A VISIT FROM ST. NICHOLAS

ANNOUNCEMENT!
 The dissolution of the firm of Davis & Rose has already been announced. Having associated myself with others I will continue in the general merchandise business, the new concern to be known under the firm name and style of Rose's Mercantile Company
 After the first of January we will occupy the store room in Cooper Opera House building two doors from the Citizens Bank.
 It is our purpose to conduct a strictly first-class, up-to-date establishment providing at all times the class of goods the trade demands, and we shall spare no effort to serve our customers to best advantage—better in fact than ever before being in better position to do so.
POPULAR MERCHANDISE AT POPULAR PRICES.
 Will be our motto. We extend the public in advance of our opening a cordial invitation to call and see us at our new place of business with our new stock and new inducements to offer.
 Gratefully acknowledging the liberal patronage given me as a member of the old firm I take this occasion to again express sincere thanks thereof and respectfully solicit a continuance of the same, trusting that the cordial relations which have existed between us in the past may be maintained in the future.
 Very respectfully,
GEORGE A. ROSE.
