Humor and Philosophy By DUNCAN M. SMITH

DOWN TO BUSINESS

It matters not how we orate About a cause that we are booming And on its merits loudly prate, Great bales of heated air consuming. And, be it politics or art Or something else for which we holler, The cause that's closest to our heart

Is one that brings us in a dollar.

Aloft in realms on high we soar About the future speculating. And theories deep we ponder o'er, Their merits carefully debating. But when we open up our vest And tell the searcher to go through us He'll find the fad that suits us best

Is one that brings the money to us We talk about the simple life And everything in that connection-In fact, we argue with our wife That it is good for the conclexion. In every way we to be out That it is better ! " the other, And then we turn ned think about How we can do a men and brother

We plan to push a force along, To hand a knockout blow to error, To take a crack at every wrong And be the evildoer's terror, And then we see a dellar note And drop our hobby to pursue it, Toss off our necktle and our cont Lest some one cisc should beat us

More Practical.

"If I had the wings of a bird I would fly to the farthest corners of the earth. I would some over land and sea and above the clouds. I would explore the earth from pole to pole and all hidden secrets should be mine."

"Ah, you sneer, but pray tell what would you do? "If I had the wings of a bird?" "Yes, if you had the wings of a bird."

"I'd fly too." "Of course you would." "Yes, I would. I'd fly to the cook with them the first thing."

Rapid Education. "You wouldn't guess it from looking at that burglar that he went through one of our leading colleges." "No, I wouldn't. Did he take high

"No. He only took some rare books and a few gold pens. He went through it in his profession as a burglar."

Paying For It. Summer's gone, and with a sigh Back we to the office turn, Leaving field and wood and sky Where the autumn signals burn, And those things we'll not forget;

They will harass us like sin; We'll remember with regret When the summer bills come in. Overlooked the Rest.

"That cab driver is no mind reader." "He thought $5 was all the money "How do you know?"

"That was all he charged me."

DEE'S LAXATIVE DEST

THE GOLD LEAF. Appeal to Negro Voters.

Republicans Urge Brother in Black to Line Up Solid to Save the Party from Defeat-Negro Picand Ignorant of the Race.

Thomas J. Pence in Raleigh News and Ob-

Washington, D. C., Oct. 16.-The Republican party, realizing the uncertainty of the result of the November elections, has, as a final resort, made an impassioned plea for the negro vote, with the expectation of marshalling under the Republican banner every black man in the country. The appeal to the negroes is in the form of a "Supplementary Republican Text Rook" entitled "The Republican Party and the Colored Man; Congressional Campaign, 1906." The brochure, issued under the direction of the Republican campaign committee, is handsomely gotten up. For the benefit of those members of the race who cannot read, it is illustrated. The frontispiece is a picture of Roosevelt, Lincoln and Fairbanks, while in heroic size, occupying a full page is a likeness of "Hon. Robert Smalls" (colored), "collector of customs of the port of Beaufort, S. C." Sandwiched in with Speaker Cannon and members of the Cabinet are full page likenesses of "Hon. John H. Devreaux" (colored) "collector of customs, Port of Savannah, Ga.," and "Hon. W. T. Vernon" (black), "of Kansas, Register of the U.S. Treasury.'

This appeal of the Republican party o an ignorant race, must of necessity attract wide attention in the ampaign. Nothing that Senator Tillman or any Southerner has said ment"should be read by every Southern man, because it is inconceivable how a Southern white man could enthuse over the G. O. P. after reading through the slobber that is thus addressed to the black man of the country with the object of corralling at the polls all the ignorant and viious in the race.

SPECIMEN EXTRACTS. Here are a few choice excerpts: "The grand old party, the colored "Rally to the cause of your race. "Millions of souls in the Southland appeal to the colored voters in the Northern, Eastern and Western States to vote for the Republican candidates for Congress.'

"It was the party that gave him the freedom of the ballot, which clothed him with the armor of citizenship and gave him a powerful and unrestricted voice in the affairs of the Nation; it was the Republican party that appointed colored citizens to offices of honor and trust, and promoted colored privates in the United States army to be commissioned officers: it was by legislation enacted by Republican Congresses and approved by Republican Presidents, that the laws which have been beneficial to us have been recorded in the statutes, over the persistent opposition of the Democratic party.'

to rally to the Republican party as the negroes did, who participated in the Civil and other wars. Here is the exact language: "Rally to Roosevelt and the Republican candidate of your district! Rally to the cause of your race with the vigor and determination that Crispus Attucks displayed in Revolutionary days; that your grandfathers and fathers exhibited with Sherman on his march from Atlanta to the Sea: with Sheridan through the bloody valley of the Shenandoah; with Mc-Kinley at Antietam; with the Union forces at Fort Pillow, Fort Wagner, Milliken's Bend, Petersburg, Seven Pines, Olustee, and many other engagements for the freedom of the colored man and preservation of the Union, and with Roosevelt the hero of the Spanish-American War, in a foreign clime against a foreign foe, for the glory of the flag, the integrity of the Nation, and the alleviation of the condition of oppressed human-

The cover contains a fulsome tribute to President Roosevelt, who is called "the apostle of the Square Deal Doctrine" and "all men up, rather than some men down."

in close States and districts. With this chief purpose in view, the brochure presents President Roosevelt as the overseadowing issue of the campaign. The first chapter of the little book treats of the President as should return a Republican House on non-partisan grounds. Elaborate extracts from Speaker Cannon's speech of acceptance also are published, as are also extracts from various utterances of Secretary Taft, including his Greensboro speech.

