It Must Come.

And just as one anticipates the changes of other seasons it is wise to anticipate this change of season and pre-pare for it. In this way the discomforts and disasters suffered by many women at the period of change can be avoided or

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, a medicine for every season of woman's life, will entirely meet the needs of women at this giod of change. It cures the physical ils and relieves the mental anxiety and depression usually associated with this critical period. It tranquilizes the nerves, neontages the appetite and induces re-

$500 REWARD:

WHO CANNOT BE CURED. Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

J. S. Carlisle, Esq., of Manchester, Coffee Co., Tenn., writes: "I have been using your medi-cines for the last sixteen or eighteen years in my Poor-house. I am superintendent of the Coffee County Poor-house and Asylum combined, Your 'Favorite Prescription,' Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' are the best medicines for the diseases for which they are trecommended that I ever used. They are medicines for the diseases for which they are recommended, that I ever used. They saved my wife's life at the time of 'change of life.' I have been recommending your medicine to many afflicted women and have also guaranteed that if it did not cure I would pay back the money spent for it. I have told our druggist that if the people came back and said Doctor Pierce's medicines did not give satisfaction, to give them back their money and charge it to man I have not once been called upon to refund. I have never found anything to equal the 'Favorite Prescription' for diseases of women."

are to be found in every town and city, and village where there is a newspaper printed. Their chief loafing place is the newspaper office. They drop in on the editor and business manager at hours seasonable and unseasonable. They generally come in to have a grievance of their own aired through the columns of the paper. They insist on instructing the newspaper men how to conduct the paper. They want the paper made "more spicy." "Why don't you put more life in your paper?" they ask. And when the editor comes to sift the matter he will find that they want him to "pitch into" someoody, generally a public official, about a matter in which the public has no interest and which concerns no one except themselves. And when the editor tells them that it is none of his fight; that if they want a public grievance corrected to go in person to the proper authorities they get mad and declare the editor has no backbone and threaten to get up a joint stock company for the purpose of starting a paper which will 'look after the interests of the people." If the editor is foolish enough to take up the fight of such a man, thinking he is acting for the good of of the public he is very apt to find playing a remarkable degree of indifference to the welfare of the "dear people," or have joined sides with he parties they wished roasted in the press and are criticising the editor for his hasty remarks. The Virginian-Pilot well describes such a man in the following:

"In good truth the man who always wants the newspapers to take up some row with which he has nothng to do is one of the funniest criters that ambles down the pike. Newspapers know this type. He is continually insisting that the newspaper sack somebody. He wants to hear the rat-tat of column rules upon the slats of some foe of the dear public. But when it comes to toeing the scratch and putting up a fight himself, you will in nine cases out of ten. have to cultivate the underbrush with a fine-tooth comb or assault a hollow log to find him. But if a newspaper will just put up a scrap he will stand around with his eyes protrudng like a sandfiddler's and you can bet that none of the fun will get by little that way.
