How much and Chowan is the smallest with 161. it contributed by the negroes, nearly of this is due to unjust and unreason-Nature's own protection against a too intimate intermingling of the races, it is not necessary here to discuss; because it is not the function of government to protect social privileges. The function of government is fulfilled when the rights of person, of property, of reputation, and of the family, and the liberty which results therefrom, are maintained. And in that liberty is the right of each individual man to choose his own social companions as he pleases for himself and for his children. Whatever there may be of race prejudice in the South is to be removed, if removed at all, by the gradual, pervasive influence of teaching, not by the power of government.
