

VOTE THE WHOLE TICKET.

Do Not Let Prejudice or Personal Feeling Cause You to Scratch the Name of Any Democrat.

It is apparent that the Republicans have not the faintest hope of defeating any Democratic nominee upon the State ticket.

It is especially objectionable to the Republicans for several reasons. In 1898, when the State was under the control of Russell B. Trent, the Democrats, and all that crowd, and few of us hoped we would be able to redeem it that year, Frank Winston was asked to take charge of the White Supremacy Clubs.

During that campaign he was asked to run for the Legislature in Bertie county, and he consented to make the race, as well as to organize White Supremacy Clubs.

No wonder the Republicans have a grudge against this man. But it will be strange indeed if Democrats forget his services in so short a time and neglect to vote for him.

As chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, I earnestly request you to use your influence between this time and the day of election, and especially at the polls on election day.

Confederate Veterans.

Our Republican friends are bewailing the alleged fact that Democracy has gone back on the old Confederate soldier.

It seems that these gentlemen themselves do not regard the Democratic party as having forsaken them, or the cause of the old soldier either.

What does the Democratic party say about Confederate veterans? Here is its platform declaration:

"The Democratic party established the system of pensioning Confederate soldiers and opened the Soldiers' Home to the care of the veterans who responded to the call of the State in the war between the States."

But the Democratic party has done more than simply insert platform declarations on the subject.

In 1885 the first pension law was passed by the Democratic legislature, appropriating $30,000 for certain classes of disabled Confederate soldiers, and that law has been amended by Democratic legislatures, until today the appropriation amounts to $200,000 annually.

For the totally blind and totally disabled Confederate soldiers the Democratic legislature passed a law allowing them $120 a year.

With these hard facts staring citizens in the face, it is not simply ridiculous for Republicans to talk about the Democracy turning its back on the old veteran?

Does the Democratic party feel an interest in the old Confederate soldier and attempt to look out for his material welfare?

The facts answer for themselves.

Confessions of a Priest. Rev. Jon. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes: "For 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief.

A drop of ink. Makes millions think. Dropped on the writing desk or chair it makes men swear.

A Softer Brush. "I never could love a man with whiskers." "You're prejudiced. They are much pleasanter to love than one with a beard of two days' growth."

ROWLAND-PARHAM.

Wedding of a Popular Young Couple Celebrated at the Home of the Bride Near Oxford.

MINNERSVILLE, N. C., Oct. 22.—Amid ideal surroundings at Oak Glen, the truly beautiful home of Mrs. Emma Parham, three miles East of Oxford, Oct. 18, at 2 p. m., was solemnized the marriage of Miss Blanche Parham and Junius Moore Rowland, of Middleburg.

The decorations were ferns, palms and white chrysanthemums, the color scheme being white and green. An especially pretty part of the decoration was two magnificent candelabras used at the marriage of the bride's mother.

The wedding march was exquisitely rendered by Mrs. J. H. Goodrich, nee Miss Sadie Hunt. As the sweet strains of the ever alluring march sounded, Masters Joe Parham and Harry Rowland, nephews of the bride, respectively, bearing lighted candles and took their positions on small pedestals just back of the minister.

The gentlemen wore Prince Albert coats, white vests and striped trousers. The two ushers, Messrs. George Parham, of Lewis, and W. T. Rowland, of Middleburg, came in together.

The groom is the youngest son of the late T. P. Rowland, and has inherited much of his father's push and enterprise, and while yet young, is a man of affairs, being a large planter and stock raiser.

The bride is the youngest daughter of the late Mrs. J. H. Goodrich, nee Miss Sadie Hunt, long a leading citizen of Granville county. She is a young woman of beauty and culture, and has a sweet grace of manner that is irresistible and absolutely charming.

The groom is the youngest son of the late T. P. Rowland, and has inherited much of his father's push and enterprise, and while yet young, is a man of affairs, being a large planter and stock raiser.

After a most delightful luncheon the bridal party left for Middleburg, the home of the groom, where a splendid reception and supper was tendered by the groom's mother.

The bride is the youngest daughter of the late Mrs. J. H. Goodrich, nee Miss Sadie Hunt, long a leading citizen of Granville county. She is a young woman of beauty and culture, and has a sweet grace of manner that is irresistible and absolutely charming.

The groom is the youngest son of the late T. P. Rowland, and has inherited much of his father's push and enterprise, and while yet young, is a man of affairs, being a large planter and stock raiser.

After a most delightful luncheon the bridal party left for Middleburg, the home of the groom, where a splendid reception and supper was tendered by the groom's mother.

