Appointment of Dr. Wakefield.

In the announcement of Dr. W. H. Wakefield an error appeared in the date last week. His appointment for Henderson is Saturday, May 5th, and not the 6th. It was correct as to the day but wrong as to date as originally printed. Dr. Wakefield will be in Henderson—at Massenburg's Hotel—for one day only, and persons who wish to consult him should bear the appointment in mind. Practice limited to eye, ear, nose and throat, and fitting glasses.

Home from School.

Miss Lillie Goodrich, who has been teaching music at Bunn High School, near Louisburg, has returned home for the summer. The school closed Friday with commencement exercises. Miss Tazzie Cheatham of Granville county, who is one of the teachers in the literary department, accompanied her and spent a short while in Henderson. This is a flourishing school, of which Rev. W. R. Cullom is principal, and the people of the community are justly proud of it.

Time Extended.

Mr. F. C. Toepleman, General Manager of the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company, advises us that the time limit in which articles will be received in the free residence telephone contest, announcement of which will be found in another column, has been extended from May 1st to June 1st. This will give still further opportunity for entering the contest, and no doubt others will try their hand at giving the best reasons why every residence should have a telephone. The reward is worth trying for to say nothing of the satisfaction of being a winner.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bac, Ky. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemmorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures hemorrhages, chronic coughs, settled colds and bronchitis, and is the only known cure for weak lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by Melville Dorsey, druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

This is the season of listleness headaches and spring disorders. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is a sure preventative. Makes you strong and vigorous. 35 cents Tea or Tablets. Parker's Two Drug Stores.

Building Permits.

All persons who wish to alter, repair or build new buildings in the coporate limits of the town of Henderson, must first get a building permit from the chief of the Fire Department (Maurice J. O'Neil) or be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a penalty for violation of the law. Certain rules and regulations as to the size and construction of flues and chimneys must be complied with for the proper protection of buildings. This is in accordance with law passed by the last Legislature. Get a copy of the law and read for yourself. A permit is very easy to get and may save you considerable trouble and cost. As stated above this must be obtained from the Fire Chief—the Building Committee of the town Board of Commissioners have nothing to do with it and application to them is useless.

It is not difficult to relieve blind, bleeding itching or protruding piles with ManZan, the great pile remedy. It is put up in collapsable tubes with nozzle and may be introduced and applied at the seat of the trouble. Stops pain instantly. Sold by the Kerner-McNair Drug Company.

Paint Your House.

The expense incurred in painting is economy in the end. A coat of paint both beautifies and preserves. It pays in satisfaction and it pays in dollars and cents—the longer life of the material so treated. In buying paint you want to get the best. Attention is called to the advertisement of the Hascall Paint Company, Cleveland, Ohio. If you have any painting to do write them for their 60-day trial proposition, and handsome color card and price lists of house paints, metallic paints, roof and barn paints, white lead, varnishes, etc. They want you to test their goods before buying them.

The Hascall Paint Company are large manufacturers of paints of all kinds, cottage colors, white lead, varnishes, enamels, ready-mixed paints, carriage and wagon paints, barn and bridge paints, roof paints, etc. Nothing finer than Hascall's Carbon paint for roofs. Good on shingles or tin, elastic and durable and absolutely water-proof. 45 cts a gallon with privilege of testing it before you pay for it.

A dose of Pine-ules at bed time will usually relieve backache, before morning. These beautiful little globules are soft gelatine coated and when moistened and placed in the mouth you can't keep from swallowing them. Pine-ules contain neither sugar nor alcohol—just gums and resins obtained from our own native pine forests, combined with other well known bladder, kidney and backache remedies. Sold by the Kerner-McNair Drug Company.

Jail Doors Stand Open.

There is not an inmate of Vance county jail. The doors stand wide open—figuratively speaking, and Jailor Falkner looks lonesome amid the "banquet hall deserted." Two prisoners (both negroes) have been serving out short terms imposed at February court. One of these has been out sometime and the remaining one got his liberty Tuesday. This speaks well for the county and is a record of which we have cause to feel proud.

And the indications are that the May term of court will have but little to do. No true bills were found by the last grand jury requiring capiases to issue and there is no jail case for May court. A few small cases are on docket but the parties are out on bond. Three of the most important cases on the civil docket have been compromised and the term will be a short one in consequence.

