale by Melville Dorsey, druggist.

Special Notice. B. S. Campbell, the Norfolk photographer, is still with us and as he is very anxious for you to see his pictures his agent will call on you within the next few days and show you specimens and also explain to you how each player can secure $5.00 worth of first-class photographs for $3.25. Give him a hearing even if you do not want pictures. I am sure you will be pleased with the work.

B. S. CAMPBELL, Over Dorsey's drug store.

B. Presson, Pressonville, Kans., writes: "Nothing like Foley's Honey and Tar, is the universal remedy of all who have used it. Especially has this been true of coughs accompanying a gripe. Not a single bottle failed to give relief." For sale by Melville Dorsey.

Choice canned goods of all kinds, cereal foods, coffee, teas, syrups, foreign and domestic fruits, etc. HENDERSON GROCERY CO., Okey Goodrich, Manager.

Entertaining. The enterprising firm of J. H. Lassiter & Co. have just had put in a cash carrier system which greatly facilitates business in their store. Everything passes through the office—all items of sales, cash received, etc.—and the walking that had to be done by the clerks was quite taxing upon their strength as well as consuming a great deal of time unnecessarily. Hence the introduction of the cash carrier system. This is so arranged as to make it accessible to each of the three principal departments of the establishment. All you have to do is to put the money and ticket of sales in the proper receptacle, pull the spring back, release the car and away it goes like a streak of greased lightning to the tightly stretched copper wire to the book-keeper and cashier. The money returns to its place by gravitation. This innovation is a big time and labor saver and is in keeping with the progressive ideas of this progressive firm.

V. B. Conklin, of Bowersville, O., says: "I received more benefits from Foley's Kidney Cure than from any other medicine prescribed by physicians." For sale by Melville Dorsey.

Of Interest to Farmers. As the spring has opened and crops are being planted, insects are again becoming numerous and their ravages will soon begin. We wish to urge the farmers not to wait until a crop is ruined, and then write for information, but as soon as an insect enemy is detected, send some specimens to this office, so that they may be identified, and remedies suggested. The importance of the work against injurious insects is becoming more and more apparent. Everybody is invited to make free use of this office to obtain information regarding insect friends and foes. CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson.

SPLENDIDLY PRODUCED. The Fisherman's Luck as Presented by the Oxford Dramatic Club at Cooper Opera House Monday Night.

One of the very best performances that has been presented at Cooper Opera House in a long time, whether by amateurs or professionals, was the presentation of the beautiful comedy drama, entitled: "The Fisherman's Luck," by the Oxford Dramatic Club Monday night. It was exceedingly well rendered and highly enjoyable throughout. There was not an inferior character in the whole play while some of them were unusually strong. Where all did so well we should not particularize, but it is not too much to say that the work of the leading characters, where there was broader scope and finer opportunity for the display of the actor's art, would have done credit to professionals. Following was the cast: Tom Manly, a poor fisherman—Mr. Frank J. Sheridan. William Farren, a nice Squire Hammond—Mr. Wm. A. Devin. James Hammond, Farren's son—Mr. Frank Hogoboom. David Morris, a young lady—Eugene Davison. Mr. Walter Stradley. Silas Kidder, stage-struck—Mr. William Fenner. Rev. George Meadors—Mr. Sidney Minor. Rose Prescott, Hammond's ward—Miss Nellie Curran. Mrs. Manly, Tom's mother—Mrs. Carrie Ruth. Manly, Tom's sister—Miss Carrie Hogoboom. Little Nellie, a waif of the ocean—Little Lizzy Hancock.

Each character was well sustained, and each player in looks, manner and acting being peculiarly adapted to the role essayed. If one seemed better than another it was because he had the better part, not because of the finer quality of his work, or the fuller measure with which he filled his part.

Only words of commendation were passed upon the play and those who were present went away feeling themselves debtors to the exceedingly clever and talented young ladies and gentlemen of the Oxford Dramatic Club for the very meritorious and enjoyable entertainment provided. It was regretted that they did not have a full house. They certainly deserved it and we dare say it had been known what a rare treat was in store the audience would have been much larger.