The bride is the youngest daughter of the late Mrs. J. H. Goodrich, nee Miss Sadie Hunt, long a leading citizen of Granville county. She is a young woman of beauty and culture, and has a sweet grace of manner that is irresistible and absolutely charming.

The groom is the youngest son of the late T. P. Rowland, and has inherited much of his father's push and enterprise, and while yet young, is a man of affairs, being a large planter and stock raiser.

After a most delightful luncheon the bridal party left for Middleburg, the home of the groom, where a splendid reception and supper was tendered by the groom's mother.

The bride is the youngest daughter of the late Mrs. J. H. Goodrich, nee Miss Sadie Hunt, long a leading citizen of Granville county. She is a young woman of beauty and culture, and has a sweet grace of manner that is irresistible and absolutely charming.

The groom is the youngest son of the late T. P. Rowland, and has inherited much of his father's push and enterprise, and while yet young, is a man of affairs, being a large planter and stock raiser.

After a most delightful luncheon the bridal party left for Middleburg, the home of the groom, where a splendid reception and supper was tendered by the groom's mother.

The bride is the youngest daughter of the late Mrs. J. H. Goodrich, nee Miss Sadie Hunt, long a leading citizen of Granville county. She is a young woman of beauty and culture, and has a sweet grace of manner that is irresistible and absolutely charming.

The groom is the youngest son of the late T. P. Rowland, and has inherited much of his father's push and enterprise, and while yet young, is a man of affairs, being a large planter and stock raiser.

After a most delightful luncheon the bridal party left for Middleburg, the home of the groom, where a splendid reception and supper was tendered by the groom's mother.

The bride is the youngest daughter of the late Mrs. J. H. Goodrich, nee Miss Sadie Hunt, long a leading citizen of Granville county. She is a young woman of beauty and culture, and has a sweet grace of manner that is irresistible and absolutely charming.

The groom is the youngest son of the late T. P. Rowland, and has inherited much of his father's push and enterprise, and while yet young, is a man of affairs, being a large planter and stock raiser.

After a most delightful luncheon the bridal party left for Middleburg, the home of the groom, where a splendid reception and supper was tendered by the groom's mother.

The bride is the youngest daughter of the late Mrs. J. H. Goodrich, nee Miss Sadie Hunt, long a leading citizen of Granville county. She is a young woman of beauty and culture, and has a sweet grace of manner that is irresistible and absolutely charming.

The groom is the youngest son of the late T. P. Rowland, and has inherited much of his father's push and enterprise, and while yet young, is a man of affairs, being a large planter and stock raiser.

After a most delightful luncheon the bridal party left for Middleburg, the home of the groom, where a splendid reception and supper was tendered by the groom's mother.

The bride is the youngest daughter of the late Mrs. J. H. Goodrich, nee Miss Sadie Hunt, long a leading citizen of Granville county. She is a young woman of beauty and culture, and has a sweet grace of manner that is irresistible and absolutely charming.

The groom is the youngest son of the late T. P. Rowland, and has inherited much of his father's push and enterprise, and while yet young, is a man of affairs, being a large planter and stock raiser.

After a most delightful luncheon the bridal party left for Middleburg, the home of the groom, where a splendid reception and supper was tendered by the groom's mother.

SAMUEL WATKINS' GREAT THREE STORY DEPARTMENT STORE

Is Full From Top to Bottom With All the Most Up-to-Date Merchandise.

The DISPLAY IS GRAND.

Ladies' Dress Goods

Our Dress Goods Department is overflowing with all the beautiful novelties of the Fall season, just bought by Mr. Samuel Watkins in the Northern markets.

Ladies' Fine Shoes

Zeigler's, Krippendorf's and Harrisburg shoes, $2.00, $2.25, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50 $4.00. Our $1.50 Watkins shoe is the best wearer for the money made.

Will Match Quality and Price With Anybody Anywhere.

C. Q.—CASH AND QUANTITY—This is the Secret of Successful Merchandising. The Man Who Buys in Large Quantities and Pays the Cash for His Goods, Can and Does Sell You Goods Cheaper Than the Man Who Does Not Do These Two Things.

CLOTHING AND GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

We sell the smartest clothes made—Schloss Bros. & Co., Strouse & Bros., Saellenburg's—the standard of perfection in custom tailored ready-to-wear apparel.

BOYS' AND YOUTHS' CLOTHING.

WATKINS' CLOTHES for Boys and Youths are notably the BEST TO BE HAD. And they are Lower Priced, too, than any others.

SAMUEL WATKINS

Has been in business 28 years and he presents the greatest and most complete stock this season that he has ever offered to the trading public of Henderson and surrounding country.