APPEAL FOR SOLID NEGRO VOTE. The appeal to the negro to stand in solid phalanx for the Republican party says, among other things: "Awaken to the cries and help to purposes. In fact could you conceive save the House. Millions of souls in voters in the Northern, Eastern and Western States to vote for the Republican candidates for the House of for surprise at all.—Charlotte News. "The condition of the colored man in the South remains unchanged, the friction between the races is as pre-valent as ever, and they are subjected to the most ignominious laws that ture Book to Catch the Illiterate could be enacted in the Land of the Free' and the 'Home of the Brave.' They call upon you, who have not been made the victims of political ostracism, to hearken to their appeal and supplication, and aid aid them in their long and persistent struggle for the procurement of their Constitutional rights, as an integral part of the American body politic.

"A great many of the advocates and friends of the race have announce ed from the rostrum, the stump and through the press, that the more we endeavor to equip ourselves with the essentials of citizenship, the less the nagnitude of the friction growing out of our previous condition of servitude will be. But to the contrary from daily occurrences and observations in the various walks of life, we are confronted with the horrible spectacles of an increased oppositon as we become enlightened and advanced n the elements of good citizenship. "Every State in the Union has enacted penal statutes, in commen parlance, for the punishment of criminals but in legal phraseology to deter the violation of the law. The Southern States have gone a step farther and enacted laws that are aimed directly at the decent, respectable and law abiding people, who are taking advantage of every opportunity to become valuable acquisitions to the community at large. The disfranchise ment and 'Jim Crow' car laws were placed on the statute books of the various Southern States, by the legislatures, for the specific purpose of stamping the colored citizens with will compare with it. The "supple- the badge of inferiority, subjecting them to humiliation and embarrassment, and making them the targets of ridicule, hatred and contempt, for the rising generation of whites. "This abominable condition of af fairs must be offset by the colored voters who exercise the right of suffrage, many of whom have heretofore affiliated with and supported the candidates of the Democratic party in municipal, State, and national electtions, or remained at home on election day without giving the condition of their people in the South the serious consideration which it deserves. The colored people in the South want Republicans elected to the House of Representatives, and every colored voter in the North should vote to send a Republican there in the November election.

Concluding chapters are devoted to a speech by the negro Register of the Treasury W. T. Vernon and sketches of the negro office-holders Deveaux Danger From The Plague .

There's grave danger from the plague of loughs and Colds that are so prevalent, uness you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs. Geo. A Slight Mistake.

There is a joke being told here at the expense of a modest young newspaper man in a neighborhood town which is so good it ought to be true. The young man in queston, it appears, was recently invited to a party at a residence where the home had recently been blessed with an addition to the family. Accompanied by his best girl he met his kind hostess at the door, and asked after the welfare of the baby. The lady suffering from a severe cold, which made her slightly deaf, mistakenly supposed that the young man was inquiring about her cold. She replied that, though she usually had one every winter, this was the worst she had ever had; it had kept her awake at night a great deal at first and confined her to her bed. Then, noticing that the scribe was becoming pale and nervous, she said she could see by his looks ROOSEVELT THE OVERSHADOWING ISSUE | that he was going to have one just The statement is frankly made that like hers, and asked him if he wished the object of the "supplement" is to | to lie down. Schnapps Tobacco is Made ENTIRELY from Flue Cured Tobacco Grown in the Piedmont Country. The Imitation Brands Have Schnapps Quality Only On the Outside Of the Plug

Hundreds of imitation brands are on sale that look like Schnapps tobacco. The outside of the imitation plugs of tobacco is flue cured the same as Schnapps, but the inside is filled with cheap, flimsy, heavily sweetened air cured tobacco. One chew of Schnapps will satisfy tobacco hunger longer than two chews of such tobacco. The color, size and shape of the tags, plugs and packages of certain imitation brands of tobacco have been made so much like Schnapps that they have often been accepted by buyers under the belief that they were getting Schnapps. Sufficient proof has been secured to establish the fact that certain brands are infringements and in violation of the trade mark laws, yet the trade will continue to be imposed upon by these infringers until the suit already entered and now pending to protect Schnapps is decided. A great many of these imitations are claimed to be "just as good" as Schnapps, but there is only one genuine Schnapps. Be sure the letters on the tag, and stamped on the plug under the tag spell S-C-H-N-A-P-P-S and then you have it—the most wholesome tobacco produced, with just enough sweetening to preserve the mild, juicy, stimulating quality of the leaf tobacco. Expert tests prove that this flue cured tobacco, grown in the famous Piedmont region, requires and takes less sweetening than any other and has a wholesome, stimulating, satisfying effect on chewers.

If the tobacco you are chewing don't satisfy you more than the mere habit of expectorating, stop fooling yourself and chew Schnapps tobacco. Schnapps is like the tobacco chewers formerly bought costing from 75c. to $1.00 per pound; Schnapps is sold at 50c. per pound, in 5c. cuts, strictly 10c. and 15c. plugs.
