PRESIDENT MOVES FOR PEACE

Tells Count Cassini He Hopes Russia Will End the War.

Washington, June 5.—The president struck a blow for peace in the Far East. In a conference at the White House with Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, the president expressed the earnest hope that Russia would forthwith conclude peace with Japan. Prolongation of the war, he believes, will not result in victory for the Russian arms and can only serve to increase Japan's demands and render difficult the drafting of a treaty of peace which the czar as well as the mikado can sign. The president spoke, he said, as the friend of Russia no less than of Japan, and on behalf not only of the Washington government, but in the interest of humanity. Until his words have reached Tsarsko-Selo and have been communicated to Emperor Nicholas in the friendly spirit in which they were uttered, their effect cannot be estimated. Soon after reaching his embassy, Count Cassini began the preparation of a dispatch to his government.

What Japan's probable peace terms would be the president was wholly unable to say, but he did not hesitate to express the opinion that, difficult as these conditions might prove in the light of such a victory as that gained in the Korean Straits, they would increase in severity with every day that a state of war continued. Unless Russia has substantial hope of administering a decisive defeat to Japan in this war, the president believed it would injure to the interests of the St. Petersburg government to conclude peace at once.

It was Count Cassini's firm opinion that this was not "the psychological moment" in which to discuss peace with Japan. Whatever might be the ultimate decision of his government, he took the ground that Russia could lose nothing either by waiting or by continuing the war on land. There was hope yet of a victory for the Russian arms and his action in bringing away three ships are regarded by officers here as very creditable.

MITCHELL TO THE MINERS

Intimates Eight-Hour Day and Reconciliation Will Be Asked Next Year.

Scranton, Pa., June 5.—At Moosic, in the first of 11 speeches to be delivered in the anthracite region, President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, suggested, rather than declared, that the eight-hour day and a signed agreement with the organization will be insisted upon by the miners when the present agreement expires on May 31, 1906.

"The present agreement is the best you have ever had," said Mr. Mitchell, "but it is not good enough. We should have an agreement between the union and the operators. We should have the generally established short working day of eight hours. Whether these things will come next April or not is not for me to say; it is for you."

"What you get or fail to get," said Mr. Mitchell, "depends on yourself. If we have only 900 members in the anthracite field, where there are 150,000 mine workers, don't blame the operators if they refuse to recognize us."

WILL ATTACK WASHINGTON

Joint Operations of Army and Navy to Continue Six Days.

TO TEST FORTRESS MONROE

Washington, June 5.—Sixteen warships will attack the defenses of Washington and Baltimore at midnight June 11, and continue their offensive operations for six days and nights. Meanwhile the fortresses along Chesapeake bay and the Potomac river, constituting the military districts of the Chesapeake, Washington and Baltimore, will put forth every defense of which they are capable. With it all, the struggle is to be bloodless, practically noiseless, devoid of the spectacular, and intensely interesting only to the army and navy experts, who know the constructive effect of the unloaded mines and the empty shells. These exercises are to constitute the only joint operations of the army and navy during the year.

From the information obtainable, the program first contemplates the test of Fortress Monroe. Expert artillery opinion has long held that this fortress is the principal defense of the Chesapeake, and consequently the cities of Washington and Baltimore. Her big guns are said to cover the channel completely, and together with the mine field has been extended for the present exercises. The garrison has been drilled, and extra drills in the manipulation of the artillery have been in daily progress for some time and will be kept up until the date of the exercises.

The "hostile" fleet has been assembled under command of Rear Admiral Francis W. Dickins, and with his flagship, the Texas, is now lying at Annapolis. On the 16th of June Admiral Dickins will hold his last communication with shore. He will not divulge his plan or place of first attack, but it is the supposition that he will put to sea having technically established a base at Norfolk.

Should Fortress Monroe be the first point of attack, as is anticipated, the conclusion of the program there will be followed by the same operations against the fortresses nearer Washington and Baltimore. Forts Washington and Hunt constitute what is termed the "Potomac artillery district." Here, too, the garrisons have been drilled, and here, too, will the game be played just the same as if nothing had happened further down stream. The Baltimore artillery district comprises the defenses of Forts Howard, Smallwood, Carroll and Armistead.

The operations of the defenses are under the general supervision of Major General James F. Wade, commander of the department of the Atlantic. The men and officers under him for the exercises will number nearly 10,000.

Trolley Company Defrauded of $150,000

New York, June 3.—Officials of the Public Service Corporation, which operates the trolley lines in Jersey City, Hoboken, Bayonne, Newark, Elizabeth and other towns in Northern New Jersey, announced that the corporation has been defrauded within a year or more of the illegal use of transfers of more than $150,000. It is asserted that there has been a conspiracy between many conductors and clerks now in the company's employ and for-

TWO OPEN LETTERS

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN
Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington tells how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters as they so convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs.

Dear Mrs. Dimmick:—
I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from mental nervousness, the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the womb. The doctor says I must have an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me.—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D. C.
Her second letter:
Dear Mrs. Dimmick:—
You will remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe my health to my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them. Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and East Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.
How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—It saved her life. Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters, and she is glad to send you alluring women helpful advice.

LILIES OF HEALTH AND BEAUTY.

In a recent interview with Mrs. Lily Rogers, who has been called the "Lily of Health and Beauty," she said: "I believe in the superior quality of the foundation of every woman's health, that the key to perfect physical beauty is perfect physical health. A woman cannot be a beautiful woman unless she has a healthy body. Health is the basis of all beauty. It is the foundation of all vitality. It is the key to all success.