We Sell Good Goods and Will be Sure to Please You

Men's Hats—All Styles.

We pride ourselves on our line of Men's Hats—Wilson, Royal Limited, Stetson and other makes. Wilson hats $2.00 and $2.50. Cheaper by 50 cents than any other hat you can get anywhere.

Men's and Boys' Shoes.

Douglas Shoes $3.00 and $3.50. Tilt Shoes $3.00, $3.50 and $5.00. "Just Wright" Shoes $5.00, Hannan Shoes $5.00 and $5.50. Edwin Clapp Shoes $5.50 and $6.00.

FURNITURE DEPARTMENT.

The second and third floors are filled with Furniture—Oak and Mahogany, Iron Beds, Felt Mattresses, Springs, Crockery and Glassware of all designs. $5,000 worth of Carpets, Rugs, Art Squares, Mattings, and floor coverings of all descriptions.

$50,000 WORTH OF GOODS

We carry a stock of $50,000 worth of goods and can supply you every want. If we know it we never buy anything shoddy.

WE WILL NOT BE UNDERSOLD.

SAMUEL WATKINS.

CIRCUS! HENDERSON, SATURDAY, NOV. 3

UNAPPROACHABLE IN GRANDEUR AMERICA'S REPRESENTATIVE, METROPOLITAN SHOW

ADAM FOREPAUGH & SELLERS BROTHERS

ENORMOUS SHOWS UNITED J. A. Bailey, W. W. Cole, Lewis Sells and Paul Sells, equal owners and operators. DOUBLE HIPPODROMES, DOUBLE MENAGERIES, 1,000 PEOPLE, THE 100 GREATEST ACTS.

LA FAMILLE LECUSSON The American Champion Acrobat of the World SZARVASI FRENCH TROUPE of Nine Hungarian Magyar Dancing Artists and Melodists.

14 Live, Full-grown Polar Bears MONS. HUBERT, The Greatly Original Equilibristic Juggling Equestrian.

7 PRE-EMINENT EDITS The American Champion Acrobat of the World SZARVASI FRENCH TROUPE of Nine Hungarian Magyar Dancing Artists and Melodists.

THE MORNING FREE STREET PAGEANT IS A GIANTIC, GLORIOUS REVELATION OF ORIENTAL OPULENCE AND EPIC MILITARY DISPLAY.

Two performances daily, rain or shine. In new process of the most valuable and profitable of all amusements. Tickets on Sale The Eagle Pharmacy.

In Earlier Days

When the bathroom was not inviting by reason of its closed-in unsanitary water stand, a cozy corner of the sleeping apartment was usually set aside for making the toilet and was looked upon as indispensable to the well appointed room.

This order of things prevailed until the introduction of "STANDARD"

Porcelain Enamelled One-Piece Lavatories

Which are so dainty and attractive that the charm of the dressing room is greatly in favor of a bathroom equipped with a "STANDARD" lavatory, with pure running water hot or cold as desired.

"STANDARD" lavatories are made of many artistic and original designs, in pieces, without the unightly glass joints necessary to make undesirable no matter how much or how little you depend on your bathroom "STANDARD" lavatory can be selected which will give you better than one of any other kind.

Every fixture bears the manufacturer's "Green and Gold" guarantee label, and takes no risk.

Whether you contemplate building anew or have become dissatisfied with your present washstand, we want you to examine the samples of "STANDARD" lavatories and their ability of our workmen will meet with your approval.

Browne & Pearson, Henderson, N. C.

WORLD'S FAIR, ST. LOUIS SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

Account the above occasion, Southern Railway now has on sale daily, tickets at extremely low rates, to St. Louis, Mo., and return. Following are rates applicable from principal points in State of North Carolina:

Table with columns for destination, Season, 60-Day, and 15-Day rates. Destinations include Asheville, Asheville, Charlotte, Durham, Gastonia, Goldsboro, Greensboro, Henderson, Hendersonville, Hickory, Marion, Morganton, Mt. Airy, Newton, Raleigh, Rutherfordton, Salisbury, Sanford, Selma, Statesville (via Knoxville), Wikesboro, and Winston-Salem.

Southern Railway operates Through Pullman Sleeping Cars between Greensboro, N. C., and St. Louis, Mo., via Salisbury, Asheville, Knoxville, Lexington and Louisville, leaving Greensboro daily at 7:20 p. m.

For full information as to rates from all points, Sleeping Car reservations, schedules, illustrated literature, etc., address any agent, or R. L. VERNON, Traveling Passenger Agent, Charlotte, N. C. W. W. MORRIS, Agent, Henderson, N. C.