SMOOT-ROBERTS NUPITALS. Prominent and Popular Young Couple of Durham Plight Their Troth—Presbyterian Church the Scene of a Beautiful and Impressive Marriage at High Noon Tuesday.

From the Durham Sun of the 16th we take the following which will be read with interest here where the groom formerly lived and is well known and quite popular: Today at high noon in the Presbyterian church occurred one of the most beautiful as well as auspicious marriages, the contracting parties being Mr. Otis Suptin Smoot and Miss Ethel May Roberts.

Just before the bridal party entered the church, Miss Elizabeth Taylor sang most sweetly and impressively "I Love You." As the strains of the wedding march, beautifully played by Miss Elizabeth Turnbull, pealed forth, the bridal party entered. First came the ushers, Mr. Ralph Fuller, along the right aisle; Mr. P. C. Sneed, left aisle; Mr. J. C. Biggs, right aisle, and Mr. N. M. Alston, left aisle.

Next came the maid of honor, Miss Fan Covington, of Danville, Va., who entered by the left aisle. Along the same aisle came the bride leaning on the arm of her step-father, Mr. J. W. Brooks. They were met in front of the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Willard Smoot, of Richmond, Va., who entered by a side door. The ceremony was performed in a very impressive manner by Rev. Dr. L. B. Pruitt.

The church was filled with relatives, friends and acquaintances of the contracting couple, there being a number here from a distance. The decorations of the altar consisted of palms, Easter lilies, etc., the organ being almost hidden from view.

The groom and bride, accompanied by the bridal party, left soon as the ceremony was over for the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brooks, in West Durham, where a wedding repast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Smoot left on the 2:27 train this afternoon for Pinehurst, where they will spend a day or two, after which they will return to Durham and from here will leave for their future home in San Francisco, Cal., where they will be "at home" at the Occidental Hotel after May 1st.

The bride is a beautiful and accomplished young lady, who, by her many lovely traits of character, has won a large circle of friends not only in Durham but throughout North Carolina and other States. The groom is one of the best known and most efficient business men, who, like his lovely bride, enjoys the love and confidence of both of friends.

Among those who were here to attend the marriage were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lewis and Mr. John Horton, of Henderson; Miss Willie Smoot, Mr. Willard Smoot, of Richmond, Va.; Miss Fan Covington, Messrs. J. M. and J. G. Covington, of Danville, Va.; Mrs. William Harris and Miss Ora Harris, of Heidelberg, Miss Sallie Brooks, of Woodsdale.

A Raging, Roaring Flood Washed down a telegraph line which Chas. C. Ellis, of Lisbon, La., had to re-string on one of his water wheels. He writes, "I gave me a terrible cold and cough. It grew worse daily. Finally the best doctors in Oakland, Neb., Sioux City, and Omaha said I had consumption and could not live. Then I began using Dr. King's New Discovery and I was wholly cured by six bottles." Positively guaranteed for Coughs, Colds, and All Throat and Lung troubles by Melville Dorsey. Trial bottles free. Price 50c.

Letter From Epsom. Epsom, N. C., April 15, 1901. EDITOR GOLD LEAF:—There are nearly as many April babies in and around Epsom as there are hills of corn planted.

The current news of Epsom is hardly permissible in print this week, except that there is the faintest whisper that a new silk dress is at the manufacturer's shop. How low and this makes some of us feel. But, as the old woman said of the mountain, "It is just as I expected." However, since "she" is one of our boys, the rest of us will try to resign ourselves to the inevitable, and prepare to extend to him our hearty congratulations.

Mr. Otis Sledge spent yesterday (Sunday) with some of our neighbors. Now, watch out, boys; when these preacher's sons begin to come around they mean business, and the first thing you know, we shall be left with our wives. The weather continues to be so cool that the farmers are making poor headway with their crops. Very few men have finished planting corn. Gardening is scarcely begun. The whip-poor-will's message was too early.