HON. DAVID O. ROBINSON

Benefited by Vinol After All Other Medicines Had Failed.

The Hon. David O. Robinson, County Treasurer of Frankfort, Ky., writes, "I was very much run down from overwork and suffered from indigestion and a severe nervous trouble. The medicines prescribed all failed to help me, and I could not take cod liver oil or emulsions, as the greasy mixtures upset my stomach. One of our county officials told me about your delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol, and what it had done for him. I decided to try it, and in a remarkably short time I was a well man. Vinol built me up, cured my stomach and nervous trouble and I have not been so well for years."

Our local druggist, W. W. Parker, says, "Vinol cures conditions like this because it positively contains in a highly concentrated form all of the vitality-making and body-building properties of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, and without a drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work.

"We ask every run down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person in Henderson and every person suffering from stubborn colds, hanging on coughs, bronchitis or incipient consumption to try Vinol on our guarantee to return your money if it fails to give satisfaction." W. W. Parker, Druggist.

Roads and Other Things

New Scheme in the Temperance Movement--By Making Roads Impassable Country Folks Can Not Get to The Dispensary---In that Event Henderson Would Have to Drink all the Mean Liquor Herself or Improve the Brand.

Primrose Lawn,
Vance County,
North Carolina.

DEAR MR. EDITOR:—The Good Book forbids women folks to talk in church, because they do their full share of talking outside, I reckon. But as I can't find where it forbids them to talk in the papers, I make bold to indite you a few lines, especially as my subject is such a big one.

How noble it is to do good by stealth and have it found out by accident. How grateful we ought to be that right here in our midst, right here in Vance county, there are the wisest and most potent bands of temperance workers on the planet. And men so modest withal that they do their good work covertly, suffering not their left hand to know what their right hand doeth.

I mean, Mr. Editor, the men who are spending on the public roads the money we borrowed a bit back. We simple folks would have spent that money very differently. We should, I fear, have taken a low, material, utilitarian view of the matter. We might have spent it in taking bumps out of the road. They in their greater wisdom spent it in putting more bumps in. In a word, we should have made it easy to get to the ends of the road—Henderson. These inspired men with moral intent deep and profound, are doing just the opposite. They are making it impossible to get to Henderson.

And here is where the temperance work, the grand moral coup d'etat comes in. Henderson has a dispensary. A dispensary dispenses liquor. Liquor dispenses curses—the father of curses and the mother too we all admit. What can be nobler than to build a Chinese wall or better still dig a Vance county road between men and this father of curses. It may cause some slight inconvenience to we country folks and to the Henderson folks to be forever kept apart. But the Good Book tells us to lop off not only a few wants, but even a limb or so to keep morally whole. It would be a great loss to see Henderson no more; but it would be a greater gain to make teetotelers of the whole county.

But to do that we must not forget the roads to the moonshine stills. We must work them all and in the same way. I'll lay all the men keep sober, keep to home and keep their families. Let's do it quick too, because when the world finds out, as it soon must, the true result of the work of our road workers we shan't be able to keep them. True they havn't made the roads quite impassable in summer, but that was our fault. We did not give them quite money enough. They will do that by-and-by.

A female Solomon described a straw as a hollow thing with a 10c drink at one end and a 5c man at the other. How nicely last winter that description fitted our roads—hollow things with dranes at one end and men at the other. Only she overvalued the things at the ends of the thing, I am sure. I should hate to give 10c for the one. I know I wouldn't give 5c for the other. This accounts for my spinsterhood. For I could have had a dozen husbands had I the mind, or the face.

PAMELIA PRIM.

P. S.—It might be fatal to Henderson to cut off we country folks and condemn her to drink all her mean liquor herself. But then she would have to get a better brand or else kick the bucket. She ought to do one or the other anyhow.

P. P.

The Richest Man in the World.

The richest man in the world cannot have his kidneys replaced or live without them, so it is important not to neglect these organs. If Foleys' Kidney Cure is taken at the first sign of danger, the symptoms will disappear and your health will be restored, as it strengthens and builds up these organs as nothing else will. Oscar Bowman, Lebanon, Ky., writes: "I have used Foley's Kidney Cure and take great pleasure in stating that it cured me permanently of kidney disease which certainly would have cost me my life." Melvil'e Dorsey, druggist.
